

Chapter 10 Chapter 10

Hidden Dragon Mansion was located in the area of the center of Sea City and it was one of the most expensive districts in Sea City. Inside it was more than a dozen luxury villas with independent gardens, each of which was worth more than 100 million yuan.

Those who could live here were all rich and powerful people in Sea City. Diana stopped the car and took Michael to the villa in the center. She said to Michael,

"The villa here was bought by Mr. Guo many years ago. At present, it is not worthy of Mr. Guo's identity. But he is a nostalgic person and he didn't think of changing places."

Hearing this, Michael was secretly stunned. An ordinary person would not even dare dream of living in a community like the Hidden Dragon Mansion.

However, she said that the villa of over 100 million seemed to be a humiliation to Joshua's identity.

At the gate of the villa, Diana rang the doorbell.

"Who is it?"

The walkie-talkie embedded in the wall made a noise.

Diana told her identity and her purpose. After a while, the door was opened and a tall man in his thirties came out.

"Miss Shang, you are so considerate to find a traditional medicine practitioner for my father! Where is the very good traditional medicine practitioner you mentioned now?"

When Yahya heard that Diana had found a talented traditional medicine doctor for his father, he immediately came out to welcome her. While asking, he glanced at Michael. When he saw Michael's immature face, he directly ignored him and looked at Diana eagerly.

His father's situation was getting worse and worse. He didn't know when the experts would arrive. He was so worried!

"This is Mr. Guo's son, Mr. Yahya."

Diana introduced Michael to him, and then pointed to Michael and wanted to introduce Michael to him, but Yahya said first,

"Miss Shang, are you going to tell me that this is the traditional traditional medicine that you found for my father?"

He frowned and looked at Michael again.

Diana nodded. "Yes, that's him."

Disappointed, Yahya looked at Michael in disgust. He turned to Diana and said,

"Miss Shang, if someone else found such a young boy and said that he would treat my father, I would think that he is fooling me! But I believe that you are not that kind of person. The only explanation is that you have been cheated by this boy!"

"This guy was just too young. The way of Chinese Medicine was broad and profound. It would take more than ten years to get into this area."

"How could such a kid be so powerful? In my opinion, he is a swindler, and you were fooled by him!"

He looked at Michael and scolded him coldly, "Kid, you heard that ten million for the treatment, so you came to swindle him, didn't you? I warn you, this is not a place for you to cheat. Get out of here!"

Anyone who was scolded like this would be very unhappy. Michael's face darkened instantly.

However, before he could speak, Diana had already erupted!

"Mr. Guo, what do you mean by that? Do you think I'm stupid? No one can deceive me!"

"If I am not sure that he is really capable, I will never bring him here. Since you think he is a charlatan, then we will leave now!"

After that, she pulled Michael and turned to leave.

"Hey! Miss Shang, why are you angry? I didn't mean that!"

Yahya was a little anxious. He didn't want to offend Diana, and if his father knew about this, he would definitely be scolded. He ran and stood in the way of Diana and Michael quickly.

"Mr. Guo, what do you mean? Since I was cheated on and he is a swindler, why do you still keep us?" Diana said coldly.

Yahya was very embarrassed. If they were to quarrel, he thought that no one would be a match for Diana!

He quickly said, "I really don't mean that. I just trust you, Miss Shang. Since you said this charlatan... no, this little brother's medical skills are very good, then let him give it a try!"

Diana's face softened.

Michael said calmly, "You're right. I did do it for ten million yuan. But based on what you just said, I would have left."

"The reason why I am still standing here is that I have heard about some of his merits and I don't want to see anything wrong happen to him!"

Yahya sneered in his heart and immediately took Michael's words as bullshit. He thought that Michael was a liar. However, when he saw Diana being fooled around by this kid, he couldn't be bothered and said with a fake smile, "You're right."

Following Yahya, Michael and Diana soon saw Joshua.

Joshua's room was like the most luxurious ward in a large hospital.

There were all kinds of instruments, and private doctors and nurses were guarding aside. It was almost like a private small hospital.

Joshua was tall and thin, lying on the bed with a pale face. He closed his eyes, not knowing whether he was unconscious or asleep.

"Mr. Guo's situation seems to be worse than two days ago when I came here."

Diana looked at Joshua, who was lying on the bed, and her voice was full of worry. Obviously, she had a good relationship with Joshua. She really regarded him as her family. Seeing Joshua like this, she was also anxious.

Yahya sighed. "My dad was in good health. Ten days ago, he inexplicably became weaker and more sleepy!

The last time when you came here, he was able to wake up by himself. Now, you have to shout at him loudly, or he would not wake up. We called all the famous experts in Sea City, but no one could see what was wrong with him!"

He looked at Michael with disdain in his eyes and said, "You are a doctor of Chinese Medicine, right? Go and feel my father's pulse. Remember not to wake him up!"

Michael was a little annoyed. The superior voice of Yahya made him unhappy and had an impulse to leave. But thinking of Joshua's many good deeds over the years, he still couldn't bear to leave like this.

He carefully looked at Joshua's face, went to the bed, stretched out his hand to pull up Joshua's eyelids, and looked at his eyes.

"B*stard! What are you doing? Don't wake up my father. Didn't you hear it? Who asked you to do it!"

Yahya went forward and pulled Michael's clothes to the back.

Michael was caught off guard and took a step back. He looked at

Yahya angrily and said, "You-"

"What did you say? You-"

Yahya wanted to scold, "You really faked it, didn't you?" But when he thought Diana was aside, he could only swallow his words and said angrily,

"Now that you've seen it, do you see anything? If not, leave now!"

He regarded Michael as a bug that wanted to climb up to his place. And now he just wanted to chase him away as soon as possible. He never thought that Michael would say anything.

"Mind your attitude!" Michael finally couldn't hold it in and shouted coldly.

Yahya was so angry that he laughed. "You're quite hot-tempered! What's wrong with my attitude? Fine! If you really have the ability to cure my father, I'll kneel down for you. OK?"
