

Chapter 486 The Prosthesis In Her Nose Was Crooked

Adrien dodged Celia's question. He said, "We have an account to settle first."

"An account to settle?"

Celia was confused. "What account? I don't owe you anything. You're the one who hasn't returned my mother's ring to me. I can hold you accountable at any time."

Adrien was shocked. He hadn't expected her to come out with that. He composed himself promptly.

He pointed at the mark on Mabel's face where Alita had slapped her. "Alita is your friend. Look at what she has done to Mabel. What are you going to do about it? Don't you have an explanation?"

Celia smiled instead of getting angry, "What do you want me to say? You really want my honest thoughts? Okay. Here goes. Alita really did a good job. There, are you satisfied?"

Hearing her words, Adrien was furious. Mabel pushed Adrien away and said, "Don't play dumb, Celia. I know the law. I can take it to court! If you don't want me to take it that far, then compensate me financially. I have spent a lot of money on my face."

Alita was disgusted by their shamelessness. She stepped forward and asserted, "Are you really going to resort to blackmail for money? If so, I'll smash your face. I'm paying after all!"

With this she mustered all her strength and punched Mabel in the nose.

Mabel fell heavily to the ground with a scream.

Alita was scared.

She had lost control. She had expected Mabel to dodge her blow, not take it full on the face.

Everyone looked at Mabel. Her nose was crooked.

Cerissa was startled and held Mabel in her arms. She glared at Alita and cried.

"Alita, how could you really hit her? My mom has just had a nose job. She's still in recovery! She could never withstand your punch. You are cruel and merciless. No wonder you are Celia's friend!"

Mabel felt a sharp pain in her nose. She was too shocked to cry. Instead, she took out her pocket mirror to check her nose.

When she saw that the prosthesis in her nose was crooked, she was in shock.

She'd been a beauty when she was younger. Now that she was old and no longer beautiful, she had to undergo plastic surgeries to regain her beauty. She'd never expected this to happen though.

Now, she looked just like a clown.

Adrien hadn't known that Mabel had had a nose job. He was shocked and concerned. "How could this be? Shall I call an ambulance?"

"The prosthesis is crooked. It's useless to call an ambulance! She has to go to the plastic surgeon to fix it!"

Alita was not afraid that Mabel would claim compensation from her. She laughed at the ridiculousness of the situation.

"Cece, I really can't help laughing. Mabel looks so ugly now. I always thought she was very beautiful, I never expected she'd had plastic surgery though."

Celia had also never expected her friend was capable of throwing such a punch. Mabel did look funny and Celia found herself laughing too.
