

Chapter 198 Seducing Tyson

Tyson couldn't stand Keira's pretentious voice any longer. But out of politeness, he didn't drive her out. He just said coldly, "You are just an actress of Hayden Entertainment. What right do you have to come to me and talk about cooperation on behalf of your company?"

Besides, I've already talked to Mr. O'Brien many times. I've made a decision, and I won't change my mind. I hope you and Hayden Entertainment will respect it."

He tried his best to be polite, hoping that Keira would retreat.

But she didn't seem to understand what he meant. Instead, she said seductively, "I know, Mr. Reyes. And Mr. O'Brien told me that you refused to cooperate with Hayden Entertainment because of me."

There was a bit of grievance on her face, like a wounded little beast. "I know that my acting skills are not good, and I am not qualified to be the heroine of this movie. That's why I voluntarily give up the role. I can accept, even if it's just a minor supporting role, as long as I can still be in the movie.

I hope you don't decline the cooperation with Hayden Entertainment because of me. I have a clear estimation of myself, and I won't ask for something I don't deserve. As for Mr. O'Brien, I apologize to you on his behalf."

Tyson felt that it was a torment to listen to Keira. All he wanted now was to get rid of her as soon as possible.

"I declined the cooperation, but it was not because of you. Before Hayden Entertainment insisted on making you the heroine regardless of the reality, I had already decided not to cooperate with them.

What I hate is the method and attitude of Hayden Entertainment. Even if you won't be the heroine now, and they take the initiative to ask for cooperation, I still won't change my mind. We're done talking, Miss Guerrero. Please go out."

Keira sensed that Tyson's attitude was tough, but she didn't feel he was dissatisfied with her. She just thought that the sincerity Hayden Entertainment had shown him was not enough.

So she continued to beg in a voice much softer than before. "I have talked with Mr. O'Brien, and he is willing to add one hundred million dollars in the investment as long as you agree to cooperate."

But Tyson remained unmoved and was even more determined to drive her out.

However, before he could say anything, Keira added, "If Semshy Group is not satisfied with the amount, we can continue to increase the investment."

Tyson sneered and looked at her coldly. His eyes were deep and ruthless. "Semshy Group is not short of money."

But the colder his attitude was, the more Keira liked him.

She wondered what else a man would want if he remained unmoved after being offered such a large amount of money. Of course, a woman!

Keira was always confident in her beauty.

Her appearance was a little plain compared to the more glamorous Brea in the entertainment industry. But she knew very well that some men were not naturally attracted to beautiful and aggressive women. They preferred a pure and delicate appearance like hers.

In addition, she was petite, like a porcelain doll. This made men want to dote on her at first sight.

Because of this, she firmly believed that she was the darling of the entertainment industry. She never felt that Brea's beauty could suppress her. And she was used to seducing men with her delicate look to achieve her goals.

Keira twisted her slender waist, slowly walked to Tyson, and hinted, "Of course, I know that Semshy Group is not short of money. What I mean is that Hayden Entertainment is willing to invest more to show our sincerity in the cooperation. Mr. Reyes, as long as you agree to cooperate with us, we can give you more benefits."

When Keira saw that Tyson was still unmoved, she thought he didn't understand her hint. So she reached out her hand and touched the back of his hand as if unintentionally. "I mean, you can do anything to me."

After saying this, she wanted to sit on his lap to seduce him.

But before her butt could touch him, he suddenly stood up.

Keira was caught off guard and fell to the floor, feeling embarrassed and miserable.

