

Chapter 380 Unwrapping Gifts

Celia nodded at once. Actually, she had been looking forward to unwrapping these gifts for a long time.

"Okay, let's open them," she happily said.

Tyson smiled and handed the gifts to her one by one.

Celia rubbed her hands excitedly and started to open the gift boxes.

After opening them, she found that Hobson had sent her many gifts of various types, including several expensive bags, skin care products, clothes, and jewelry. Everything was from the top international luxury brands.

Celia was dazzled by the pile of gifts in front of her. But she also felt flattered.

"Why did your grandpa send me so many gifts? They are too expensive."

Tyson pushed some of the boxes away, so he could sit beside her. Then he leaned over, kissed her on the cheek, and said, "My grandpa likes you, so he gave you many gifts. Just keep them."

Celia was touched. "Your grandpa is so kind to me. I also have to buy some gifts for him one of these days."

At first, Tyson just wanted to say okay. But something came to his mind soon, so he swallowed his words, approached her, and said with a smile, "My grandpa doesn't lack anything. All he wants is a great-grandchild. For him, it's the most precious gift he can receive."

As he spoke, he wrapped his arm around her body quietly.

Then he added, "If you really want to give my grandpa a gift, I don't think there is anything more suitable than this."

His words made Celia blush. She glared at him and said coquettishly, "You have already mentioned it so many times. Do you really want a child so much?"

Tyson leaned even closer to Celia. He bit her earlobe and sucked it gently.

"Actually, what I want is you." Finally, he spoke out what he had in mind.

Celia was embarrassed by his words. Tyson had been waiting for her for so long. She thought it was time for her to do it with him.

But she soon remembered that her period had been delayed.

This had never happened before. She wondered why.

Celia couldn't help thinking of the one-night stand she had. What if she got pregnant with that man's child? She had to check. She must buy a pregnancy test kit tomorrow and do the test secretly.

If she was really pregnant, she didn't know how to face Tyson.

While she was lost in various conjectures, he began to kiss her again.

His kiss this time was much more aggressive than the one in the car. He kissed her mouth wantonly without even giving Celia any chance to react.

However, she quickly adapted to his kiss. She hugged his body with both hands and responded to his kiss.

The kiss lasted for a long time. She only pushed him away until she was almost out of breath.

She couldn't help blushing when she saw the temptation and expectation in his eyes. She tried to distract him by saying, "Why are the gifts all for me? Hobson must have prepared some gifts for you too. Let's check and open them."

Tyson saw through her mind at a glance, but he still did as she said.

He said, "Okay."

He held her hand, raised it to his lips, and kissed it.

Celia's face flushed even more. She quickly pulled back her hand, picked up the gift box beside her, and opened it.

The content of the gift box was supplements. She smiled with satisfaction and said, "Your grandpa treats us equally. He knows you're not in good health, so he gave you this gift."

She picked up the box of supplements and looked at them carefully. "These supplements are the best. These are good for you. He is so considerate."

Tyson didn't say a word. He just smiled at her approvingly.

When they finished opening all the gift boxes sent by Hobson, Celia cleaned up several cupboards to store the gifts. They cherished these things very much.

She had just finished arranging the gifts when Hobson called Tyson.
