

Chapter 604 Celia Woke Up

Celia could barely open her eyes. She felt an uncomfortable hotness all over her body.

While asleep, she called Tyson's name severally. After struggling for a long time, she woke up all of a sudden.

"It's alright! I am right here with you."

Tyson held her by the hand.

When Celia opened her eyes and saw how red Tyson's eyes were, she felt touched. Her lips opened agonizingly. "I was afraid I wouldn't be able to see you again."

"Don't worry. Everything is going to be fine," Tyson replied in a soothing voice. "You're safe now. All you need to do is have some rest. I'll be right here with you."

After that, he slowly helped her lie down. "Don't worry. I will always be with you. Sleep well." He tucked her in gently.

His voice was a little shaky while he spoke.

With time, Celia finally fell into a deep sleep.

She didn't wake up again until the sun had begun to set the following day.

Immediately her eyes opened, she looked for Tyson. But he was not in the ward. Actually, she didn't see anyone.

"Honey, can you hear me? Where are you?"

Celia shouted on top of her lungs. Then she heard a sound from the washroom. It was that of a toilet being flushed.

In the space of a few seconds, she also noticed that someone was behind the door turning the doorknob.

Who could that possibly be other than Tyson? Celia asked in her mind, only to see her friend's surprised face.

"Cece, you are awake at last!"

Alita rushed to her. Tears soon welled up in her eyes and rolled down her cheeks.

Although Celia felt a little disappointed because she thought Tyson was behind the door, she was still happy to see Alita. "Why are you here?" She nodded with difficulty. "Do you know where Tyson is?"

"I heard that you were injured, so I asked for permission to be given some time off." Alita poured Celia a glass of warm water to moisten her throat. "As for your husband, the doctor informed him that you were about to wake up. In response to that, he asked me to look after you. Then he left to buy something for you to eat. You were asleep for much longer than either of us anticipated. That was very scary!"

Everything that happened the previous day soon rushed through Celia's mind.

She recalled that it was the man with whom she had a one night stand that sent her to the hospital.

It had to be Nolan. He seemed like the only one in Semshy Group with enough money and connections to make arrangements for her to stay in the VIP ward of the hospital.

There was something about his anxious eyes that was similar to Tyson's.

If it was true that people had better access to the depth of their memory when they were on the verge of death, then Celia wasn't remembering wrongly.

She couldn't help wondering whether or not Tyson kept a lot of things from her.

"Cece, are you feeling unwell?" Alita asked with concern, after noticing that her friend was lost in thoughts. "Do you want me to get the doctor?"

"Don't worry. I'm fine. In a few days from now, I should be able to go to work." Celia came to her senses and shook her head.

She tried her best not to think about complicated things. "I think we've spoken enough about me. How have you been of late, Alita? The last time I saw you, it was obvious that you weren't in the best of moods. But I didn't have the chance to talk to you about it."

In a wink of an eye, Alita's countenance changed. She looked very sad. "You know, I have never been in love, right? I'm afraid there are some things I'm yet to comprehend."

Her reply brought a smile to Celia's face. "Do you have some problems with regards to love?"

"I guess so. There is this matter that has been bothering me for a long time. It is almost affecting my work."

Alita heaved a sigh. "It's about my feelings for Ronald. It bothers me each time I see him with Vida. I'm not sure what this means. But I think it's a little strange... What if I like him?"

Although Celia was surprised, she didn't think it was strange that Alita had fallen in love with Ronald. He was a handsome young man who was in her space every day and

 +120 Points at most

More often than not, she had always thought that at some point, both of them would be together.

When she was about to ask more questions, Tyson appeared at the door of the ward. He was holding a food box.
