

Chapter 491 I Trust My Wife

Mabel was enraged. She turned to Tyson and said, "Mr. Shaw, did you see that? Celia's best friend Alita is a snake. She speaks venom. You can't trust what she says!"

Adrien came back to his senses and said, "Mr. Huo, we have told you only the truth. We had no choice but to come here today. You had to know the truth. I hope that you will agree to accepting Cerissa as your true wife. Then everything can get back on the right track."

Tyson raised his eyebrows, condescendingly. "So you are saying, you want Cerissa to marry me?"

Adrien nodded excitedly. He thought Tyson was open to the idea and he immediately began to sing Cerissa's praises.

"Exactly! Mr. Shaw, Cerissa has always been very sensible, ever since she was a child in fact. Everyone always says how well-educated, kind and caring she is. Her grades and hobbies are also good."

He then threw a glance at Celia and continued to belittle her again. "As for Celia, she has always had a bad attitude. She has always been one for stealing. Her mother was the only one who could control her. Ever since her mother's death though, Celia has indulged herself completely. After she left the Kane family, she fell in love at school and she often bullied her classmates. I just couldn't control her. She is not worthy of you, let alone the Shaw family!"

This was the last straw for Tyson. He sneered and said, "I heard that Cerissa changed boyfriends very frequently so how now am I hearing a completely different story from your mouth?"

Adrien's face froze. He shot Cerissa a glare and explained, "Oh, that's just a rumor. Cerissa is not that kind of person. She is a sweet and decent young lady."

Tyson retorted ruthlessly, "Since the rumors are not to be believed, then how can I believe that what you just said is the truth?"

Adrien went bright red. He couldn't find the words to defend himself. After a long hesitation, he said, "Well, Mr. Shaw, I don't have to lie. They are both my daughters. I wouldn't have exposed this matter if I weren't disappointed. Who doesn't want their children to have a good life?"

Tyson said nothing to this. His eyes were blazing with anger as he glared at Adrien.

Adrien was shocked by this look and he couldn't help but step back.

Fear was in his heart.

Tyson, as he looked now, reminded him of Nolan Reyes, the buyer of the Kane Group.

He felt for a moment like he was confronting Nolan.

Celia took everything that was now happening calmly.

She felt disgusted at the show she had just witnessed put on by Adrien and Mabel. They had distorted the truth and smeared her name.

She turned to look at Tyson now and welled up the courage to ask him what she'd always wanted to know the answer to.

"Tyson, do you believe Adrien? In your heart, what kind of person am I? Am I someone you want to spend the rest of your life with?" She paused and glanced at Adrien. "Or do you think I am like what he said?"

Celia was afraid that Tyson would say what she didn't want to hear as she looked at him expectantly.

Tyson did not let her down.

He reached out and held her tightly in his arms. "I only know that you are my wife and I trust my wife."
