

Chapter 382 Hot Search

Celia's eyes widened in surprise when she read the news.

She was totally shocked, wondering what had happened.

How could Brea and Wayne be together?

Celia was still in shock, but she immediately clicked on the news.

Then she saw a video of Wayne announcing outside of Westin Hotel that Brea was his girlfriend. They were very intimate. They hugged each other several times and even kissed in public.

And when the video was released, the trend of public opinion also changed.

The comments section was filled with comments from the netizens apologizing to Brea.

"I didn't expect that Brea is Wayne's real girlfriend. I feel bad for calling her the other woman before. I was deceived and used by someone."

"They even fought in public. How can they be a couple? This is too absurd. Brea, I'm sorry that I scolded you before I figured it out."

"I also want to apologize to Brea. I shouldn't have blamed her."

Celia was very happy to see these many friendly comments.

She couldn't help but continue reading through the comments until she found that someone was scolding Keira.

"Keira is something, and she actually looks simple. I didn't expect her to be so scheming. How can she deceive us, letting us believe that she is romantically involved with Mr. Evans?"

Some people also expressed their sentiments on this comment.

"It's good that Mr. Evans finally publicly announced that he is in a relationship with Brea. It turns out that Keira is not even his friend, and Brea is his only real girlfriend."

"I heard that Keira and Brea are mortal enemies. They often grab roles and endorsements from each other. I don't know if it's true or not."

"I wonder why Keira wanted people to believe that she was in a relationship with Mr. Evans. She even threw mud at Brea. Was she taking the opportunity to take revenge on Brea? Well, she's asking for it. This is called go out for wool and come home shorn."

The netizens gradually turned their support to Brea. Many of them said that Keira was a scheming bitch. They scolded her for not having good acting skills and resources, for slandering Brea as the other woman, and for wanting to steal Brea's boyfriend. For them, people like Keira should get out of the entertainment industry.

After she read the news and all the comments, mixed emotions surged in Celia's heart.

She was happy to see that the netizens had stopped cursing Brea, and they were now speaking for her.

But she was also a little puzzled. Were Brea and Wayne really together now?

According to the news, they stayed alone in the hotel for two days. Compared to her and Tyson, their relationship progressed too fast.

Celia thought about it for a long time. In the end, she couldn't help sending Brea a message.

She asked, "Brea, have you seen the hot search about you today?"

At this moment, Brea was online too, checking the news. So she replied very quickly, "Yes, I have seen it."

Her reply made Celia feel more nervous. She hurriedly asked, "What really happened between you and Mr. Evans? Are you really together now? What did you do in the hotel for two days? Did he bully you? Are you okay?"

Celia waited for Brea's reply. After a while, Brea finally said, "We are not together. Wayne is just my fake boyfriend. We are just pretending to be in love. Only the two of us know about it. So now that I told you, you should keep the secret for me, okay? Wayne is pretending to be my boyfriend only to help me solve the rumor of me being his other woman. In return, I may have to help him deal with his family."

Brea didn't answer Celia's question about what she and Wayne did in the hotel for two days. This made Celia feel a little confused.

But she was too embarrassed to continue asking. After all, it was impolite to pry into other people's privacy so much. So she decided to change the topic. She said, "Since you are pretending to be a couple, do you want to consider making it real? Actually, Wayne is good. He is rich, handsome, and most of all, he adores you. If you will be in a real relationship, it's good."

After sending this message, Celia waited for Brea's reply anxiously.

She treated Brea as a friend, and she thought that Wayne was a good man. If the two were really together, it wouldn't be a bad thing.

