

Chapter 56

“Old Mrs. Graham, what happened?” Joseph anxiously asked.

In a trembling voice, Old Mrs. Graham replied, “Dr. Ellis inserted three needles into my son and... my... my son is vomiting blood non-stop...”

“What?” Joseph shouted in surprise. I remember that Dr. Ellis said that he would not use acupuncture to treat Mr. Graham, so why did he go against his own words? Furthermore, Mr. Larson’s predictions are completely accurate, that Mr. Graham really started to vomit blood after Dr. Ellis inserted three needles! This is shocking!

Matthew coldly said, “At first, I didn’t want to bother about this because of your attitude. However, I’ll help you for Joseph’s sake!”

“Thank you! Thank you!” Old Mrs. Graham repeatedly thanked him.

Matthew got up and brought everyone into the villa. At that moment, Dr. Ellis and his driver were standing at the side, looking panicked. It would be fine if Dr. Ellis didn’t manage to cure Mr. Graham. However, it would be a catastrophe if Mr. Graham died.

Mr. Graham only had a problem of not being able to bear a child. But now, he was about to lose his life after Dr. Ellis inserted the three needles. At the sight of Matthew, Dr. Ellis asked in shock, “H-How did you know that I will use acupuncture to treat him? How did you know that he’ll vomit blood? How come?”

Matthew smirked and replied, “It’s not that hard to figure out. From the things you bring around with you, I can already tell what medical methods you have and how you will treat different illnesses.”

“H-How is that possible?” Dr. Ellis was dumbfounded.

He didn’t know that Matthew inherited the knowledge from his ancestors and had learned all the medical skills in the world. In Matthew’s eyes, Dr. Ellis’s skills were just simple tricks, so he naturally could tell what he had up his sleeves!

At that time, Matthew was already standing next to Mr. Graham. He casually inserted a needle into Mr. Graham’s body and he immediately stopped vomiting blood.

Old Mrs. Graham and Dr. Ellis instantly stared in shock. A moment ago, Dr. Ellis did everything he could but still couldn’t manage to stop Mr. Graham from spurring blood. However, Matthew could easily stop that with just one needle. His skills were amazing!

Matthew casually said, “I can even accurately tell what medicine Mr. Harrison had first used to treat Mr. Graham, let alone you!”

“What?” Joseph couldn’t help being stunned. The first time I treated Mr. Graham’s illness was eight years ago, but Matthew is saying that he can accurately tell the medicine I gave him?

Matthew directly described a list of medicine and Joseph gradually froze. Matthew is right. The medicines that I gave Mr. Graham when I first treated him are exactly the ones he just listed out!

“Mr. Larson, you’re... really a man of God!” Old Mrs. Graham exclaimed because she remembered those medicines well.

Dr. Ellis was dumbfounded. This is unbelievable.

“Mr. Larson, is it possible to cure Mr. Graham from his illness?” Joseph asked excitedly.

Old Mrs. Graham waited for his answer nervously. After all, Mr. Graham was the only successor of the Graham family.

“He doesn’t have an illness.”

“What?” Everybody was stunned. Then, Old Mrs. Graham softly said, “Mr. Larson, my son... My son hasn’t been able to have relations with his wife. Because of this, his past two wives left him. We searched around for doctors and did every test we could, but it was to no avail. How is it possible that he is not ill?”

Matthew smiled before he grabbed a fruit knife and used it to make a few measurements on Mr. Graham’s lower abdomen.

“W-What are you doing...” Old Mrs. Graham’s face was as white as a sheet of paper.

Matthew didn’t say a word. Instead, he picked up a few silver needles and quickly inserted it near Mr. Graham’s lower abdomen. Just then, everybody noticed that a few bulges were starting to appear. It was as if there was something alive moving inside Mr. Graham’s body. Then, Matthew found the right timing and inserted the fruit knife into him. He gently twisted it a little and a piece of flesh was picked up. At the same time, he also pulled out a mealworm! Then, Matthew threw away the fruit knife and shouted, “Alright, Mr. Graham will be fine now!”
