

Chapter 480 Alita's Bad Ideas

Celia felt helpless when she thought of her mother's ring. "That ring belonged to my mother and it was her last wish that I should get that ring back. I would do anything for its return. Adrien is shameless. He kept prolonging it and still hasn't given me the ring."

Her face became cold. "I had planned to file a lawsuit against Adrien if he didn't return the ring. But the ring is no longer in Adrien's hand and it is going to be auctioned. There is nothing I can do about it!"

She lifted her head and looked up at Alita in despair. "Alita, guess what? The starting auction price for my mother's ring is 60 million. Even if I worked for a few lifetimes with no food or drink, I wouldn't earn that. What choice do I have to get my mother's ring back and fulfill her last wish?"

Alita wanted to comfort her friend but it was a tough situation and she didn't know what to say.

She then remembered the luxury car she'd seen outside Celia's house and asked, "Sweetie, when I was walking in just now, I noticed there was a luxury car parked in the yard. It looked like a limited edition Koenigsegg. That's worth tens of millions of dollars! Is it yours and Tyson's?"

Celia nodded. "It's ours. It was a gift from Tyson's generous grandfather. He is very generous. Besides the car, he also gave me plenty of clothes, jewelry, and supplements."

Alita felt a little envious but she didn't let it get in the way of her intention for asking.

"Well... since Mr. Shaw treats you so well, why don't you ask the Shaw family for help? Mr. Shaw would surely be willing to help you get the ring back. Tyson is his grandson, after all. I don't think he would care about spending tens of millions on him."

Celia looked at her in surprise. "Alita, didn't you know that Tyson had been kicked out of the Shaw family several years ago?"

Alita nodded. "Yes, I am aware. But it seems that his grandfather hasn't given up on him! Maybe you can try to get back to the Shaw family through his grandfather? Then you will become the respected Mrs. Shaw. You will have hundreds of millions in yearly allowance and you will no longer have to worry about not being able to afford tens of millions!"

Celia was amused. She patted her friend on the shoulder and said, "Alita, stop making fun of me. What is most important right now is finding a way to get back my mother's ring. Whether I can be the Mrs. Shaw or not, I don't care at all, as long as I'm with Tyson."

"All you ever talk about is Tyson now. You can't live without each other," Alita teased, and then she continued to think of a way for her. "Seriously though, if you want to get the ring back, I think there is no other way than to ask the Shaw family for help."

Celia sighed with disappointment. She didn't want to have to go down that route. Alita then suggested another idea. Cautiously, she asked, "Or maybe you can ask the one-night stand guy for help? Based on your description, I assume that guy is very wealthy?"

Celia snorted and rolled her eyes. "Alita, that's an awful idea. How could I find him anyway? You advised me to forget about him just now. What's changed now? I never want to see him again for the rest of my life!"

Alita stuck out her tongue. "Babe, please don't get upset. I'm not as smart as you, remember? I only suggest bad ideas!"

Celia couldn't help laughing. "Forget it. You can be my cheerleader from now on. Then there'll be no need to pretend you're smart!"

Alita giggled and was about to tease Celia again, but the doorbell rang.
