

Chapter 190 The Recognition Of The Stars

In order to match this new modified dress, Brea specially changed her makeup and hair style in the fitting room. Then, she added a finishing touch with some hair ornaments.

The moment she pushed open the door of the fitting room, everyone looked at her in anticipation. The light in the room made her delicate and unique dress even more conspicuous. It could be seen that she had a good fashion sense as she wore low-key but luxurious high-heeled black shoes and other accessories to complement the dress. With every step she took, the hemline of her dress seemed to be glistening, which made her look like a real fairy.

Brea walked to the mirror and looked at herself while turning several circles. She looked as surprised as others.

"Cece, I told you! Your embroidery is exquisite!"

Indeed, there was a unique sense in Celia's embroidery. She sewed several small flowers on the hemline of the dress, and the outcome was not very eye-catching, but completely covered the traces of the original cutting. This irregular hemline made the dress look a little sexy, and those flowers were just a perfect decoration.

The more Brea looked at the dress, the more she liked it. This sight of herself boosted her confidence even more, and she praised, "I thought the original design of this black dress was a little dull and monotonous compared to other dresses. But now that it's been modified by you, it looks so perfect. I'm so satisfied with it!"

Receiving such compliments from Brea, Celia just smiled lightly and said, "Don't praise me too much. Brea, my skills still need to be honed. The key point here is that you have a good figure. Of course, you will look good no matter what you wear."

The onlookers became more entranced, the more they looked at Brea, and several stars who were resting came over as well. They appreciated the dress, while asking Brea, "Brea, this dress is too beautiful! Which brand is it? Why have I never seen this type of design before?"

With a proud look on her face, Brea glanced at Celia and said, "I've been shooting an advertisement for The One Jewelry recently, you know that right? The dress was provided by the company for me to wear in the shooting. However, there was a small problem before. The dress was ruined, so I bought it and asked Cece to modify it for me.

In fact, the previous design just looks average, but after being modified by Cece, it has become like this. Isn't it amazing? It's all Cece's hard work. She did a good job."

As soon as Brea finished speaking, everyone's eyes were focused on Celia.

Before Celia could react, she was pulled in front of Brea by Brea as she introduced her to them excitedly. "This is my designer, Celia. Some of you have already seen her, and some of you have never seen her before. Here, I want to formally introduce her to you."

At this moment, several stars, whom Celia had only seen on the TV, all came to shake hands with her.

"I've heard of your name a long time ago. You are pretty famous. The dress you had modified for Brea to wear while walking the red carpet has become a trending topic in the past. Due to that incident, your name has already spread widely enough in the entertainment circle."

Another famous star spoke. "Right, I didn't expect you to be so young. I thought you might be a little older as you dealt with the problem so skillfully!"

"You're not only good at your job but also quite pretty. It's a pity for you to just be a designer here. If you are willing, we can ask Mr. Reyes to sign you up and train you to be a part of the entertainment circle. I'm sure you'll make more money than you do now."

It was the first time that Celia had been praised by so many stars. She was both embarrassed and flattered as she quickly said, "I just started working here not long ago. So, there's a lot for me to learn slowly in the future. I just hope I won't fail the expectations of Brea."

Speaking of this, she had an idea as she turned to look at Brea and asked, "Brea, do you want to have another trial shoot for the jewelry advertisement in this dress?"

With a wave of her hand, Brea shook her head and explained, "No need. After all, this dress is different from the style provided by The One Jewelry before. It's according to the contract for the ambassadress to wear what The One Jewelry provides to complete the shooting. Since this dress has been changed, I won't do the trial shooting in it.

Instead, I've decided to wear this dress to attend the cocktail party of Semsy Group. Two sets of dresses are needed at the party. I think this modified black dress is very suitable for a party like that. Now, I only have to trouble you to get the other one finished soon."

Hearing this, Celia was happy. She felt grateful that Brea was willing to wear her designs for such an important event. "Thank you for such a chance, Brea. I'll try my best to make you impress everyone at the party!"

Brea chuckled and said modestly, "I believe you can do it. After all, you have never let me down."

The two of them smiled at each other and were about to go aside to sit down for a chat. However, just as they walked over to their destination hand in hand, a female star called Vida Glyn came over and reached out to stop the two of them.

Without saying anything else, she looked straight at Celia and asked bluntly, "Miss Kane, right? Could you please design a dress for me as well? I'm going to attend an important event in a few days, and there will surely be many stars and reporters present. I want you to design a remarkable dress for me."
