

Chapter 424 The Two-faced Woman

Kiley waved to Celia from a distance before she walked to her and held her arm. "Cece, work hours are almost over, and we're going to the party!"

Celia was not so used to being close to her, so she withdrew her arm and said with a polite smile, "I know. That's why I came to the bathroom to fix my makeup."

Upon hearing that, Kiley looked at her for a moment before she smiled and said, "Hey, you're a natural beauty! You have become even prettier after you put on makeup, and the more I look at you the more gorgeous you seem. In fact, it won't be an exaggeration to say that you're prettier than most women in the company."

Her flattery was not from the bottom of her heart, and her fake smile was too obvious.

Celia gave her a curt smile. "Thanks, but I feel like you're exaggerating it. There are so many beautiful women in the company, and a lot of them are more gorgeous than I am."

After taking a careful look at Kiley, she noticed that she had also dressed up really well. "By the way, you look gorgeous today. I almost didn't recognize you!"

Although Celia's praise was indeed a kind and heartfelt one, Kiley was not too pleased with it. She thought that Celia was just implying that she was ugly without her makeup and looked like a different person with makeup.

Besides, it was indeed obvious that she was not as pretty as Celia. Wasn't Celia just showing off?

Kiley secretly gritted her teeth, staring at Celia's delicate face.

She was determined to teach her a lesson that night.

After she sent her to Alick's bed, not only did she want his money but also wanted everyone in the company to know what a promiscuous bitch Celia was.

She was curious to see if Celia would continue to stay in the company after that.

After all, nothing would please her more than seeing Celia in a miserable state.

"Hey, I have to go to the bathroom to fix my makeup, so you can head back now. I'll join you later, and then we can go to the hotel together," said Kiley.

Although Celia was not interested in going to the party with her, she also could not bring herself to rudely say no to her, so she waved goodbye to her and went back to her desk.

The moment Celia turned her back to Kiley, she rolled her eyes at Celia and took out her phone to send a text to Alick.

"Everyone's preparing for the party, Mr. Juarez. Just wait for my marvelous performance tonight."

Alick replied soon, "I'm looking forward to hearing your good news."

Meanwhile, several colleagues were chatting when Celia walked into the office, and when they saw her, they walked over to her to greet her with compliments.

"Wow! What a surprise to see you wearing makeup, Cece! You look gorgeous. Your jewelry and clothes go so well together. They seem to be from a luxury brand. I am sure they're expensive, right?"

Timid as Celia was, she blushed, waved her hand and said, "No! You're exaggerating. In fact, everyone is gorgeous today, and this is not an expensive dress. It's from a small store."

In reality, her clothes and jewelry were indeed high fashion gifts from Hobson. Although Celia did not know how much they were, she could guess that they were expensive.

And she did not want to seem too high-profile, because she did not want her colleagues to gossip about her or be intimidated by her.

After all, there was a scene that had happened when she had first joined the team, and even though it was not her fault and it was Kiley who was being unreasonable, she had already become a hot topic of gossip in the company, and did not want to leave any room for people to discuss about her.

Celia talked for a bit with her colleagues before returning to her seat. She then took out her phone to browse through some news articles.

Surprisingly, there was a message from Adrien as soon as she turned on the phone.

"Dear daughter, all thanks to you, the Kane Group has officially announced the change of its ownership. I am sure you're jumping with joy now, right?"

Celia was stunned by his words, but she also did not know how to feel about it.

It seemed that the CEO of the Kane Group had already changed.

Although she had stopped caring about Adrien long ago, she was still a bit shocked to hear it.

Perhaps, it was the retribution for betraying his late wife and neglecting his daughter.

Curling her lips, Celia did not want to reply to him at all, and was about to put her phone aside.

But she didn't expect that Adrien would call her right after.

