

Chapter 201 What A Big Surprise!

Celia didn't suspect Tyson's loyalty because she believed that as her man, he would never betray her.

But she was just curious why she smelled a woman's perfume on him.

She thought for a while and finally remembered that she had smelled a similar scent from Brea's nemesis, Keira, today.

And Brea had said that Keira was going to see Nolan.

How could the perfume on Tyson's body be so similar to Keira's perfume?

Maybe it was just a coincidence.

Tyson was stunned when he heard Celia's question. His brain spun fast, and he soon remembered that Keira had deliberately got too close to him in his office, so the smell on him must be from her.

Although he avoided Keira, kept a distance from her, and even changed his clothes, the smell of her perfume was too strong. Celia's nose was very sensitive, so she smelled the residue of the perfume.

However, Keira was a famous star, and he met her as the CEO of Semsy Group. If he told Celia about it, his identity would be exposed. So he lied, "I just picked up a female passenger with a very strong perfume. She insisted on sitting in the passenger seat, and I couldn't do anything about it. I've already opened the window to let the fresh air in and sprayed air freshener. I didn't expect you to still smell it."

Celia nodded and smiled. "I see. You are a taxi driver. If the passenger insists on sitting in the passenger seat, you really can't refuse it. But the perfume is too strong. You must be feeling uncomfortable after smelling it for a long time."

She thought that Tyson's passenger happened to use the same perfume as Keira, so she didn't dwell on the matter seriously.

Seeing that the expression on her face changed slightly, Tyson gently pinched her face with his big hand and asked, "Honey, are you jealous?"

Indeed, Celia was a little unhappy when she smelled a woman's perfume on him. But she also knew that he was only doing his job, so she said, "Why do I have to be jealous? I trust you unconditionally."

"Honey, you are so understanding. You deserve a kiss from me as a reward."

Tyson turned his head and pecked her on the cheek before he sat up straight and started the car.

"Are you rewarding me or yourself?" Celia asked, smiling helplessly.

Then she glanced at him and said, "Let's go to the hospital. I want to visit Flavia first."

"Alright. You can take a nap. I'll wake you up when we get there," Tyson replied.

"Okay." Celia leaned back in her seat and closed her eyes.

She wanted to take a nap. But when she thought of what had happened today, the corners of her mouth couldn't help but rise.

Adrien had transferred fifty thousand dollars to her account, and she got a big task with a commission of one hundred thousand dollars today. Besides, she had a bank balance of tens of thousands of dollars. She was one step closer to the goal of raising five hundred thousand dollars for Flavia's surgery expenses.

She was so happy that she couldn't fall asleep, so she just chatted with Tyson incessantly.

"Didn't I tell you that I got a big task from a big star today? Her name is Vida Glyn, and she is also an artist of Semsy Group. She is the second female lead in a popular drama. Since you don't watch TV, you obviously don't know her. But it doesn't matter. The important thing is that the commission of this task is one hundred thousand dollars."

Tyson saw how happy she was through the rearview mirror. He couldn't help smiling and saying, "That's a lot of money. Honey, you are awesome."

"It's all thanks to Brea. Actually, Vida only offered me twenty thousand dollars. But Brea helped me get it to one hundred thousand dollars. Isn't she so kind? She is beautiful and nice. I must have done a lot of good things in my past life to meet you and her." Celia was apparently elated.

Tyson saw that she was in a good mood, so he was also happy. He praised, "It's mainly because you are excellent. Her help is just the icing on the cake. Since you are so happy today, why don't we have a good meal tonight to celebrate?"

Although Celia was happy, she didn't get carried away. She reminded him seriously, "We need to save money."

Tyson was amused by her reaction. "Okay, I'll listen to you."

Then he focused on driving and soon arrived at the hospital.

After Tyson parked the car, he and Celia quickly walked to Flavia's ward. He pushed the door open, and she immediately got in.

And she was surprised to see Flavia sleeping soundly on the bed, and Wayne was also there.

She was about to turn to Tyson to ask what was going on when he lowered his head and whispered in her ear, "Cece, I have good news for you."

Celia was a little confused. "What is it?"

Tyson stretched out his hand, and his slender finger pointed at Flavia, lying on the bed. "Flavia already had a kidney transplant, and the operation was very successful."
