

Chapter 140 Alick's Confession

Celia was so focused on her work that she didn't notice the approaching figure behind her.

That figure got close to her, bent over, and was soon a few centimeters away from her.

She felt a hot breath fanning into her neck and was startled. When she looked up, she saw the disgusting handsome face of Alick which was zooming in her eyes. His face was full of smile while looking somewhat greasy and obscene up close.

Celia froze in fright for a moment. Without saying anything, she pushed away Alick with some force, stood up and pushed a chair in between them.

She wasn't very frightened as she realized that it was impossible for Alick to do anything to her under the surveillance cameras. Besides, she knew a bit of fighting. He was no match for her at all.

Nonetheless, as long as she was in the same environment with him alone, she couldn't help but feel disgusted.

"What the hell are you doing here? Why don't you go back to accompany your girlfriend after work?"

Alick's smile dropped at the mention of his girlfriend and he said earnestly, "How many times do I have to say to make you believe me? Cece, I really have broken up with Lesly. I don't have anything to do with her, and I no longer have a girlfriend now!

In my heart, you are still my only girlfriend! I only dated Lesly for fun from the beginning to the end. I have never loved her seriously!"

His words sounded sincere, but Celia only felt sick.

"You don't have to pretend to be affectionate in front of me. I only feel disgusted!"

Seeing that sweet talking didn't work, Alick had to restrain his affectionate look and said, "Cece, don't be angry. I won't say it anymore. I just got off work, and when I passed by the design department, I wanted to see you."

He looked at Celia up and down with his eyes full of pity. "I feel really sorry to see you in this state. Why do you have to work so hard as a girl? Is it because your husband is so useless and poor that you have to work so hard? Is it your responsibility to support your family?"

You know my situation. If you get back together with me, you won't have to work so hard. I'll take care of you. I'll cover all your expenses, and I'll give you an extra twenty thousand dollars every month. What do you think?"

These words only made Celia feel like he was crushing her pride as a woman. She restrained her temper and said coldly, "Cut the crap and leave! Don't disturb my work!"

Seeing that she still wasn't giving in, Alick took out a check and convinced again, "Here is my sincerity. Don't work so hard anymore. I really feel sorry to see you like this."

Celia neither accepted the check nor took a look at it.

She didn't even budge no matter what kind of look he had in his eyes. Seeing that she was still so indifferent, Alick grabbed her hand forcefully as he wanted to put the check into her hand directly.

Celia couldn't stand the physical touch with him, so she instinctively pushed him to the ground and threw the check on his face. "Get out of here with your stinky money! Don't force me to beat you!"

Her cold and resolute attitude made Alick feel humiliated, and his eyes were burning with anger.

But he still had a sense of reason. He didn't dare to do anything to Celia in the company where the surveillance cameras were everywhere. Therefore, he controlled himself, picked up the check and left with a frustrated look.

Before leaving, he still tried his best to placate her a bit.

"Cece, I hope you can think again about giving me a chance. You will be happier with me than you have been with your poor husband. You don't have to worry about money either."

"You are the only one person I am annoyed with! Get out of my face!"

Celia glared at him and warned, "I'm warning you, don't come and harass me again, or I will call the police!"

"Okay, okay. I'll go!"

Alick didn't dare to force her anymore for the time being, knowing that she could really take action. But instead of leaving, he stayed in the corridor and continued to peep at the back of Celia.

Before he decided to come here, he had already predicted what the result would be, but he was not discouraged at all. In fact, the more Celia pushed him away, the more he was interested in her.

When they were in college, he just liked the beautiful face of Celia and found her very interesting. But now, thinking of what he had missed out, he was crazy to get her laid!

Just like a drug addict, he was addicted to Celia. If he didn't fulfill this desire he had, he would never be satisfied.

He made up his mind that no matter what kind of method he had to use or what price he had to pay, he must do everything in order to sleep with her just for once!

Celia didn't expect that Alick would be still spying on her. Ever since she devoted herself to her work, she had forgotten about his annoying face.

She had always been like this. Once inspiration hit her, she unconsciously ignored time and buried herself in work, gradually forgetting everything around her.

A long time had passed, but Celia still didn't withdraw from her concentration in work. It was not until her phone rang that she came back to the reality.

