

Chapter 602 Celia Was Injured

Regardless of the fact that Etta had never seen Tyson before, he still did everything he could to avoid contact with her. He quickly kissed Celia goodbye and said, "I'm leaving now, honey. I'll pick you up after work."

Then off he drove.

Etta ran up to Celia as soon as he had left and smiled enviously, "Cece, was that your husband?"

Celia nodded, "My husband is not keen on socializing so I didn't introduce you to each other."

"It's not a problem. I understand." Etta smiled as she complimented Tyson. "Your husband is so kind and considerate! There are only a few good men around and even fewer that are prepared to fetch their wives from work every day."

This time, Celia was prepared to sing his praises, saying, "Yes, I agree with you Etta. He is indeed a good man and a good husband. He makes me very happy."

"I envy you." Etta linked arms with Celia and they walked and talked together. Etta had so many questions. She asked, "Cece, tell me, how did you meet each other? Does your husband have any brothers? Can you introduce me to a suitable man?"

Celia smiled bitterly, "Yes, he does have a brother, but he would not suit you at all."

It wasn't that she didn't want to introduce the man to Etta, but that Tyson had only one brother, and that person was Mack. Mack was a lustful and irresponsible man, never mind the fact that he was married!

"That's a pity," Etta sighed, her disappointment evident.

The two ladies chatted happily all the way to the office. As soon as Effie saw Celia arrive, she came over carrying two sets of clothes.

"Miss Kane, we have sewn the lovers' garments you designed last time," she said as she showed Celia the clothes. "Please can you kindly check them? If there are any problems, you can tell me now and we can start to redo them straight away."

"Okay, thank you. Please wait a moment."

Celia checked them quickly. The more she looked at them, the more she loved them. The workers of the Semshy Group's factory were meticulous and their attention to detail was admirable. They had strict quality control systems in place regarding the manufacturing of their clothes - each step of the process was of the highest standard and the garments they produced deserved to bear the Semshy Group label.

Celia smiled broadly, "I'm very satisfied. There are no problems. The garments look wonderful. Thank you."

"The garments will be entered into the design competition. An opportunity like this comes just once-in-a-lifetime," proclaimed Derek.

He looked at Celia as he said, "Cece, if you win first prize, you will be noticed. I'm really excited for you."

Etta echoed his sentiments. "Cece, if you become famous one day, don't forget me!"

While they were happily discussing the competition, Celia noticed Kiley was in the building, glaring at her fiercely.

Surprised, she asked, "Why is Kiley in the building?"

Derek whispered to her, "She is here to offer her resignation. She looks a little peculiar. I think it would be wise for you to keep away from her in case anything happens."

Celia agreed and went to the tool room to pick up the samples.

As she walked back out of the tool room, Kiley was waiting for her. She had a frightening expression on her face, and her eyes looked at Celia coldly.

"Celia!" Pointing directly at Celia, Kiley rebuked her loudly, "You bitch! We were colleagues, but you were so wicked! You just stood by and watched me get fired and didn't even help me! It was you who set me up. Did you think I would just sit by and let this go? Let me tell you something, Celia. I won't ever forget what you have done to me!"

Celia didn't want to argue with Kiley, so she looked away at the samples she was holding.

Celia's lack of response just stoked the fire of hatred in Kiley. "It's all because of you that I was fired by the Semshy Group and rejected by everyone. Go to hell!"

As soon as she finished shouting viciously, she pulled out a knife and stabbed wildly at Celia, leaving little time for Celia to react.

Startled by such violence, Celia tried to dodge the knife.

Unfortunately, they were so close to each other that the knife pierced her stomach before she had time to escape.

Instantly, the blood poured out and splashed Kiley's body.

Chapter 602 Celia Was Injured

 +120 Points at most

As if spurred on by the sight of the blood, she showed no intention of backing off. She just stabbed Celia even harder.

Our ads aim to provide better support for authors.

 I want no ads >