

Chapter 69

Anaiah's POV

'This is interesting,' Smirks Arya, with a wave of her hand everyone leaves the room. The color was leaving my skin and tears welled in my eyes as I touch my stomach. I shook my head in denial. We didn't plan this and my mate vividly told me we shouldn't have kids now so I took the pill and I'm fucking nineteen. I was panicking at this point, I stood up and paced the room.

'Are you sure she's pregnant?'

'I can tell from her skin and choice of food are very familiar to the ones I had, I might be wrong though,' Rosario shrugs.

'When last did you have your menstrual period?' Asks Arya. I squint my eyes, actually remembering that I didn't get my cycle last month.

'Lately we've been so busy that I didn't even realize-' Fuck! I stare blankly at Arya. She covers her mouth with her hand, inhaling.

'You'll be fine, I promise,' She assures me. I nod and hug her. However, we had to be sure so we wore our clothes and get go to the nearest pharmacy.

My hands were shaking as I reached to grab the pregnancy test. We went to the bathroom and I peed on the test, the minutes ticked by slowly as we waited, the results were out and it was positive. Oh lord,

'These things are not too reliable, I suggest we take another,' The girls only nodded. Arya passes the second test and the results are the same.

'That's it, Ana! You're pregnant! Oh my god, I'm going to be an aunt,' She spread her hand widely and grinned at me. I forced myself to smile but tears rolled down my face. Relax Anaiah, a child is a blessing and even though we didn't plan for this, I'm sure he'll love it.

'Congratulations, Luna,' Rosario hugged me quickly and I looked at her belly. We stayed in the pharmacy for a while because I had no strength in me.

'You'll be alright, our mate won't be as ecstatic well, because he'll fear for us but he will come around,' My wolf, Chalo assures me.

'Thanks.'

As Arya talked about how much she will spoil the baby, my mind trailed to my mate. I hope his reaction won't be too bad. We reached the castle and entered, going straight to the kitchen.

'Luna,' The chefs and assistants bowed and greeted us. I haven't been here in a while, I went to the pantry to see if I can make some snacks for us but Maggie, the head chef followed

'Luna, are you looking for something? I can get it for you, please just tell me,' She smiled,

'It is alright Maggie, I don't even know what I'm looking for... I'll know when I see it,'

Arya and Rosario sat on the island, watching me like a bee. I opened the drawers and picked out the flour, and everything I needed to make chocolate chip cookies. I put my hair in a bun and wear my apron. Washing my hands, I started to mix the flour while I eat berries from a plate.

I baked as many as I could and just as I liked them, soft and chewy. I gave some to the girls who ate with pure gusto! I was proud, I sat with them and ate with them however, I loved the berries so I ate more of them.

'Arya, please don't tell your brother about you know what. I want to be the one to,' I told her, not wanting to speak about the pregnancy in front of the staff.

'You guys are keeping secrets from the one man you love most, harsh,' Rosario smirks

'It's not a secret, I'll take my time sharing,' I inform her, and we stare at Arya, she looks at us sheepishly and shrugs

'I'll take my time sharing as well,'

Touche.

It was already late, so I got a plate of cookies and bid the ladies goodnight. I opened the door and Leon smiled and walked over to me.

'Baby, I miss you. Did you have fun?'

He hugs me and I wrap my arms around my waist. I pulled away from him slightly and look up at him. He smiles again.

'Why are you all happy about,'

'Can't I just adore and miss you?' He retorts. We interlocked our fingers and he takes me to the salon. He pulls me down on his lap.

'I baked cookies, wanna try?' I ask, he nods and gets one from the plate, eating it with a frown. I know he doesn't like sweet food. We sat silently and he engulfed me in a hug.

We were feeling peaceful and he kept inhaling my scent ' Your scent is exciting my Lycan,' He whispers, and starts to kiss my neck. My chest was raising higher as he continued, his fingers trailed to touch my pussy and I spread my legs widely for him.

'Wet,' He whispers. I smiled and turned around, I cupped his face and looked into his lustful gaze. I gasp lightly when he tears my thong and thrust in me with his fingers. I push my hips against him as he continues and I kiss his neck, I feel his huge erection against my thigh.

'Aah,' I moan, he tears my dress in half, leaving my breasts exposed. He caresses the skin around them lightly before taking my nipple in his mouth making me moan.

'Move your fingers, ' I hold his wrist, and he chuckles against my skin, his movements are so fast and I'm panting, I wanted more, I need more

'Leon!' I scream as I reach my orgasm. I was breathing heavily and I get off him, removing his shorts and getting on my knees, I take his dick in my mouth and twirl my tongue. He slams back on the sofa with a pleasurable grunt, I keep pleasing him and he clutches my hair desperately, loud moans escaping his mouth as his pleasure builds and with a growl, he releases in me, I smile and get up, eyeing him and caressing his bare chest. He is grinning.

I position myself on his shaft and lower myself down, I close my eyes as I take in his size and I sigh in satisfaction. I push my hips and he grips my waist.

'You're beautiful, you know,' He says as we move. I smile and kiss him, the kiss sensual and I don't stop moving on top of him. I can tell that he's about to come and I move slowly just to tease him.

He growls at me, biting my collarbone.

'Horny dog,' I give him another kiss and get back on the fast pace.

His breathing is irregular and he holds me tighter against him as he cums, his body is shaking.

'Ana,'

I wrap my arms around his shoulder and close my eyes, is this the right time to tell him that we are expecting a pup? I look up at him and he gives me a tiny smile, kissing my forehead. His eyebrows crease,

'Baby is everything alright?' I only smile and nod.

I'll find the perfect time to tell him, not tonight.
