

Chapter 291 Annoying Mack

Danilo and Mack immediately approached Tyson and Celia.

Mack was the first to greet Tyson. "Tyson, it's really difficult to ask you to come back. I can't remember how many times I have invited you. It turns out that only Grandpa can make you agree to have dinner with us."

As he spoke, he squinted his eyes and looked at Celia up and down. Her beauty obviously stunned him.

"Finally, you took my sister-in-law home to see Dad and Grandpa. She is beautifully dressed today. She's more gorgeous now than on your wedding," Mack sighed, marveling at Celia's beauty.

Tyson just ignored Mack. His attention was on Danilo.

Although he hated Danilo in his heart, he still called Danilo "Dad" because of Hobson's presence.

Celia hesitated for a while before she greeted Danilo.

However, Danilo just replied coldly, "It's good that you're here now. Okay, don't stand at the door. Come in, and let's talk."

Hobson wanted to take off Tyson's mask. But he noticed that Tyson seemed reluctant to take it off, so he gave up the idea for the time being. Besides, Danilo and Mack were already there. He knew Tyson wouldn't be comfortable taking off his mask in front of them.

So he just gave Tyson and Celia an amiable smile and led them into the door.

When Danilo and Mack saw this, they exchanged glances and followed inside silently, with the servants walking closely behind them.

Hobson held Celia's hand all the time, which made her have a subtle feeling in her heart.

When she was a child, Adrien also held her hand like this. At that time, she was the apple of his eyes. But now, all he did was lie to her and hurt her again and again. It had been so long since she last experienced the feeling of family affection that she didn't seem to remember how it felt anymore.

Hobson was unaware of Celia's emotions at the moment. He looked at her with a smile and asked, "Cece, how did you and Tyson know each other?"

It was only then that Celia came back to her senses. She paused, not knowing what to say.

Could she tell Hobson that she met Tyson for the first time on the day of their wedding?

She knew she couldn't do that. But she couldn't immediately make up a story either.

Tyson noticed the expression on her face, so he stepped forward to help her out. "Cece and I met at an event. I fell in love with her at first sight. I chased after her for a long time before she finally accepted me."

"Oh, I see." Hobson nodded with a smile.

He looked at Celia again, and the smile on his face became brighter. "Cece, you are so beautiful. No wonder Tyson fell in love with you at first sight."

Celia's face flushed when she heard this compliment. She lowered her head and said, "Grandpa, I'm flattered." But she couldn't help thinking that Tyson was really good at lying.

While she was complaining in her heart, Mack walked up to her and stared straight at her. "Cece, you are really beautiful. Tyson is so lucky to have such a beautiful wife like you."

Celia's smile immediately vanished, and her face turned cold. She still remembered Mack's disgusting behavior on her wedding day. She had a very bad impression of him.

But she couldn't be impolite, so she said modestly, "I'm flattered, but I'm not that beautiful." Then she moved a little away to distance herself from him.

Tyson looked at Mack coldly, and their eyes met. And the tense atmosphere instantly broke out.

Danilo saw that the situation was not good, so he immediately stretched out his hand and pulled Mack's arm, hinting at him not to act recklessly. After all, Hobson was still there. It was only then that Mack withdrew his gaze and put on a cynical smile again.

The Shaw family's house was a grand and luxurious manor.

Hobson led Tyson and Celia into one of the magnificent buildings, which was the living room of the Shaw family.

The deft servants brought coffee, tea, and other beverages and served them in a flattering manner.

Celia couldn't help but sigh in her heart at the scene in front of her.

When her mother was still alive, and she still lived in the Kane family's house, her mother also arranged for several servants to take care of her diet and daily life aside from Flavia. She thought it was extravagant enough. But compared with the Shaw family, it was nothing.

Since she entered the house of the Shaw family, she had seen dozens of servants. Obviously, the wealth of the Shaw family and that of the Kane family were not comparable.

Indeed, the Shaw family was worth being called the richest and most powerful family.

But the wedding ring they prepared for Tyson was fake. It only showed that he didn't have a high position in the Shaw family. Except for Hobson, the other members of the Shaw family didn't pay much attention to him.
