

Chapter 331 If She Doesn’t Deserve Me, Do You

Brea's eyes widened as she stared at the screen of Wayne's phone. She didn't expect Wayne would call Keira. She wanted to stop him, but it was too late.

"Mr. Evans, why do you call me? It's already late. But I'm flattered." As soon as the call was connected, Keira's coquettish voice from the other end of the line sounded in their ears. Obviously, Keira had no idea what she was going to face next. She spoke affectionately like a little girl in love.

Brea didn't say anything. She just listened quietly, staring at Wayne with anger in her eyes. Jealousy was boiling in her heart.

If she could only enter his phone and rush to the other end of the line, she wanted to beat Keira up to make her stop talking to Wayne in such a disgusting voice.

Contrary to Brea's anger, Wayne was very calm. He sneered and said to Keira ruthlessly, "Can you speak in your normal voice? Are your slippers stuck in your throat?"

On the other end of the line, Keira was stunned for a while. When she came back to her senses, she immediately apologized, "I'm sorry, Mr. Evans. I didn't mean to speak this way. My voice is naturally soft and sweet. I hope you understand."

However, Wayne didn't buy it at all. He retorted directly, "You call your voice soft and sweet? Don't you know that your voice is worse than a pig's oink?"

There was another long silence on the other end of the line. Then Keira asked, "Mr. Evans, what do you mean?"

Her voice sounded much more normal this time, but it was dull.

Wayne ignored her abnormality. He said coldly, "I'm calling to tell you that the Evans Group will not cooperate with such a vicious female star like you. I will explain to my father and the senior executives why you are banned from working with Evans Group from now on."

As soon as he said this, Keira screamed, "Mr. Evans, why are you saying that all of a sudden? Have I done something wrong? We always have a good talk, right? Have I done something wrong to make you unhappy? You can tell me directly. Let's talk about it."

"You know what you have done. You bought off some people to slander Brea online, right? Besides, who gave you the courage to hype yourself with my name? Now, the entire online community thinks I am your boyfriend. Do you want to use me to create popularity and improve your status? In your dreams! Do you know what I hate the most? People who take advantage of me," Wayne replied coldly.

Keira hurriedly explained, "Mr. Evans, you are misunderstanding me. I'm not making a hype, and I don't know who is behind those who slandered Brea. I didn't do anything. I'm innocent. I won't ever take advantage of you."

"Oh, you didn't do anything?" Wayne's tone became even colder. "Then why did you send a text to Brea to provoke her?"

Once again, Keira was stunned.

But this time, Wayne didn't give her any chance to explain. He said decisively, "Keira, I'm telling you, you have crossed my bottom line. You may not know that Brea is my girlfriend. If you dare to bully her again, I will definitely make your life in the entertainment industry difficult."

After saying this, Wayne felt it was not enough. So he added, "You must have seen how the Evans Group dealt with things. But I'm telling you, my way of dealing with things is more ruthless than you have ever seen."

Keira screamed, "No, that's impossible! There's no way you can be Brea's boyfriend. How can she deserve you? You must be lying to me!"

She seemed shocked.

Wayne retorted directly without showing mercy, "If she doesn't deserve me, do you?"
