

Chapter 67 The Mysterious CEO

Celia was stunned speechless. She didn't expect the old woman to be so blunt. She thought that the woman must have misunderstood Tyson.

She tried to explain, "My husband is not that kind of person. Ma'am, don't misunderstand him."

However, the woman seemed to be too enthusiastic as she continued reminding her earnestly, "Young girl, I hate to say these things to you, but you really have to keep a close eye on your husband. Men nowadays are all very cunning. Don't get fooled by them."

Feeling a bit embarrassed, Celia said patiently, "Thank you for your reminder. But I trust my husband. There's no need to worry."

Knowing that Celia wasn't taking her words seriously, the neighbor heaved a sigh before she turned around and left, leaving Celia with some complicated feelings in her heart.

Although she trusted Tyson very much, she still couldn't help thinking about the luxury car the neighbor was talking about.

Could it be that Wayne dropped by yesterday? The neighbor must have seen him getting in Wayne's car, and misunderstood.

That was the only possibility. After all, Tyson didn't have any other rich friends aside from Wayne.

A taxi arrived soon. Celia got on the taxi and planned to catch up on her sleep on the way. However, she happened to receive a call from Alita at this time.

"Honey, I was so busy yesterday that I wasn't in my right mind. I forgot to ask you about your interview. How was it? Did it go well?"

Alita's voice was full of expectation and excitement. But there was also tiredness in her tone. It was obvious that she worked all night again.

"Yeah, I met Brea during the interview. She is an artist from the Semshy Group. As for how I helped her, let's just say I helped her solve a problem. At last, she offered me a job as her designer, and I accepted it. Even now, I'm on my way to the Semshy Group."

On the other side, Alita's eyes went wide and she exclaimed, "Oh my God! It's awesome! Brea might not be a famous artist, but the Semshy Group is the largest entertainment company in Hosworth. Now that you are a full-time designer in this company, it means that your future is limitless!"

Celia sighed and couldn't help complaining a little, "Then again, I have to work with those artists from now on. I used to hear you say that those stars are arrogant and not usually easy to get along with. I hope my life at work won't be so miserable."

Alita laughed. She didn't forget to encourage her friend as she said, "Don't worry. Just work hard. Anyway, it's better to avoid making trouble. Even though it was Brea who offered you the job, she is famous for her bad temper in the circle. I am just warning you that no one in your company could go so far to bully you except her."

She thought for a while before continuing, "And there's one thing you have to be careful. You must never offend the CEO of this company. I have heard from others that the CEO of the Semshy Group is very mysterious. It's said that he seldom attends parties or even film festivals. He has a weird temper, so his personality seems to be strange. He is very strict and demanding."

Now that she mentioned the CEO, Celia remembered that Tyson had also warned her to avoid the CEO. However, the more people gave her precautions about him, the more she was curious about this mysterious man.

She chuckled and said, "I'm just an ordinary employee. I don't think I will have a chance to meet the CEO anyway. Don't worry."

Still, Alita couldn't help but remind her seriously, "It's always best to stay on the side of caution. Wait, what's his name again? If my memory serves me right, he is called... Hmm... Oh, I remember it now! He is called Nolan Reyes! Anyhow, don't be careless. Remember to stay away from Mr. Reyes anytime."

Hearing the word "Reyes", Celia inexplicably felt that it sounded very familiar. She seemed to have seen it somewhere. Then, she remembered that last time, when she and Tyson dined in the fancy restaurant, he took out a membership card. There seemed to be the word 'Reyes' on it.
