

Chapter 503 A Real Couple

Celia said nothing. She thought that both Wayne and Brea looked a little strange.

She hesitated for a moment before asking, "Are you really leaving?"

Wayne nodded. "Yes. We can have dinner together next time. I'll make a reservation in a restaurant in advance. I'm really sorry."

"It's not a problem. I just thought it would be a pity not to make the most of this rare opportunity when we are all together."

Celia glanced at the corridor. "My husband hasn't returned yet. I want to introduce him to Brea."

"It doesn't matter. We will have many chances to do that in the future," said Brea gracefully.

Fearing that Tyson would be angered if he came back from the washroom and they were still there, Wayne tugged at Brea to indicate that they should leave.

But Alita had just taken out a pen and a piece of paper from her handbag and handed them over to Brea. She smiled sweetly and said, "Brea, can I please bother you for an autograph?"

Brea was stunned.

She knew she didn't have many fans, and she could tell that Alita was not one of them.

Alita's behavior confused her a little.

Alita noticed Brea's confusion and she elaborated, "You are so popular recently. I watched your last TV series so carefully and I think your acting is great. Please, may I have your autograph?"

Brea was overjoyed at her acting skills being praised. She quickly took the pen and paper and signed the autograph for Alita.

As she signed, she said, "You are Cece's best friend, aren't you? No matter how many autographs you want from me, I will be happy to give you that!"

Alita happily clutched the autograph in her hands. Her impression of Brea had just changed.

"It seems that the rumors of you are wrong. You're not the kind of star to act like a diva. You are very approachable. Was it a rival, jealous of your beauty, that spread the news to tarnish your name among netizens?"

Brea was thrilled at Alita's compliments. She took off her mask and left her lip print under her autograph. She even wanted to give Alita her phone number.

Wayne, seeing this, asked Alita, "Do you want my autograph?"

Alita was a little taken aback but she still handed him the paper and pen.

He signed his name and drew a heart circling both their names.

Alita was even more shocked now.

Did this mean that he loved Brea?

She envied them a little but it didn't affect her happiness.

They loved each other sure enough. She was going to ship them!

Brea was also surprised at Wayne's actions. She gave him a small pinch and eyed him suspiciously. "What are you doing?"

He just smiled and then bade goodbye to Alita and Celia.

"See you next time."

With his arm around Brea, they left.

Alita watched their retreating figures and sighed. "It's so sweet. Wayne is such a sweet young man. He loves Brea so much. He is a good man."

Celia smiled, "Wayne is quite different from ordinary rich men."

She was then lost in thought.

So Wayne and Brea were a real couple, right?
