

Chapter 63

“Matthew!” Helen was infuriated. “You said that the company’s bank account can be unfrozen. Tell me, how are you planning to do that?”

Matthew replied, “The person in charge of this is a manager called Bart. We’ll invite him to join us for lunch tomorrow and the problem will be solved.”

James and Helen were immediately disappointed. “Nonsense. If it could be solved so easily, we would have done it! Bart is obviously targeting us. Do you really think that having a meal with him will solve the problem?”

Demi glared at Matthew with deep hatred. “Matthew, let me explain it to you simply. Bart is doing this because he wants Sasha, but you’re asking her to treat him to a meal? Are you planning to let Sasha sleep with him?”

James was furious as well. “Matthew, you really are a worthless loser! You just pushed Sasha into a fire pit!”

Helen joined in, “Young Master Cooper was kind enough to lend money to Sasha without any conditions but you rejected him. Instead, you’re asking Sasha to treat an old man with bad intentions to a meal. Matthew, I believe that no loser is as worthless as you are!”

Demi yelled, “He just hates to see us happy!”

Sasha, who was in her room, was also disappointed. I thought Matthew had a good solution. I didn’t expect him to suggest this. Bart is not a good person, and treating him to a meal would basically put me in a position that lets him insult me as much as he wants. Matthew, you disappoint me!

“Enough. Matthew, you should prepare a divorce with Sasha.” James waved his hand and said, “Don’t worry. After you get a divorce, we’ll give you 500,000 as compensation. It should last you for a long time!”

Matthew sighed and said, “Please believe in me. Inviting him to lunch tomorrow will definitely solve this problem!”

Hearing this, Helen yelled, “Why should we trust you?”

Matthew instantly replied, “I will guarantee it with my life!”

“You...” Helen was suddenly at a loss for words.

After a while, Helen muttered in a low voice, “How much do you think your useless life is worth?!”

After dinner, James and Helen went downstairs for a walk. Not long after, they saw Liam running toward them.

“Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham!” Liam called out anxiously. “I have something to discuss with you.”

“What is it?” the two of them asked in surprise.

Liam mysteriously said, “When I was working, I got to know a big shot that is really powerful. I told him about the problem with the company’s bank account today and he said that he could easily solve it just by talking to someone.”

“What?” James and Helen said impatiently, “Then can we ask him for help?”

“Of course. Otherwise, I wouldn’t come to tell you!” Liam said with a smile. “Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, coincidentally, this big shot is free tonight so I asked him to come over. Why don’t you two come with me and meet him so that we can discuss it?”

James lowered his voice and replied, “We’re meeting him now? We didn’t prepare anything. Why don’t I go and buy some gifts for him first?”

Hearing this, Liam pursed his lips and said, “Don’t worry about it. A big shot like him earns over 100,000 in a minute. Do you really think he cares about gifts?”

“You’re right!” James was overjoyed. “Liam, we’re lucky to have you. Let’s go and meet this big shot right now!”

When James and Helen returned home, they looked delighted.

“Sasha, you don’t have to worry about the company’s bank account anymore!” James waved his arms in excitement. “You can be rest assured that it will be unfrozen soon!”
