

Chapter 445 Confession Of Love To Tyson

Several of Celia's female coworkers approached Celia and Tyson at that moment, gazing admiringly in her direction. One of them pointed at Tyson and grinned, "Cece, don't you want to introduce him to us?"

Celia had already visualized the moment she would introduce Tyson to her coworkers. When the big day finally arrived, though, she couldn't help but blush.

"This is my husband, Tyson Shaw," she responded, pointing at Tyson.

The coworkers gave Tyson the once-over. Then they began to joke with Celia.

"Cece, your spouse is nice. Despite wearing a mask, he appears to be attractive."

"He's got a good body too! Does he work out frequently? He must be a good-looking man if he removes his mask."

While the compliments were meant for Tyson, Celia couldn't help but feel flattered.

She grinned shyly and looked at Tyson. "It doesn't matter if he's gorgeous or not. What he looks like is irrelevant to me. I am in love with him regardless of his physical appearance."

Hearing Celia's remark, Tyson couldn't help but crack a grin.

Knowing that no one in the design department had ever met their CEO before, let alone got along with him, was the only reason he had the courage to show up in front of them.

As the CEO of the company, he only met a few well-known celebrities and senior executives.

It appeared that he and Celia could make appearances in front of her coworkers frequently in the days to come.

After all, Celia said something that she certainly wouldn't say in public before.

She publicly declared that she loved him.

That she would publicly declare her love for Tyson in such a way surprised herself too. She was embarrassed, so she held his hand and said, "Let's go home. It's getting late."

Tyson held Celia's hand back. The two of them turned around and left after bidding farewell to Celia's coworkers.

They all had envious expressions on their faces as they looked at the backs of Tyson and Celia. A tall coworker said, "Cece is very fortunate to marry such a wealthy man. He is really attractive and treats her very well."

"Cece is beautiful herself. Having a husband with superb looks is a natural thing. They appear to be a perfect match."

However, immediately after the woman finished speaking, she heard mockery beside her. "You are good at kissing her ass. He is, however, wearing a mask. How can you tell he's attractive?"

In response, the tall coworker said, "He hasn't left yet. Go and have a look at his face, and you'll know."

Nobody dared to reply, but someone whispered, "Celia has just introduced her husband to us. Her husband's surname is Shaw, and there aren't many people in Hosworth with that surname. Furthermore, he owns a costly automobile. Is her husband from the most influential family in Hosworth?"

Another person muttered, "Her husband is wearing a mask. Do you think he is that deformed, useless member of the Shaw family? I heard he was expelled from the Shaw family several years ago and he was not recognized by those wealthy and prominent members of the Shaw family."

With a sneer, the tall coworker replied, "So what if he is deformed? There is no denying that he is still a member of the most influential family. After all, he can still enjoy driving such a high-end vehicle even if he isn't accepted by the Shaw family. If I were Cece, I'd also be open to the idea of marrying him. We only earn ten to twenty thousand dollars a month, so let's not be concerned with the rumor of a billionaire family. We should think about how to create a design that would please our customers."

Tyson and Celia totally disregarded the whispers of the throng and walked hand in hand to their automobile.

"After you, my lady."

Tyson held the car door open for Celia.

Celia grinned and was about to get into the car. However, Kiley, seeing that they were leaving, hurried over and stopped Celia.

"Cece, don't go. I have something to tell you."
