Chapter 1171

Matthew gritted his teeth, wordless. He then reached out his hand into the box, and this time, he obtained the ten of hearts. Thereupon, Matthew had gotten himself a royal flush.

"Tsk, tsks..." The crown prince shook his head. "What did I tell you, Matthew! You're just so stubborn! I'm sorry to tell you, but you're only awaiting defeat!" He proceeded to insert his hand into the box, moving the snakes away as he scoured for the ten of spades while Matthew calmly watched as he searched in the box. After searching for a while, the crown prince was clearly nervous as he was unable to find the ten of spades.

"Are you looking for the ten of spades?" Matthew finally voiced. "I'm sorry, but I think I took the ten of spades out by accident earlier."

"What?!" The crown prince was stunned. He turned to Matthew, only to see the additional ten of spades in his hand. He couldn't believe his eyes. "H-How did you do that?"

"I took this card out the first time I put my hand in," Matthew softly explained. "Otherwise, why would I spend so much time in the box?"

The crown prince's face immediately blanched. He deeply believed that he had the upper hand. Little did he know, he was deceived by Matthew's trickeries. Since the very beginning, Matthew had been setting him up. He took away the ten of spades, but deliberately pretended to be going for a heart royal flush in order to make the crown prince think that he was in control. In fact, the moment the crown prince went for a spade royal flush, he had already lost.

Without saying more, Matthew sprinted toward the innermost room. Having traveled through the lengthy hallway, he arrived at the room's door. The door was tightly shut, but he rammed the door open and stormed into the room, only to find blood stains all over the room. He took a glimpse into the room and discovered Sasha—seemingly unconscious—lying on the bed.

Breathing a sigh of relief, he dashed over to her. As he was about to carry her, he heard some noises from the bathroom. He ran over to the bathroom and opened the door, only to find two people drenched in blood. One was Sasha's sister, Demi, who was covered in scars, her face riddled with numerous slash wounds, and her head was filled with wounds as she was on the brink of death. Despite that, she was still grasping the man who had fallen by the tub with all her might.

That man was none other than Liam. Although there weren't any wounds on his body, a knife was stabbed through his throat and blood was profusely gushing out of his neck. In his hand was a glass fragment that was still pricking on Demi's arm. Nevertheless, due to his massive blood loss, he didn't have much energy left.

In his hand was a glass fragment that was still pricking on Demi's arm. Nevertheless, due to his massive blood loss, he didn't have much energy left.

It seemed as if the two had undergone a battle for life and death.

When Liam had decided to kill Sasha off, Demi ultimately found the kindness buried deep within her heart. She tried to defend her sister, only for her significant other to put her into the crosshair, dealing with her before her sister. Regardless, Demi was, after all, a woman, and she was no match for Liam. Hence, she got beaten badly by Liam. Accordingly, the manic Liam eventually dragged her to the bathroom and intended to slit her throat in there. Panicked, Demi grabbed a fruit knife and probed it into the man's neck, which was currently what Matthew was witnessing.

Seeing that, although Matthew didn't know what exactly happened, he knew that Demi was trying to protect Sasha. Or else, Sasha would've been dead long ago. Although he wasn't exactly pleased with Demi, at such a critical time, the woman had certainly fulfilled her role as a true sister.

Chapter 1172

Matthew carried Demi out of the bathroom and fed her a mini Rejuvenating Pill to temporarily sustain her life.

Meanwhile, Liam stuttered, "G-Give me... a pill please... S-Save me... I'm D-Demi's husband, aren't I..."

Matthew wordlessly stared at the man.

Liam struggled as he knelt on the floor, and due to his immense blood loss, he hardly had any energy left to speak. Yet, he was still sobbing, pleading for Matthew's rescue.

At that moment, a mischievous voice came from the door. "Need a hand, Matthew? Even I feel disgusted just by looking at him." The voice belonged to the crown prince himself. He casually stood at the door, crossing his arms.

Without saying a word, Matthew grabbed another mini Rejuvenating Pill and put it into Liam's mouth.

Having swallowed the pill, Liam was significantly energized, and his life was at least saved. "Thank you! Thank you so much, Matthew! I'll be sure to repay this debt, and I-I'll never do anything sorry to you. I swear to God!" he excitedly yelled.

The crown prince scowled as he condescendingly glanced at Matthew. "He's more a p*ssy than a man. Why did you even save him?"

Matthew slowly got up and softly quizzed, "You wanted to lend a hand, you said?"

The crown prince pouted his lips. "Well, not if this is how you handle things."

Matthew turned to Liam and emphasized his words. "Dying is too much of a mercy for him. The only reason I allowed him to live on was to let him suffer to the point that he'd wish for death. Can you help me with that, crown prince?"

Matthew turned to Liam and emphasized his words. "Dying is too much of a mercy for him. The only reason I allowed him to live on was to let him suffer to the point that he'd wish for death. Can you help me with that, crown prince?"

The crown prince was stunned for a second before bursting out into laughter. "Hehehe! Oh, Matthew, you just won't let me down, will you? Good, I can help with that. Don't worry. My only weakness is that I have no talent for saving lives, but ways to torment a person? That's my forte! I'll make sure he regrets living!" He then waved his hand, to which the devilish young men behind him walked up and grabbed Liam by the neck before dragging him out of the room.

Sensing danger was approaching, Liam intensely screamed, "What are you doing?! Let me go! Let me go! Matthew, aren't we family? Save me please! Matthew? Demi, Demi! Save me! I'm your husband! Are you going to leave me to die? Demi, please!"

Despite his shouts, no one cared to answer him.

In the living room, Demi sat on the couch. She was now conscious, but all there was in her eyes was despair. Her husband almost murdered her and even attempted to rape her own sister. As such, she felt totally devastated by her men's behavior.

In the end, Liam was brought downstairs by the crown prince's men. Matthew had zero interest as to how the crown prince intended to handle Liam. The crown prince was more barbaric than an animal, and he would definitely allow Liam no easy death.

Accordingly, Matthew woke Sasha up. The woman immediately threw herself into his arms and wailed, and after she was told about Demi's story, she had a new perception toward her own sister. She then held Demi, whose face was drenched in tears, and hugged her as they cried in each other's arms for the very first time.

After calming them down, Matthew went looking for the crown prince, planning to explain everything about the incident to him. "Crown prince, everything between you and me up until now is a big understanding. The mastermind behind all this wishes to kill me off by taking advantage of your strength."

Despite that, the crown prince remained unaffected. He lifted his wine glass and mindlessly replied, "And? To me, personal grudges are basically nonexistent in this world, and there's only exhilaration. Matthew, since I've come to Eastcliff, we shall fight each other and determine who's the stronger one! And don't you worry. If you die, I'll kill the mastermind to avenge you!"

Chapter 1173

Hearing that, Matthew was rendered speechless by the crown prince's sickening attitude. He couldn't help but wonder how Poison Spider raised him to be such a wicked name. Unable to persuade the crown prince, Matthew thought it was unnecessary to try to reason with him.

Later, Matthew brought Sasha back to Lakeside Garden before giving James and Helen a call. Having been notified that their daughter had returned safely, they were overjoyed and relieved. However, the sight of Demi got under their skin, and they came down on her. Fortunately, Matthew defending her allowed the couple to finally understand what truly happened. With that, the family held onto one another as they cried out painfully. The boundaries between each of them had notably diminished.

Meanwhile, Matthew had come to a conclusion that the mastermind behind the incident was no less than daunting. Thus, he had to settle the matter as soon as possible, or more of his close ones would be prone to various dangers.

Once again, he contacted the four families and discussed their plan to shatter the Ten Greatest Families of Eastcliff. After hearing Matthew out, Wilson and the other three were dumbfounded by how Matthew escaped the crown prince's grasp. Thanks to that, they grew more confident toward Matthew. Consequently, they commenced their preparation to assist Matthew in getting the Ten Greatest Families of Eastcliff under their control.

The Left-Wing Guardian nodded. "I've gotten information about a man called Dr. Burton in Eastcliff. He was the man who took Jinny in back then. Him and his wife treated Jinny as if she was their own child. If we're able to capture those two, Jinny would definitely show herself!"

Lord Voodoo nodded in satisfaction. "Then we shall go for that."

"Yes, Lord Voodoo." Immediately, the Left-Wing Guardian led his men to execute their mission. Right as he was walking out of the door, someone else rushed into the room, and that person was none other than Charmine! Seeing her, the Left-Wing Guardian subconsciously grew hasty and swiftly extended his hand to stop her.

Nonetheless, Charmine had already raised her voice. "Lord Voodoo, Lord Voodoo! I'm Charmine, and I wish to see Lord Voodoo! Lord Voodoo, do you know who it is that killed my master?"

Chapter 1174

Left-Wing Guardian's expression changed abruptly. If Lord Voodoo knew what he had done before, he would be in huge trouble. He hurriedly stretched out his hand to cover Charmine's mouth, but Lord Voodoo had already looked over.

"Let her in!" Lord Voodoo ordered coldly.

Once Charmine was in front of Lord Voodoo, she knelt on the ground immediately and explained everything from beginning to end.

Hearing that, Lord Voodoo's eyes flashed with anger, and he looked straight at the three men next to him, causing their faces to turn pale.

Crow's first disciple hurriedly said, "Lord Voodoo, don't listen to her nonsense. Charmine colluded with Matthew to betray us in Orleans. Back then, our location was exposed by her. She was also the one who killed Master Crow! She has made it clear that she's here this time to find out our information and report to Matthew. You can't fall for her tricks!"

Crow's second disciple nodded along in agreement. "Yes, Lord Voodoo. Think about it, if she didn't conspire with Matthew, how was Matthew able to save her over and over again? This woman can't be trusted. Please don't be deceived by her!"

Charmine was furious. She didn't expect that her seniors would falsely accuse her.

Suddenly, Lord Voodoo ordered, "Shut up! I will investigate this matter myself, and I will definitely uphold justice for Master Crow."

"Chermine, since you're here, I have a task for you! I want you to use your charm curse to control the heads of the Ten Greatest Families of Eastcliff," Lord Voodoo ordered.

Hearing that, Chermine couldn't help but be surprised. "Lord Voodoo, you have already found that girl. Why do you still want to control the heads of the Ten Greatest Families?"

Lord Voodoo frowned. "You don't need to know the reason. I'm asking you if you can do it!"

Chermine hesitated a little, but eventually nodded slowly.

At the Clubhouse, the devilish young men hurriedly ran to the penthouse and reported in a low voice, "Prince, someone just sent over a file, saying that they want you to see it for yourself!"

The crown prince looked impatient. "That mastermind again? Haven't you found out who he is yet?" Saying that, he picked up the file bag and opened it, only to see that there were a few photos inside.

However, the moment he saw those photos, his expression instantly darkened, and his eyes were filled with malice.

He rose to his full height and roared, "Where is that person now?! Where did these photos come from?!"

When the devilish young man snuck a glance from the side, his expression changed as well. In the photo, there was a severely wounded woman who was being stepped on by a man. At a glance, he recognized that this woman was Poison Spider! No wonder the crown prince's so mad!

In the early years, before Poison Spider rose to prominence, she'd suffered a lot indeed. However, nobody could've expected that this mastermind could get their hands on such a photo.

The devilish young man whispered, "Prince, I have already interrogated the person who came to deliver the file. He's just an errand boy and doesn't know anything at all. However, he said that everything you want to know is in the file!"

The crown prince stretched out his hand and dug around in the file, where there was still a piece of paper inside with the information of the man in the photo written on it.

Without wasting a single moment, the devilish young man immediately summoned some men and left with the crown prince in a mighty procession. They rushed to a villa area in Eastcliff and barged in through the front gates with their cars. Though the security guards tried to stop them, the crown prince's men immediately got rid of all of them, leaving none behind. In the end, the crown prince carried a man out of one of the villas and walked away.

Chapter 1175

The news of this man being taken away quickly caused a buzz in Eastcliff.

The first person to receive the news was Leanna, because this man was her uncle who had contributed greatly in helping her to escape from Eastcliff back then.

After that, when Leanna returned to Eastcliff and rose to her current status, her uncle had also helped a lot. Therefore, Leanna had always greatly respected him.

Leanna was dumbfounded when she learned that her uncle had been taken away by the crown prince. If it were any other situation, she would definitely be able to solve it with her status. However, now that he had been taken away by the crown prince, they were in huge trouble.

The crown prince would definitely not show her respect.

Even so, Leanna had no other choice. She immediately sent someone to investigate what happened. Then, she quickly left her house and asked someone to contact the crown prince in order to meet him in person.

This was her uncle, so she would save him no matter what!

However, it turned out that the person Leanna sent was gravely injured by the crown prince himself before he could even speak. Moreover, the crown prince announced that whoever begged for this person's mercy, he would kill them no matter who they were! As a result, none of the people Leanna contacted dared to help.

Leanna was worried sick. Now that Billy was not in Eastcliff, no one could hold the crown prince down! In the end, Leanna had no choice but to go to the crown prince in person.

At the same time, Matthew heard of the news as well. When Matthew learned of the situation, he frowned. He knew that this had to be the work of the mastermind.

At the same time, Matthew heard of the news as well. When Matthew learned of the situation, he frowned. He knew that this had to be the work of the mastermind.

It was clear that the mastermind was still trying to make Matthew the crown prince's enemy. However, he had no choice. Leenne had helped him a lot, so how could he just stand around and do nothing when she was involved?

Therefore, as soon as Matthew got the news, he immediately drove to Chein Clubhouse. He couldn't let Leenne take the risk alone.

When he arrived, Matthew found that Leenne was one step ahead of him; her car had already been parked there. As he had no idea what Leenne's current situation was, he didn't dare to waste any time and rushed upstairs immediately.

At the entrance of the stairs, he was stopped by the crown prince's people. Though he tried to persuade them, they refused to let him up. Left with no choice, he could only knock them out and force his way up.

Upon reaching the penthouse, as soon as Matthew walked out of the elevator, he heard the crown prince's crazed voice. "You're begging me? Who are you? What right do you have to beg me? You want me to let your uncle go? Fine. If you jump down from here, I'll think about it. How about that?"

The crown prince sat on the sofa with a deranged expression on his face. As for Leanna's uncle, he was now hanging upside down in the hall, covered in blood and injuries.

Through gritted teeth, Leanna said, "Prince, I don't know what my uncle did to offend you, but he is my most important family. No matter what happens, I will protect him! If you let him go, I can give you all my property!"

The crown prince laughed wildly. "All your property? Do you think I lack money? Hmph, even with the properties of the Ten Greatest Families of Eastcliff combined, it won't be enough for me! I'm telling you, anyone who insults my mother has to die! Since you're begging for him, you have to die too!"

As soon as he finished, the crown prince grabbed a dagger on the table and aimed for Leanna. "Go to hell!"

Leanna's face fell. She was unable to dodge. Just as the dagger was about to impale her chest, a big hand stretched out and grabbed the dagger directly. Leanna narrowly escaped death!

Matthew rushed over and saw Leonno kneeling on one knee with blood staining the corners of her mouth. It seemed that she was quite badly wounded. The girl who was always following Leonno around as well as several of Leonno's bodyguards were all sprawled on the ground, their statuses unknown.

Chapter 1176

After her narrow escape, Leanna turned her head and looked, only to see Matthew standing next to her. Her heart jolted at the sight, and tears immediately started flowing uncontrollably down her face. She felt extremely safe, as if she had finally found a man she could rely on.

The crown prince frowned. "Matthew, what are you doing?"

Matthew replied, "Prince, Miss Sandel is my friend. I shall apologize on her behalf if she did anything to offend you. You..."

Bursting out in anger, the crown prince rose to his full height and roared, "Shut up! Who do you think you are, Larson?! You think you can apologize on their behalf? To me, you're just an insignificant fly! You're not qualified to stand here and talk to me! If you get out immediately, I can spare your life. Otherwise, tonight, you will have to die here like them!"

Matthew frowned. What happened to the crown prince? Why's he being so hostile? he wondered. He took a deep breath and said in a low voice, "Prince, you should know that this, too, was set up by the mastermind..."

The crown prince waved his hand impatiently. "Cut the nonsense! I don't care about that. I'll kill whoever I want! Matthew, you can either get out of the way, or I'll kill you along with them!"

Growing annoyed, Matthew uttered, "Prince, I don't want you to fall into the trap of the mastermind. Do you really think I'm afraid of you?"

"You wanna kill me? What gives?" The crown prince laughed wildly. "Matthew, you really are insolent! Hmph, since you want to die, I'll fulfill your wish! Get him!"

The crown prince waved his hand, and the two bodyguards beside him immediately rushed toward Matthew. Matthew quickly pulled Leanna away and went to fight the two bodyguards.

The crown prince waved his hand, and the two bodyguards beside him immediately rushed toward Matthew. Matthew quickly pulled Leanne away and went to fight the two bodyguards.

Without a doubt, the crown prince's bodyguards were no ordinary fighters. Both of them were very strong, and they were also extremely good at working together. When they fought alongside one another, they had a tacit understanding that took their strength to a new level.

At first, Matthew was completely suppressed by these two men and even took a few punches, causing his body to be churning with blood. However, as he became more and more familiar with their routines, he gradually turned the tables on them. After fighting for a while, Matthew began to gain the upper hand, and these two people were beaten back by him.

Everyone around was stunned, and even the crown prince's eyes widened. These two were Poison Spider's bodyguards, and their abilities were extremely terrifying. He had thought that it would be simple for them to kill Matthew, but he didn't expect that they weren't Matthew's match even when they were together.

He couldn't help but glance at Matthew again. Only then did the crown prince realize that he had underestimated Matthew.

The battle continued for a while, and Matthew seized the opportunity and hit one of the bodyguards in the chest with a punch. The bodyguard let out a muffled snort and took a few steps back, a trace of blood spilling from the corner of his mouth. This punch made him suffer a lot!

Matthew stood with his head held high and said coldly, "Prince, there's no point in fighting anymore! I'll take these two people away first. No matter what happens, I will definitely give you an explanation in the future. What do you think?"

The crown prince spat, "In your f*cking dreams! Unless I die today, don't even think about taking them away!"

After speaking, the crown prince rushed up and attacked Matthew with all his strength.

Matthew frowned. He blocked the crown prince's attacks several times and said solemnly, "Prince, you're no match for me. I advise you to stop..."

The crown prince gritted his teeth and didn't speak, but his punches became even more crazed.

At the same time, the two bodyguards and the crown prince's other lackeys all came over and surrounded Matthew.

When Matthew saw this, his expression turned cold. It was clear that they were going to fight him to the end!

Without wasting time, he held nothing back and finally beat all of them. Even the crown prince was also knocked to the ground by Matthew. It was only then that the battle ended.

Chapter 1177

Seeing them leaving, the crown prince was almost driven mad with fury and roared, "Matthew, if you dare to let them go, I will never forgive you! I'll kill you! I'll definitely kill you! I'll never forget this. From now on, you and I are enemies!"

Matthew sighed. He didn't know why the crown prince was so angry. However, he couldn't just leave Leanna behind. Hence, he ignored the crown prince and left straight away.

Though the crown prince continued to yell frantically, there was nothing he could do in the end.

After ten minutes or so, one of the crown prince's subordinates came back from outside. When he saw the scene, he was stunned and quickly took out his cell phone to make a call, but he couldn't get in touch with them anymore. Growing even more horrified, he immediately called to inform Poison Spider what had happened in Eastcliff.

After receiving the news, Poison Spider directly booked a plane and rushed to Eastcliff overnight. At four o'clock in the morning, the enchanting Poison Spider rushed to the Chain Clubhouse.

On her face, a rare nervous expression appeared. This was her only son, the apple of her eye. If something happened to the crown prince, she wouldn't be able to continue living.

She asked someone to go to the surveillance room to retrieve the footage, but found that after Matthew came in, all the surveillance cameras in Chain Clubhouse were destroyed. Therefore, she only saw Matthew going upstairs and nothing else.

This situation made Poison Spider's complexion even paler. Someone must have destroyed the cameras deliberately.

Poison Spider couldn't help but feel even more anxious. Now that the footage was gone, she couldn't find out what happened. Worse comes to worst, they might have really killed the crown prince!

After pondering for a moment, Poison Spider ordered gravely, "Prepare the car. I'm going to look for Matthew!"

At this moment, one of the crown prince's subordinates whispered, "Boss, don't you think the crown prince wasn't taken away by Matthew? When Matthew came, he was alone. Someone must have deliberately framed him..."

Poison Spider glared at him. "Nonsense. You think I didn't realize that? However, now that we don't know who took the prince, I have no choice but to do things the way they want me to. The purpose of the people behind the scenes is to use me to deal with Matthew. As long as I kill Matthew, the prince will be fine, understand?"

Only then did the subordinate understand.

Only then did the subordinate understand.

At five o'clock in the morning, in Tiger's villa at The Grand Garden, Tiger was asleep after a busy night.

He woke up quickly and opened his eyes, only to see a graceful woman sitting on the sofa in the dark bedroom. Although the room was very dark, her overflowing charm was obvious just by looking at her silhouette. In fact, the darkness made her figure seem even more alluring.

However, Tiger did not feel the slightest trace of joy. Instead, he broke into a cold sweat.

This was his bedroom, and he had arranged for at least a hundred people to guard The Grand Garden. There were around fifty people within his villa alone. Among them, more than a dozen were retired special forces. Moreover, within them were a few highly skilled men that he'd hired for a lot of money.

And yet, a woman was able to walk into his bedroom in his heavily guarded villa without him noticing anything. What the hell was going on?

Tiger remained silent, quietly grabbing the weapon under the pillow with his right hand.

Then, the woman said, "Don't move. Otherwise, I can't guarantee your hand will stay intact!"

Chapter 1178

There was an indescribable charm in the woman's lazy drawl, like a lover whispering intimately. However, the more this happened, the more frightened Tiger felt. He forced himself to remain calm and whispered, "Who... Who are you?"

The woman chuckled and turned on the lights in the room casually, revealing her face.

The first thing that came to attention was the terrifying scar on her face. However, this scar did not affect her beauty in the slightest, but added an element of mystery instead.

Her beauty was on par with Sasha and Leanna. In fact, even Leanna couldn't match the regal aura the woman emanated.

She wore a bright red lipstick, which was a color that most people could not pull off. However, it seemed to be made for her, which added to her brilliance.

Not only that, but she donned a red dress paired with a pair of blood-red heels. Even her nails were painted the same shade of crimson.

The woman did not respond.

Tiger finally understood why this woman could walk in here soundlessly. Mightwater's Poison Spider's abilities were extremely horrifying.

The woman did not respond.

Tiger finally understood why this woman could walk in here soundlessly. Mightweter's Poison Spider's abilities were extremely horrifying.

There was an indescribable charm in the woman's lazy drowse, like a lover whispering intimately. However, the more this happened, the more frightened Tiger felt. He forced himself to remain calm and whispered, "Who... Who are you?"

The woman chuckled and turned on the lights in the room casually, revealing her face.

The first thing that came to attention was the terrifying scar on her face. However, this scar did not affect her beauty in the slightest, but added an element of mystery instead.

Her beauty was on par with Sosho and Leonno. In fact, even Leonno couldn't match the regal aura the woman emanated.

She wore a bright red lipstick, which was a color that most people could not pull off. However, it seemed to be made for her, which added to her brilliance.

Not only that, but she donned a red dress paired with a pair of blood-red heels. Even her nails were painted the same shade of crimson.

Tiger's expression changed in shock, and he asked in a trembling voice, "Mightweter's Poison Spider?"

The woman did not respond.

The first thing that came to attention was the terrifying scar on her face. However, this scar did not affect her beauty in the slightest, but added an element of mystery instead.

Her beauty was on par with Sasha and Laanna. In fact, even Laanna couldn't match the regal aura the woman emanated.

She wore a bright red lipstick, which was a color that most people could not pull off. However, it seemed to be made for her, which added to her brilliance.

Not only that, but she donned a red dress paired with a pair of blood-red heels. Even her nails were painted the same shade of crimson.

The woman did not respond.

Tiger finally understood why this woman could walk in here soundlessly. Mightwater's Poison Spider's abilities were extremely horrifying.

Tiger recalled that she once entered Eastshire and single-handedly wiped out one of the Ten Greatest Families of Eastshire. At the thought of this, how could Tiger's meager abilities even begin to compare with her?

Tiger recalled that she once entered Eastshire and single-handedly wiped out one of the Ten Greatest Families of Eastshire. At the thought of this, how could Tiger's meager abilities even begin to compare with her?

"What... What do you want from me?" Tiger asked in a low voice. He felt panicked, and his forehead was breaking out into a cold sweat.

Although his strength had soared now, he knew very well that in front of Poison Spider, he was only one that could be squashed at any given moment. As long as Poison Spider wanted to, she could crush him to death with her own hands!

Poison Spider paced slowly around the room, looking at Tiger's collection as she drewled, "I'm not here for you. The person I'm looking for is Matthew. Ask him to come here. If he doesn't arrive within twenty minutes, you'll pay with your life!"

Tiger finally understood the situation. Matthew was now in Lakeside Garden. Although Poison Spider was conceited, she did not dare to violate Billy's rules. Though she was looking for Matthew, she did not dare to enter Lakeside Garden, so she could only come to him.

He gritted his teeth and replied, "Apologies, but that's the no! Mr. Larson is my buddy. I can't put him through danger..."

Before Tiger could finish speaking, Poison Spider turned around and shot him an icy glare. "You have no choice! Either he comes, or you die!"

Poison Spider glanced at him meaningfully and sneered. "I suppose you have a backbone. However, it's useless even if you do this. If you don't call him over, then I will go to Julian and Ed next. After all, there will definitely be someone who can get him to come over!"

Tiger's expression fell. Currently, there was no one in Eastcliff who could stop Poison Spider. In the end, Tiger had no choice but to call Matthew and explain the situation.

Hearing that, Matthew immediately drove over without wasting any time. Lakeside Garden was not close to The Grand Garden, but in the early hours of the morning, there was barely any traffic, so Matthew arrived at Tiger's villa within 20 minutes.

In the courtyard of the villa, Matthew saw around eight people lying on the ground. In the hall, more than a dozen people had fallen onto the ground. In every room, there were several people sprawled around the floor.

In other words, Poison Spider had knocked down all of Tiger's men on her way inside.

Chapter 1179

In Tiger's bedroom, Matthew walked in and found Tiger sitting upright, while Poison Spider was looking out from the balcony. Her silhouette looked like a regal queen from the back, making people involuntarily wanting to kneel down to her!

Hearing him enter, Poison Spider didn't look back, but said softly, "Good thing you arrived in time. I guess I'll spare this little kitten's life after all!"

Tiger didn't know whether he should be thankful or angry. At any rate, he was still Master Tiger of South Street. How did he become a kitten in her eyes?

Matthew asked, "Are you the crown prince's mother? Why are you looking for me?"

Poison Spider turned her head and glanced at Matthew, declaring, "I'm here to kill you!"

Matthew couldn't help feeling taken aback. "Why? Just because I defeated the prince? This is not your way of doing things!"

Poison Spider replied with a smile, "Did you study my personality before you took action? Hah, no wonder Billy respects you so much. You really are something unique. Still, you don't know enough about me! It's true that I don't usually act like this. But when my son's safety is involved, boundaries or rules no longer matter to me!"

While speaking, Poison Spider walked in front of Matthew. For the first time, Matthew saw Poison Spider face to face. She still had the face of a young girl and did not look like the mother of a child at all. The crown prince was already around 19 years old, so how could Poison Spider look so young?

"Are you really the crown prince's mother? You... You don't look like you are," Matthew couldn't help but ask.

Poison Spider was taken aback for a moment before she burst into laughter, her graceful body swaying about. It took a long time before she finally stopped.

Her charming gaze fell on Matthew as she said lightly, "What a cute little guy. It's a shame that, for my son, you must die!"

As she said that, Poison Spider suddenly rushed out and reached Matthew in the blink of an eye. Her hands were like two daggers aiming straight for Matthew's neck.

Fortunately, Matthew had been prepared for a long time and immediately raised his arms to block her hands. Poison Spider grabbed Matthew's arms with both hands and gave him a gentle push.

Suddenly, Matthew felt a strong force that directly pushed him back a few steps. He took a deep breath. Poison Spider, she's no easy opponent!

A trace of surprise flashed in the eyes of Poison Spider before she smiled again. "No wonder my son lost to you. As expected, you're skilled!"

While speaking, Poison Spider made another move and quickly attacked Matthew three times. Each time, Matthew could only narrowly dodge her attacks.

Poison Spider's moves did not have any rhyme or reason, and she only attacked as she liked. However, her attacks were very effective. It was difficult to hold her back even for Matthew.

Poison Spider's moves did not have any rhyme or reason, and she only attacked as she liked. However, her attacks were very effective. It was difficult to hold her back even for Matthew.

More importantly, Poison Spider's inner energy was stronger than Matthew. If this continued, Matthew wouldn't be a match for her!

Matthew didn't dare to think too much. Seizing the moment when he exchanged a punch with Poison Spider, he rolled back a few times and ate an energy pill. He'd planned to save this for his fight against Lord Voodoo, but given the current circumstances, he could only use it in advance.

Swallowing the energy pill, Matthew felt the energy in his body boiling, and the essential Qi in his body was also flowing rapidly. At this moment, his strength soared. He raised his hands and struck a punch on Poison Spider who had rushed over.

Poison Spider's expression changed, and she looked at Matthew in horror. "You... How did you..."

Even Tiger was stunned. He didn't expect Matthew to be able to defeat Poison Spider. All at once, he looked agitated at the turn of events. In Matthew's current state, he would definitely be able to devour the Ten Greatest Families!

Chapter 1180

Matthew stood up straight and said solemnly, "Poison Spider, I don't want to be your enemy. I will give the crown prince a satisfactory answer to the matter between us, but not now."

Poison Spider frowned. "Hmph. Today, one of us must die!"

Matthew's expression was cold. "Why do you insist on forcing my hand?"

After a moment of silence, Poison Spider told him about the crown prince being taken away.

Hearing that, Matthew was dumbstruck. He finally figured out what was going on. "This must have been done deliberately by the mastermind! He just wants you to fight with me to the death!" Matthew said anxiously.

Poison Spider gritted her teeth. "I know. However, I have no choice. Between you and me, one of us must die in order to keep my son alive. So, I have to kill you, or you have to kill me!"

With that said, Poison Spider charged at him again, desperately attacking Matthew.

Matthew couldn't avoid the fight, so he engaged Poison Spider once again. After taking the energy pill, his strength had doubled, and Poison Spider was not a match for him.

However, Matthew did not want to hurt Poison Spider too much, as she was also being used by the mastermind. Left with no other choice, he sealed Poison Spider's pressure points with a silver needle in the end, leaving her temporarily unconscious. After that, he took the unconscious Poison Spider to Lakeside Garden. He did not hide this matter, but let outsiders find out about it on purpose. He did this in order to let the mastermind know and prevent him from killing the crown prince.

The news quickly spread to the masked man. He almost went crazy when he learned that Poison Spider was defeated by Matthew. In his opinion, it was nothing more than a walk in the park for Poison Spider to kill Matthew. How did Poison Spider get defeated?

After contemplating for a long time, the masked man took out a cell phone and quietly contacted someone. He explained the situation to the person on the other end of the phone.

After listening to the masked man, the person sighed and whispered, "It seems that I still have to look for that person. You can spread the news."

The masked men hesitated before whispering, "If that person makes a move, will this... attract the King of the South?"

The person on the other end of the phone yelled, "I don't care about all of that now! Matthew must die!"

The masked men nodded slowly and hung up the phone. Then, he immediately asked someone to go out and spread the news.

At Lakeside Garden, Matthew locked Poison Spider in the basement and sealed her pressure points with a silver needle, rendering her unable to move.

As for Matthew, after he came back, the side effects of the energy pill began to appear, and he became extremely weak. This was very terrifying. If the effect of the energy pill disappeared in the middle of the bottle, then he would completely lose his combat effectiveness and be vulnerable to attacks. He sat down cross-legged and channeled his Divine Skill. It took a full hour for him to regain his strength.

He sat down cross-legged and channeled his Divine Skill. It took a full hour for him to regain his strength.

The news quickly spread to the masked man. He almost went crazy when he learned that Poison Spider was defeated by Matthew. In his opinion, it was nothing more than a walk in the park for Poison Spider to kill Matthew. How did Poison Spider get defeated?

After contemplating for a long time, the masked man took out a cell phone and quietly contacted someone. He explained the situation to the person on the other end of the phone.

After listening to the masked man, the person sighed and whispered, "It seems that I still have to look for that person. You can spread the news."

The masked man hesitated before whispering, "If that person makes a move, will this... attract the King of the South?"

The person on the other end of the phone yelled, "I don't care about all of that now! Matthew must die!"

The masked man nodded slowly and hung up the phone. Then, he immediately asked someone to go out and spread the news.

At Lakeside Garden, Matthew locked Poison Spider in the basement and sealed her pressure points with a silver needle, rendering her unable to move.

As for Matthew, after he came back, the side effects of the energy pill began to appear, and he became extremely weak. This was very terrifying. If the effect of the energy pill disappeared in the middle of the battle, then he would completely lose his combat effectiveness and be vulnerable to attacks. He sat down cross-legged and channeled his Divine Skill. It took a full hour for him to regain his strength.

At this time, it was already dawn. After having breakfast, Matthew was just about to go out when he suddenly received a call from Wilson.

Wilson sounded very anxious and asked him to go over quickly.

Matthew quickly rushed to the Lach Family's hotel. At this time, the heads of the four families were all here. All four of them were anxious, and when Matthew came in, they all stood up.

"Mr. Larson, did you capture Poison Spider? Hurry up and let her go now. There is still room for negotiation on this matter. If you delay any longer, everything will be too late!" Connor said anxiously.

Matthew frowned and asked, "Why?"

Connor said, "Mr. Larson, Miss Sandel should have told you about the relationship between Mightwater's Poison Spider and the King of the South, right?"

Matthew nodded. He had heard of this before. "Could it be that the King of the South is coming to Eastcliff?"

Connor shook his head, explaining, "It's not a problem if the King of the South comes. After all, Eastcliff is Billy's turf. If the King of the South personally comes here, Billy wouldn't allow him to do as he pleases! The problem is, the one who's gonna come here isn't the King of the South!"
