

Chapter 415 The Mysterious CEO Of The Semshy Group

Briar was driving to the Kane Group.

In the back seat of the car, Tyson's face was completely obscured behind his mask and sunglasses.

In order to deal with the Shaw family, Tyson had to practice extreme caution. He didn't want to bring himself any trouble because of the Kane Group acquisition. If the Shaw family found out that Nolan, the CEO of Semshy Group, was in fact Tyson, his plan would be ruined.

Briar pulled the car to a stop. "We're here, Boss," he announced.

Tyson gave Brian a quick nod of his head before exiting the car and walking upstairs to join the shareholders' meeting.

The meeting room was already occupied by the other shareholders. They were waiting for him and Adrien.

Tyson could feel their eyes on him as he entered.

Despite his bizarre appearance, no comments were made. The shareholders merely exchanged looks among themselves.

"Ah, Mr. Reyes! Welcome!"

A relatively young-looking shareholder took the initiative and offered his hand to Tyson, who shook it graciously.

The other shareholders followed the young man's lead and shook Tyson's hand too. They were most amiable.

To avoid embarrassing anyone in particular, Tyson greeted them all equally.

His target, after all, was Adrien. These people had nothing to do with him. He had come here today - in person - to take over the Kane Group.

Despite also being invited to this meeting, Adrien had not arrived yet. Tyson and the others waited patiently.

Sitting in the center of the meeting room, Tyson radiated an emotional coolness that could be felt by the other shareholders. It made them uneasy.

However, they could also sense that his hostility was not directed at them. They smiled at him whenever their eyes met with his.

A hushed conversation began in a corner of the room. "I heard that Mr. Reyes is the dominant shareholder and that he's preparing to acquire the Kane Group, but Adrien didn't agree to a takeover. That's why we're holding this meeting.

Adrien is struggling, desperately. If he doesn't acquire more funds and increase his portion of the Kane Group's shares, the Kane Group will have a new boss today."

Another whisperer added, "Apparently Mr. Reyes is the mysterious CEO of Semshy Group, one of the leading companies in Hosworth. I don't know why he'd want to purchase a small company like ours."

"Sometimes moves like these in business are hard to explain," someone responded quietly. "What I'd like to know is why he never shows his face. What's with the mask and sunglasses? Everyone's always talking about how mysterious the CEO of the Semshy Group is. Maybe it's true."

Tyson coughed slightly, and Briar immediately signalled to the shareholders to stop talking.

The room became silent once more, and the shareholders continued to wait for Adrien with bated breath.

At long last, the door of the meeting room was pushed open, revealing a miserable-looking Adrien.

It was plain for all to see that he was having a hard time in life.

For Tyson, however, Adrien's struggles elicited no sympathy. He was not about to show Adrien any mercy. If it weren't for the fact that Adrien was Celia's father, Tyson might have acted with even more ruthlessness towards him.

Upon Adrien's entrance, Briar announced the beginning of the meeting.

Adrien took his seat in a daze. His secretary, addressing all the shareholders, announced the revenue of the Kane Group. Her announcement was met with shocked silence.

A single hand was raised above the crowd. It was Tyson. "Briar?" he asked, "Will you please take the stage?"

Briar stood and handed every shareholder in the room a document.

"The document I have given you is a letter of intent for acquisition. Please read it through. Mr. Reyes is going to purchase all of your shares at an extremely generous, above-market price."

The shareholders all looked at each other. None of them seemed to have any objections.

The shareholders weren't stupid, and they knew a good deal when they saw one. Faced with the choice of aligning either with the CEO of the Semshy Group or the CEO of the Kane Group, it was clear to them which way they should go.

Everyone scrambled to transfer their shares of the Kane Group to Tyson. Adrien sat alone in his defeat, still and silent.

With all eyes on him, Tyson turned to Adrien and smiled. "What do you think about that, Mr. Kane?" he asked triumphantly.

