

Chapter 355 You Only Seduce Me

The face she cared about the most was smashed, so Lesly no longer cared about her manners. She scolded Celia fiercely.

When people around her heard her cursing like a shrew, their opinions began to change.

"I think this woman has some mental problems. Let's stay away from her."

"From what I've heard from their conversation, she stole that woman's boyfriend. But in the end, she was also dumped by that man."

"She is such an unreasonable shrew! If I am her boyfriend, I will surely dump her too."

The crowd no longer pointed their fingers at Celia. Their attention was focused on Lesly, as they thought she was insane.

Upon hearing the crowd's opinions, Lesly was so exasperated that she pointed at the people nearby and scolded, "What the hell do you know? You're nothing but a group of idiots! How dare all of you speak for this bitch! Are you also a bitch, so you side her? Did any of you see me taking away her boyfriend? Bah, you are a group of fools!"

Lesly scolded all the people around her. Some retorted with a frown, saying that she was mad. Then they left one after another.

Lesly's anger had not dissipated yet. She turned around and glared at Celia, trying to vent her anger.

But Tyson saw through her mind. He immediately stood in front of Celia to protect her, without giving Lesly a chance to touch even the tip of her hair.

Lesly realized that she had no chance to hurt Celia. So she pointed at Tyson and still tried to sow discord. "You, fool! How stupid are you to still protect her even if she cuckolded you? Alick is a well-known playboy. Do you think he hasn't touched your wife from head to toe?"

But Tyson was not affected at all. He didn't even frown at her provocation. He just sneered, "I don't need to listen to your nonsense. I know my wife, and I trust her unconditionally."

"You're the only one who believes her." Lesly was so angry that her eyes almost popped out. "She made Alick break up with me. And now, Alick doesn't want me anymore. He abandoned me because of this bitch. I'm telling the truth. When we met in the restaurant last time, she seduced Alick. Didn't you see it? You must be blinded by her!"

Tyson sneered again. It was as if he had heard an extremely ridiculous joke.

He said coldly, "That only means you failed to keep your man. My wife has nothing to do with it. It's your problem that you couldn't win your man's heart. But my wife has never seduced anyone."

After saying this, he immediately turned his head to Celia, bent over, and whispered in her ear, "I know you only seduce me."

Celia was already angry. But when she heard his words, her face turned red, and she felt sweet in her heart.

Since her mother passed away, no one had ever protected and trusted her unconditionally.

She realized it felt so good.

"You're the only one who trusts this bitch so much." Lesly was now fuming with rage.

She wanted to scold Celia again. But this time, Celia stepped forward and said, "Lesly, that's enough! I have put up with you for so long. When we were in college, you snatched my boyfriend from me. But I didn't take revenge on you, right? Now that he abandoned you, you blame me? Don't you think it's just karma?"

Celia's eyes turned cold. "Since I broke up with him, I've known what kind of people you two are. I realized I had been blinded the whole time. So you have nothing to worry about. I will never get back with him. I will never take fancy to a piece of rubbish like Alick."

She sneered, "You two are actually a perfect match. So I wish you could be together again and stop hurting others."

After saying this, Celia pulled Tyson away and left without even giving Lesly a chance to react. Actually, Celia retorted with reason and good logic, so Lesly was stupefied for a long time.

When she came back to her senses, Tyson and Celia had already gone far. No matter how angry she was, she could only collapse and yell on the street, "Bitch, just wait and see! I will definitely not let you go."
