

Chapter 770 Encountering Aubrey

Celia informed Tyson by text that she and Nora were going out for dinner and that he should just return home.

Then she arrived at the fancy restaurant that Nora had selected. Nora had already arrived and was waving at her when she arrived.

As soon as Celia sat down, Nora exclaimed, "The dishes in this restaurant are very good."

With a bright grin on her face, Celia replied, "I'm confident you will select the best dishes. Please order for us?"

Nora nodded and ordered some of the specialty dishes.

Food was soon served. Celia tasted the food that Nora ordered and exclaimed, "It's so delicious! I didn't expect this kind of dish to taste this good."

Nora was pleased and proudly stated, "I am confident in my selection. I'm familiar with Captern. Later on, I'll take you to another restaurant."

Celia nodded. She suddenly recalled something and asked, "By the way, how's your family?"

Nora's smile gradually faded. Even though she tried her hardest to pretend she was okay with anything, she couldn't hide her sadness.

She remarked, "My father has now been discharged from the hospital. He wants me to take over the company so I might not be able to continue modeling in the future."

Celia felt Nora's pain. Nora's lifelong dream was to be a model, and she was now recognized across the world for her work. It was difficult for her to just give up her modeling career like that.

Nora smiled bitterly. "From now on, I can't be willful because I'm the only daughter of my father. My father's health is gradually deteriorating. I have to support the company since I'm his daughter."

When Celia saw how sad her friend was, she wanted to console her, but Nora swiftly shifted her mood and smiled. "Don't worry about me. I'll be a decisive female CEO from now on, and I'll get whatever I want, even men. I have to tell you the truth, I no longer like Tyson."

Celia couldn't help but laugh despite her sympathy for Nora. She took her glass and replied, "Then we'll celebrate you becoming a female CEO."

They had a fantastic time during the meal and even talked about Brea.

Celia needed to use the restroom after dinner. Nora was going to accompany her but Celia stopped her. "You've drunk a lot. Rest here. I'll be back shortly."

Nora had no choice but to obey.

Celia came out of the restroom and immediately reached for her phone to respond to Tyson's text. She was too distracted and ran into someone walking towards her in a corner.

She hit her hand, which was holding the phone against the person, and her phone immediately fell on the floor.

Celia quickly grabbed her phone from the floor and apologized to the person standing in front of her, but she had no idea it was Aubrey.

Aubrey was also shocked to see Celia.

But Aubrey was able to compose herself. When the well-dressed woman holding Aubrey's arm saw Celia, her expression changed drastically out of surprise.

Seeing this, Celia frowned. She noticed that every time she met Aubrey, she would react strangely.

What perplexed Celia even more, was that the woman next to Aubrey looked at her strangely, as if she knew her.

"Mrs. Shaw, why are you in Captern?" Aubrey finally asked Celia.

Celia didn't want to have any interaction with Aubrey, so she replied casually, "For work."

Then she turned around and walked away.

Celia had witnessed how Aubrey and Alicia bullied Nora, therefore she had a negative view of Aubrey.

Staring at Celia's receding figure, Aubrey felt a little flustered because Celia resembled the lost member of the Carter family.

"Who is that lady?" Faye Carter, who was standing next to Aubrey, asked.

Before marrying into the Carter family, Faye had been friends with Jenifer for many years and was familiar with Jenifer's appearance. So she was astonished when she saw how much Celia resembled Jenifer.

Faye wondered how come Celia resembled Jenifer so much. Celia appeared to be Jenifer in her prime when she stood there.
