

Chapter 523 Humiliation

Kelley looked like she was in anxiety. Brea noticed this and felt upset. In a disapproving tone, she said, "What are you in a rush for? Didn't you see that I was talking to Cece?"

Kelley had her mouth open and was about to speak when Keira, surrounded by several assistants and bodyguards, rushed into Brea's lounge.

People sensed something was happening and gathered to watch the show.

Brea's face dropped when she saw that it was Keira.

Keira had made press releases where she wrongly accused her of being the other woman. She hadn't forgotten that.

Who had allowed Keira into Semshy Group with all these people to make trouble? She wondered, annoyed.

Brea tried to take a deep breath. She didn't want to fight Keira publicly.

She addressed Keira coldly, "Miss Guerrero, why have you brought so many people here? I warn you. You cannot do whatever you want here at the Semshy Group."

"I'm not a savage like you. I don't fool around for no reason." Keira wore a disdainful expression. "You made press releases staining my reputation. You robbed me of my role. Did you think you could get away with that? Let me tell you something, Brea, I'm not a weakling. I won't suffer stupid losses and get walked over by others."

Brea was enraged at Keira's brazenness. She sneered,

"Wash your mouth out with soap! You make me sick. I don't want to hear another word."

Keira didn't take any offense. She gave her a dirty look and said coldly, "You are such a hypocrite! Haven't you always advertised yourself as an honest person? What's happened now? You dared to do it and not admit it?"

"Not everybody is as disgusting as you!" Brea looked down at her. "Didn't you just accuse me of staining you and robbery? Show me the evidence. I will not be taking responsibility for something I didn't do."

Keira's face showed a flicker of smile. She raised her chin at her assistant.

The assistant immediately flung a bundle of documents to Brea. Kelley was horrified and hurried to pick them up.

Keira said, "If I didn't have evidence, would I really come here to see you? Explain that to me."

Brea ignored her. Assertively, she said to Kelley, "Read it. I want to hear what's in the press releases."

Kelley hesitated momentarily before beginning to read aloud. "Keira Guerrero deliberately provoked Brea Duffy and sabotaged Brea and Wayne's relationship. Keira falsely claimed Brea to be the other woman. Keira wasn't a professional actress on set and had dozens of NGs filming her new episodes..."

Keira's expression changed as Kelley read on.

The onlookers were amused and Celia couldn't help but laugh outwardly.

This was a humiliation for Keira.

She couldn't stand this anymore, so she interrupted Kelley quickly, "Stop! Stop reading!"

Brea gave a giggle and said, "Come on! Read to everyone and let them decide if these are truths or slanders."

Keira wanted to hit Brea but she didn't want to damage her public image as a lady. With fake tears, she said, "Brea, you have bullied me for so many years. Haven't I suffered enough? What do you want from me to let me go? I have given you Wayne and my role already. Isn't that enough?"

Keira now applied all the acting skills she'd learned in her life up to this moment. She really turned on the waterworks, inspiring pity in all those who looked at her. "Are you really not going to help me out? Are you just going to stand there and watch?"

Brea despised Keira's pitiful appearance. She raised a hand, ready to strike Keira.

Celia saw this and quickly flung herself onto her to hold her down. She helped her relax and then whispered in her ear, "Leave her to me."
