

Chapter 384 Kiley Wanted To Make Friends

Celia was a little stunned by Kiley's words.

But she quickly came back to her senses and helped Kiley up. "You don't have to do this. You have already apologized to me online before, and it's already in the past. Don't worry about it anymore. Let bygones be bygones. We will still be colleagues in the future."

Of course, she was not that stupid to easily believe that Kiley had really changed and wanted to make friends with her. And she didn't want to be friends with someone like Kiley either.

So since Kiley was acting, why wouldn't she pretend too? After all, they were still colleagues. They had to be on good terms on the surface.

Kiley wanted to be friends with Celia, but Celia insisted on making it clear that they were just colleagues.

Kiley sensed the alienation in Celia's tone, but she didn't mind it. Instead, she held Celia's hand intimately and said, "Cece, you are so nice. I like being friends with people like you. No discord, no concord, right? I really appreciate your character. Can we be friends?"

Of course, she had not forgotten her mission.

For one hundred thousand dollars, she had to help Alick get Celia. She kept this in mind all the time. How could she let such an amount of money slip out of her hands?

The dinner party would be tomorrow, so she had to do her best to get close to Celia. Her mission was to drug Celia during the dinner, so Alick could take Celia away. And she could only do this if she got Celia to trust her as a friend.

As long as Alick slept with Celia, the one hundred thousand dollars would be hers.

Actually, Kiley didn't want Alick to sleep with Celia. But for the sake of one hundred thousand dollars, she had to let him do it. She would even help him.

Celia didn't know the dirty things in Kiley's mind, but she couldn't help frowning.

She didn't understand why Kiley was suddenly very eager to be friends with her. Kiley had also mentioned this before when she apologized to Celia online. But Celia always felt that she was acting strange, and the smile on her face was fake.

However, since Kiley said in front of their colleagues that she wanted to be friends with Celia, Celia couldn't directly refuse. Because if she did, it would not be good for her image, and she might find it difficult to get along with her colleagues in the future. It might affect how they looked at her, and her relationship with them might worsen.

Moreover, Kiley apologized to her several times. If she refused to make friends with Kiley, people would think she was too narrow-minded. Perhaps their colleagues would even side with Kiley and blame her.

Celia was new in the Semshy Group, so it was better that she maintained a good relationship with her colleagues.

Then, she forced herself to smile and nodded. "Of course, we can. We are all friends here, right?"

She had nothing else to say, so she shut her mouth after saying this.

But Kiley was so happy that she even held Celia's arm.

"Alright! Cece, now that we're friends, can we have lunch together in the canteen?"

Celia was stunned for a moment. Since there were many doubts in her heart, she didn't know how to reply. At this time, Derek came over and asked, "Are you going to have lunch together? Do you mind if I join you?"

The moment Kiley saw it was Derek, she hurriedly answered, "Of course, we don't mind!"

She couldn't help raising her head and looking at Derek's handsome face. It was as if she was bewitched by him.

Actually, she had been wondering why Derek was so nice to Celia. He even wanted to eat with Celia every day.

Celia was beautiful, but she was nothing else. How could she be worthy of his love?

Celia planned to refuse Kiley's invitation using the excuse that she might have lunch at the executive canteen with Brea.

After all, Brea promised to take her there every day.

But when she remembered what had happened in the past few days, she thought that Brea should be very busy. She didn't have to bother Brea for trivial things like this.

Besides, she thought it was not good for her to frequently go to executive canteen because the people in the company might think someone powerful was backing her up.

Celia hesitated for a while before she finally agreed to join Derek and Kiley for lunch.

"Okay, just call me when you go to the canteen at noon. I have to start working now. We have been chatting for a long time. It's not good if others think we are slacking off."

Kiley nodded in agreement. "You're right, Cece. Let's start working now."

However, it seemed that Derek had no intention of leaving. Instead, he said, "Cece, I heard you had received a big order to design a red carpet dress for Vida. Is that true?"

