

Chapter 251 Humiliation

Mabel pointed at Celia's nose and continued scolding her crazily. And her harsh words made Celia even angrier. Celia wished she could expose the truth that she was Cerissa's substitute bride on the spot and scold these two ungrateful people.

Back then, when the Kane Group was in crisis and needed funds, only the Shaw family could help them. However, Cerissa refused to marry Tyson, and Adrien forced Celia to replace Cerissa.

Celia sacrificed her own happiness for Cerissa's sake, but Cerissa and Mabel didn't even feel guilty. Instead, they were enjoying the stable life she had brought to them.

Although she didn't regret marrying Tyson because they had a very happy married life, it still couldn't deny the fact that she helped Cerissa when Cerissa refused to marry Tyson back then. They owed her. How could they be so arrogant and shameless now?

Celia glared at Mabel and said coldly, "How dare you throw a tantrum in front of me! Do you want me to teach you a lesson? It seems that you have forgotten what you suffered last time. Do you want me to remind you now? I don't mind teaching you a good lesson again."

Mabel's face flushed with rage. How could she accept being threatened by a younger woman in public? However, she was also frightened by Celia.

Celia had hurt her several times, and she always ended up lying in bed for a few days.

At the thought of this, Mabel was furious. She pointed at Celia's nose and shouted, "How dare you threaten me! What can you do to me? You're such a shameless shrew! You're a bitch! Just like your goddamn mother!"

Upon hearing Mabel insulting her mother, Celia was furious, and her eyes turned cold. Tyson couldn't take Mabel's bad attitude towards Celia any longer. He wanted to help Celia teach her a lesson. But Celia signaled him to step back, indicating that she would solve it by herself.

Knowing how capable his wife was, he agreed. Celia let go of his arm and slowly walked towards Mabel. Then she grabbed Mabel's shoulder and said in a low and hoarse voice, "If you dare to insult my mother again, I will send you to hell now! You know me well. I do what I say." Her tone was terrifyingly cold.

The look in Celia's eyes frightened Mabel. But she couldn't just admit cowardice in front of many people, so she said more harshly, "Do it if you can. You only have a sharp tongue."

She clenched her fists tightly to keep her composure. She whispered to Celia complacently, "By the way, I forgot to tell you something. The sapphire ring left by your mother was sold for over ten million dollars."

Her voice was so low that only Celia could hear it.

Celia was shocked. She didn't expect the sapphire ring to be so valuable. But it wasn't what mattered to her.

What mattered the most to her was to get the ring back. Her mother repeatedly asked her to take the ring back before she died. If she failed to fulfill her mother's last wish, she would really be heartbroken.

When Mabel saw the pain in Celia's eyes, she thought she had gained the upper hand again. She smiled and said, "And one more thing. The money we spend now is what we got from selling your mother's ring. I wonder if your mother will be angry if she knows."

Then she added, "Your mother had been shrewd all her life. But after she died, her husband used her money to support another woman and child. Her daughter married a loser. I really want to go to her grave and tell her all this. Maybe she will be so angry that she will come back to life. If that happens, you should thank me."

Mabel's words infuriated Celia even more.

She could endure everything. But she couldn't bear anyone insulting her mother and Tyson.

Just now, Mabel humiliated her and Tyson. And now, Mabel insulted her deceased mother again and again. She couldn't stand it anymore. Regardless of being in public, she raised her hand and slapped Mabel in the face.

"Shut your mouth up! For the last time, I'm warning you."

Celia flew into a rage, and everyone was shocked.

Her slap was so hard that Mabel almost couldn't stand still and took a few steps back.
