

Chapter 391 Had Kiley Changed

When Kiley noticed Celia's expression, she held Celia's hand and explained, "Don't be so surprised. I really want to apologize to you and be your friend. So I want to treat you to lunch today to show my sincere apology. I am really sorry for what happened before. Please don't refuse me."

Although she kept on saying the same thing, Celia was still skeptical.

Celia didn't want to owe Kiley a favor, so she said, "It's really unnecessary. It was all in the past already. You don't need to take it to heart. It's been a long time, and I don't care about it anymore. You don't have to treat me to a meal. I know how hard for each of us to make money. I'll transfer the money to you. How much do I owe you?"

Kiley deliberately put on an aggrieved look and said, "Cece, you don't have to be so estranged from me. Don't you want me to be your friend? Because, to be honest, I really want to be your friend. But if you can't accept me, I won't force you."

As she spoke, her eyes became wet. It was as if she was about to cry.

And Kiley's acting was actually effective. Upon seeing her expression, Celia lowered her guard a bit.

She felt that Kiley was sincere. Indeed, she shouldn't be prejudiced against Kiley because of the previous incidents.

Maybe Kiley's intention of making friends with her was pure, and she didn't have evil thoughts anymore.

So Celia had no choice but to nod. "I don't mean it that way. Since you really want to be my friend, we can get along and slowly develop a friendship."

Kiley smiled happily, and they finally started to have lunch together.

But the atmosphere around them was weird.

Derek had been a little absentminded. But he glanced at Celia from time to time and then quickly looked away.

Kiley, on the other hand, kept serving food to Celia. She also praised Celia all the time.

"Cece, I want to be honest with you. Actually, I really envy you. You are so beautiful, and you are already famous in the design industry at such a young age. I also heard that you graduated from a famous university. And since you started working, you have met several lucky stars who helped you at work. I am so envious of you.

People like you are simply the chosen ones. You have beauty, skills, and luck."

Kiley exalted Celia exaggeratedly.

Celia felt a little embarrassed upon hearing this. She could only smile and lower her head to eat.

It was only now that she noticed several seafood dishes. She guessed that it must be Derek who ordered them for her, and this made her feel a little complicated. She really hoped Derek could find a good woman he could spend the rest of his life with as soon as possible. After all, he deserved to be happy.

Celia finished her lunch in a hurry and returned to her desk immediately. Then she took out her phone and sent a message to Tyson.

She told him everything about Kiley's behavior today.

Tyson's reply was a reminder to her.

"Cece, it's a good thing that your relationship with your colleague has eased. But don't let your guard down. Keep an eye on her. After all, people can't change overnight."

Celia thought Tyson's words made sense. She chatted with him for a while until the lunch break was over.

It was time to start working, so she put down her phone and continued to work vigorously.

At this moment, Kiley approached Celia with a cup of coffee. "I just went to the lounge to get some coffee, and I got one for you too. Here, drink this first."

Celia was surprised. But she quickly smiled and thanked Kiley.

"It's okay. It's just a little thing, anyway. What are friends for?" Kiley said with a smile.

After saying this, she leaned closer and watched Celia draw the design draft.

Celia was worried that Kiley would point at her draft just like before. But much to her surprise, Kiley just looked at it with admiration and praised it. "This design is very novel. It is eye-catching without being ostentatious. It suits Vida's temperament very well. I can be sure that she will be very satisfied with your design. Great job, Cece!"

Celia couldn't believe her ears. Did Kiley really praise her design draft?

Had Kiley really changed? Could it be that she was being possessed?

At the thought of this, Celia immediately picked up her phone and sent Tyson a message, telling him about it.

At this moment, Tyson was sitting in his office. When he received Celia's message, he told her what he thought. The most important thing was to persuade her to be cautious.

As soon as his message was sent, Briar came in to report that the acquisition of Kane Group was basically ready.

"By that time, you may have to personally attend the general shareholders' meeting of Kane Group to complete the handover."

Tyson nodded and asked, "Is there any news about the CEO of Kane Group?"
