

Chapter 79

Arya's POV

My life with Jacob has been going well and soon, his babies will be here however, I haven't told my brother about being mates with him. I hope he doesn't react badly, even though things between the packs have calmed, we are not friendly.

'Hello, ladies,' Waves Jacob when he enters his apartment, Rosa and I smile at him but he scowls, sniffing the air,

'What is going in here?' He asks, rushing to the kitchen. I was trying to make sausages but it didn't turn out well and Rosa can't cook to save her life.

'I was trying to cook,' I tell him and he furrows his eyebrows.

'Allow me,' He rolls his sleeves to his eyebrows and gets what he can from the mess however, it was burned badly.

'Wow, Ms. Lavista, just wow,' He chuckles, putting oil on a pan and frying meat. I shrug and sit on the counter, watching him do his magic in the kitchen. My mate is sexier when he's cooking and all I want to do is fuck him against this counter until he sees stars. He walks around the island and circles his arms around my waist, making me smile and he kisses my neck softly. My fingers fly to his hair and I caress it softly. The feather-like kisses he's placing on my skin make my insides fill with butterflies and my body is getting hot.

'Want to fuck me till I see stars, please do,' He husks, I spoke loudly again. His voice alone is enough to make me wetter and I turn to face him, kissing him with urgency.

I grab his tie and direct him upstairs to his bedroom and put him in his favorite chair, he has a smile on his lips and I get on my knees, pulling his pants down before taking off my own, I'm left in my black laced thong and he almost jumps on me like an animal but I stop him with my hand

'We are going to be civil today, Sir,' I begin by kissing every visible skin and a shiver goes down his body. I go down to kiss his erection sultry and he groans, making me sigh in satisfaction. My kisses move to his nipples and he studders, he's ticklish.

'Arya, please,' He begs, wanting me to ride him now.

'Shhh,'

'My fucking dick is throbbing,'

I take it in my hands, playing with it a little bit. I bite my bottom lip and grab my neck, biting me hard. I touch my lip and gasp to see I'm bleeding

'Animal,'

He licks the blood off my lip and kisses my neck, leaving all sorts of hickeys, he tends to do that lately. My inner Lycan, Emy, purrs. Jacob grips my thigh and slips two fingers into my pussy, he was rubbing my clitoris while fingering me and I moan.

It didn't take long to reach my orgasm and I placed myself over him in a straddling position.

'You smell heavenly, Arya,'

He groans in pleasure as I take him all the way in slowly. His burning gaze is on me and I start to rotate my hips, his hands grab my waist and he moans my name, loving how I'm riding him. I bend down to kiss his neck and leave hickeys all over him since I can't mark him just yet.

My hips are moving vigorously and we are making animalistic sounds, that's how good it is. Jacob is moving under me as well, his eyes amused the whole time, and with a few more thrusts, we cum, breathing and panting heavily as we try to reconnect to reality from the high we were on when the door burst open and Alpha Erickson walks in,

'You've got to be fucking me,'

'Brother, get the fuck out!' Jacob roars, trying to hide my naked body from his brother's deplorable gaze however, the Alpha of the North doesn't leave. I get off Jacob, getting my clothes from the floor all while maintaining eye contact with Erickson.

'Wow, couldn't you find anyone else to fuck?' He asks, baffled. Jacob sighs and zips up his pants before facing his brother

'Let's talk in my office,'

I glare at Jacob, if they are going to talk about me I'd rather I'm present. While I pondered on that thought

Rosario comes in, 'Guys, you've burned the lasagna and I – Oh fuck, Alpha Erickson,' She immediately bows her head to her Alpha.

Erickson's gaze moves between us all and perplexity registers on his face, did Jacob not tell his brother about Rosario? Fuck.

'Jacob what is going on here, a harem?'

Jacob snorts and sighs.

'Brother meet Arya, my mate, and that pretty petty lady over there is Rosario, she's carrying my babies,'

At this point, Erickson looks like he's exploding with all this information, he keeps gaping like a fish.

'I'm sorry for not telling you Alpha, I was looking for the best way to break the news to you but months kept on going and now here we are,'

Erickson stays silent for a long time before he speaks

'Who's the apology going to?' He whispers but we heard because of our sensitive eyes.

'What do you mean?'

'Was that for your Alpha or your brother?' He asks, before Jacob can respond, he turns on his feet to leave the room. No one moves or says a word. I can tell that Jacob now feels bad for keeping all this from his elder brother.

'So... Should we order sushi then?' Trails Rosa, unsure of how to break the stillness. Jacob and I chuckle, and she leaves the room, probably going to order food.

I sigh and move closer to Jacob,

'I'm sorry about-'

'No, Arya, you have nothing to be sorry about, I should have told him,'

I hug him tightly to comfort him and he kisses my hair, hugging me back.
