

Chapter 392 Getting Kane Group

Briar told Tyson everything he knew.

"The CEO of Kane Group is still trying to raise money to hold more shares, but to no avail. You have already held most of the shares of Kane Group, and you will soon become the person in power of that company."

Tyson listened to Briar expressionlessly. No one could tell whether he was happy or angry with the news Briar reported to him. But Briar continued to hand over the prepared acquisition document to him and said respectfully, "I am negotiating with the CEO of Kane Group now, hoping that he will voluntarily abdicate and sell the remaining shares in his hands. But Mr. Kane seems unwilling, and we're still negotiating."

Since he had not convinced Adrien yet, Briar was a little worried that Tyson would think he was ineffective.

However, Tyson didn't blame Briar. He just smiled contemptuously and said coldly, "It doesn't matter whether Adrien is willing or not. I want to get Kane Group, and no one can stop me. If he doesn't agree, we will directly use some means to make Kane Group go bankrupt. By then, he won't have any other choice but give up his position."

Briar saw a hint of malicious intent in Tyson's eyes. He had been working for Tyson for so long, but he rarely saw Tyson attack a small company like this. It seemed that he had a deep-rooted hatred for Adrien.

He didn't know how an insignificant company like Kane Group had offended Tyson. Was it worth dealing with the company this way?

Could it be because of Celia?

Briar didn't dare to think further. He only felt lucky that he didn't offend Tyson. Otherwise, he couldn't imagine the consequences.

"Briar..." Tyson called out in a cold voice.

His tone was so chilly that Briar couldn't help shuddering. He came back to his senses and asked, "Sir, what do you want to do next?"

Tyson thought for a moment. Then he said coldly, "Prepare for the general shareholders' meeting directly. I want to meet the other major shareholders of Kane Group. Now that I have the most shares, it will be easy for me to control the company."

Briar immediately bowed and said, "Understood, sir."

After saying this, he turned around and walked out of Tyson's office.

Tyson then moved his eyes to the screen of his phone. And when he saw Celia's message, the corners of his mouth rose to a beautiful smile.

After long-time planning, he could finally avenge Celia. He wouldn't let go of all those who bullied her.

As for the people of the Shaw family, the benign period for them was about to end. The Kane Group was easier to deal with, and he could deal with it at any time.

One day, he would control the Shaw family as he controlled the Kane family. Danilo and Mack would pay a hefty price.

At this moment, Brea was at home, lying on the bed and browsing the entertainment news.

Now, her reputation was getting better. Keira, on the other hand, was being scolded. Her previous scandals were even dug out. So Brea was inexplicably happy.

Finally, she could be proud of herself.

She spent the whole morning reading the comments and learned how to scold people from the netizens. Even for lunch, she only ordered takeout from her favorite restaurant. She was engrossed in the comments.

Brea could say that this was the happiest day of her life. She hoped that this day would continue.

In the afternoon, she planned to go out to a nearby garden to catch some fresh air.

She changed into casual clothes and put on a mask to disguise herself.

But as soon as she opened the door, she saw Wayne standing outside with roses in his hands. It seemed that he was waiting for her to go out.

Brea was shocked and confused. "What are you doing here?"

As soon as Wayne saw her, he immediately handed the roses to her and said, "Brea, I wanted to give you a surprise. The most beautiful flowers are for the most beautiful person."

A gust of wind blew, making Brea shiver a little. But she felt that her face was a little hot.

Her eyes unconsciously softened as she took the flowers with surprise and joy on her face.
