Chapter 160

"Master, actually I have nothing! Just a little hypocritical. In the past, without a qualification certificate, I suppressed myself very much, and I can only be forced to suffer from people's white eyes. Now I have a certificate, but my body doesn't work hard!" Lao Chen said nothing, but only he knew the bitterness in his heart. The good years had passed.

Time waits for no man, and he grows old in a flash. Zhang Fan had nothing to say. He sat with Lao Chen for a while. This matter really needs his own adjustment. Others can't help.

Although it was almost 11:00 p.m., Ma Wentao was still waiting for Zhang Fan's operation in the office. Not worried, but waiting for Zhang Fan. This operation can't be given at the previous price. The cost of one finger is about 10000 yuan, and three fingers are 30000! The higher the profit, the more he attaches importance to Zhang Fan.

If you give me another thousand, I guess I can't get through to Zhang Fan next time! Ma Wentao drank tea and thought about how much to give? As the hospital slowly got on track, he became more and more proud of his decision. He was on the right path, and he was not proud of his ability to know people.

Now, as long as we adhere to the characteristics of our own hospital and develop slowly, sooner or later, China's commercial field will have its place. The more you think, the more excited you are!

Zhang Fan enters Ma Wentao's office. Ma Wentao quickly asks Zhang Fan to sit down and rest, and then asks Zhang Fan to drink tea. "Now the operation volume can't go up, so I have to refuel. After the operation volume goes up, I can bring director Chen and Li Liang out in half a year!" Zhang Fan said while drinking tea. As long as this operation is successful once, the reputation will go out, and there will be more and more patients in the future.

"OK, I'll hurry up and let the salesman run to the county and township hospitals several times. You should collect the operation fee today, and you don't have to give director Chen and Li Liang any more money. I've talked with them about the Commission of the operation fee. This is yours." Ma Wentao proudly said to Zhang Fan.

"Well! How do you know?" Zhang Fan wondered.

"See, I have installed a lot of cameras in the hospital. You know, if the patient has an accident, our surveillance personnel will notify the doctor at the first time. Let's go first!"

"Are you sure it's not for peeping privacy or special surveillance? I'll tell you not to do that. Everyone will be disgusted." Because both sides are familiar, Zhang Fan speaks casually.

"Am I so dirty!" Ma Wentao said angrily.

"Well, I won't talk nonsense to you! I'm gone. " Zhang Fan went out and saw that the operation fee was 3000. Although Ma Wentao shared it with Lao Chen and Li Liang, he couldn't lose his share. Zhang Fan found Li Liang and Lao Chen and didn't want them alive or dead this time“ Master, boss Ma has said that he has given us a commission. It's really bad for you! "

"It's brother Zhang. Put it away. It's not in the county now. You don't have to."

"Well, I'll go. You fuck more snacks. Call me if you have anything. " Zhang fan can't help it.

Three days later, Dai Wengang transferred from ICU to the department outside the brain and recovered well. Day by day, it's getting better and better. Even the sequelae is very obvious. His mouth is crooked and his left body is weak, but he finally saved his life, which is also a blessing in misfortune.

Zhang Fan told Dai Wengang's brother to massage. Massage can promote the blood circulation of the affected limbs and help restore. His brother specially found two masseuses to massage once every two hours. This is the style of the rich, very powerful.

Dai Wen can just speak. He can't pronounce clearly“ Dr Zang! Angry, angry! " Dai Wengang is three tall. Zhang Fan specifically told him to eat less red meat. His brother airlifted fresh seafood! During the morning rounds, Dai Wen was just eating prawns! He asked Zhang Fan with a crooked mouth.

What he means is whether Dr. Zhang eats or not. It's delicious!

Zhang Fan smiled and shook his head. Then there is a routine physical examination. Although the left muscle is still not good, it has developed to a good trend for several times. Since Dai Wengang recovered his ability to speak, Zhang Fan has never seen his wife ~! As for the little white face who shouted to clean up Zhang Fan at that time, he never appeared again.

The furniture of Zhang fanxin's house is also complete. The floor is high and the light is good. The furniture selected by Shaohua is jujube red. Zhang Fan has no opinion in this regard. Anything, as long as two old people like it. Shaohua's mother thought it was expensive when she bought it. She settled down at home and didn't think it was expensive at first sight! Really atmospheric!

Although Zhang Fan is busy, he can always find time to go to the sports school to do physical examination and physical therapy for the children. Busy life, high-intensity work, if there is no hobby, there will be problems sooner or later. After work, relaxation is necessary. Zhang Fan is very relaxed watching children jump up and down in the sports school.

The brain unconsciously laughs, which is the best relaxation. You don't have to think about surgery, or enter the system to practice, empty your brain, don't think about anything, just watch a group of little monkeys train and play.

Everyone has his own way to relax. Zhang Fan's way of relaxing is just suitable for people who use his brain highly. Most people want to empty their brain for a few minutes, but few people can do it if you empty your brain for half an hour! This is similar to the eminent monk's meditation.

One afternoon later, Zhang Fan felt very relaxed. When he left, Wu Yanchao found Zhang Fan, "Doctor Zhang, do you have time recently? One of my elder martial brothers is coming to see your knee. "

"OK, call me when you come. What's the matter?"

"Old injury. He came from a professional basketball player. It's not easy to find a professional sports medicine doctor in the frontier. After you finished the operation for Guli, the little girl recovered very well, so I suggest he come to you."

"OK, no problem."

Dai Wen is just leaving the hospital. The rehabilitation treatment in the municipal hospital is too simple to do many treatments. Zhang Fan doesn't have time to recover him one-on-one. They want to go back to the mainland for rehabilitation treatment. This rehabilitation treatment takes too much time and is calculated on an annual basis.

To be discharged from the hospital, Dai Wengang offered Zhang Fan for dinner. As a result, Zhang Fan refused. It was meaningless. When people paid the treatment fee, Zhang Fan should give them standardized treatment. Zhang Fan didn't want to intervene too deeply in other things.

Dai Wengang couldn't make an appointment with Zhang Fan, but he really wanted to thank Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan's performance at that time was seen by his brother. If Zhang Fan hadn't insisted at that time, he might have died. Zhang fan can not care, he can not care.

Finally, Li Xiao made an appointment with Zhang Fan! Li Xiao's face Zhang Fan had to give, which was the friendship established by Zhang Fan at the end of the day.

The meal was in a restaurant. Dai Wengang was the host of his brother and accompanied by Li Xiao. When Zhang Fan arrived, Dai Wengang's brother waited for Zhang Fan at the door and asked a man in his forties to wait at the door. Zhang Fan was a little embarrassed.

He quickly parked the car, and after a polite conversation with his brother, he entered the restaurant.

"Dr. Zang, Da Nen is not difficult to write! Slightly prepare the water machine. " As the old saying goes, lame likes to walk. Dai Wengang's mouth is crooked and his tongue is difficult to use, so he likes to talk. This is also what Zhang Fan explained. We should exercise more!

Li Xiao was also happy. If Lao Dai really had an accident, she would have lost a lot. This time, Zhang Fan indirectly helped her.

"All right! Dr. Zhang is really busy at ordinary times. If I hadn't known him early, I wouldn't have made an appointment. " Li Xiaoslightly explained that people at their level value face very much. Especially in the face of people who are not a level, Li Xiao doesn't want Zhang Fanping to provoke people for no reason!

"I'm really busy! Besides, I just did what I should do. You're too polite. If we let president Ouyang know, we will criticize me again! "

"It's all right, Doctor Zhang. Don't worry! She won't know! " Dai Wengang's brother said with a smile.

If you come here, you won't be hypocritical. The food in the restaurant is good. They are all special dishes. Zhang Fan doesn't drink and Dai Wengang can't drink. The topic at the dinner table always revolves around how Dai Wengang recovers.

After dinner, Dai Wengang's brother handed Zhang Fan a card, "Doctor Zhang, there is some money in it. Please take it. Please accept it if you can afford it! "

"Ah! This really doesn't work. It's not a matter of looking up to and looking down on. It's a mistake. I'm embarrassed to say that last time I received two boxes of cigarettes, I asked our dean to clean me up. I really can't Zhang Fanjian will never accept it.

Li Xiao looked at the scene a little embarrassed. Lao Dai sincerely wanted to repay Zhang Fan, but Zhang Fan didn't dare to accept it. She looked at the two people pushing a card around each other and said, "forget the card. Isn't Doctor Zhang's car old! You replace it. Don't you have a cool luzer? " Then she said to Zhang Fan, "don't worry about driving the car. If you don't worry about it, transfer the car to our company."

Zhang Fan was still reluctant. Li Xiao said at a glance, "OK, I'm in charge and transfer the car to my company. You drive away from Zhang Fan's car. " She can understand Dai Wengang's mood and Zhang Fan's difficulties. It's just a car. Her handling makes both sides not embarrassed, and it's a good fate. Otherwise, it will be difficult for both sides to deal with each other in the future!
