

Chapter 197 Request For Cooperation

Tyson's brows furrowed tightly. He thought of an excuse to refuse.

Actually, Mr. O'Brien of Hayden Entertainment had discussed cooperation with him before, wanting to co-produce a sci-fi movie with Semshy Group. And Mr. O'Brien wanted Keira to be the female lead.

But the negotiation had broken down at that time.

Tyson really felt that Keira's acting skills were not good enough, so he cancelled the cooperation on the spot. Although Mr. O'Brien had sent someone to talk with him several times later, he turned them down.

He thought Mr. O'Brien had already given up this project. He didn't expect that Mr. O'Brien would send Keira to talk to him this time.

Tyson didn't want to show his true face easily. But he had arranged for Emmitt to do something else, so he sent a message to Briar.

"Ask Keira to leave Semshy Group. I don't want to see her."

"Please wait a moment. I'm still dealing with some documents in the executive department. I'll be back soon," Briar replied quickly.

Tyson's face turned cold. He thought for a while and replied, "No need. I'll handle it myself."

He directly said to Keira outside the door, "Miss Guerrero, please leave. I have made it clear to Mr. O'Brien that Semshy Group doesn't want to cooperate with Hayden Entertainment."

Despite such an obvious refusal, Keira insisted, "I know, but I beg you to see me just this once. Otherwise, I will stand outside your office until you're willing to see me."

She was determined to see Tyson.

Tyson didn't want to see her. But considering that she was a female star, he couldn't ask the security guards to force her out of Semshy Group. After all, she was just here to talk about cooperation.

Moreover, he had the impression that the Shaw family and Guerrero family were not close. Although the two families had had meals together several times because of business, he hadn't met Keira when he was still in the Shaw family.

Tyson thought for a while and finally decided to let Keira enter his office.

"Come in!"

When Keira heard these two words, she felt relieved.

She breathed a sigh of relief, thinking the CEO of Semshy Group was indeed as mysterious as rumors said. After all, she was a famous star, but it still took her a long time to convince him to see her.

Keira took out a mirror and checked her face. After making sure that her makeup was okay, she tidied up her clothes, took a deep breath, and pushed the door open.

Tyson sat at his desk with piles of documents in front of him that covered his face. But she could vaguely see his angular and resolute outline.

Although she couldn't see his entire face, her heart inexplicably skipped a beat.

She took small steps forward and finally saw the mysterious CEO of Semshy Group.

Tyson was dressed in a straight suit, and he looked dignified. His angular handsome face could make people fall in love with him at a glance.

Keira had been in the entertainment industry for several years, and she had met countless handsome men. But she dared to say that Nolan, the CEO of Semshy Group, must be the most handsome and dangerous man in the world.

After a brief moment of distraction, she gracefully walked up to him and managed to say in her most satisfying voice, "Hello, Mr. Reyes. I'm Keira, an actress from Hayden Entertainment."

Her voice was sweet, and the way she spoke could soften people. She made the few ordinary words sound like she was crying with pleasure.

She believed that this kind of voice was very attractive to men, at least more attractive than Brea's rough voice.

But she didn't know that when Tyson heard her voice, he frowned and felt disgusted.

Tyson tried his best to suppress the urge to ask the security guards to take her out. Without raising his head, he said coldly, "If you have something to say, say it."

But Keira didn't feel Tyson's indifferent attitude at all. Instead, she liked his cold face very much. She begged him in a tender and sweet voice, "Mr. Reyes, I hope you can give Hayden Entertainment another chance. We really want to cooperate with Semshy Group."
