

Chapter 93 Giving Adrien A Reminder

Judging from Tyson's reaction, Celia thought he had yet to know that their wedding ring was fake. After thinking for a while, she decided not to reveal the truth to him.

She was afraid that Tyson would feel sad if he knew that the Shaw family had fooled them like this. It was obvious that they had no generosity even towards him. Anyway, they wouldn't have any contact with the Shaw family in the future either. So, there was no point feeling unhappy about their bad attitude and perfunctory behaviors.

After putting away the fake ring, Celia caressed the pink diamond ring that Tyson gave her.

Even before knowing its valuable origin, she cherished this ring very much. Now, she cherished it even more.

While Tyson was washing the dishes in the kitchen, she went to the balcony and called Adrien.

Since it was almost the appointed time for her to take back her mother's ring from him, she intended to give a reminder.

The phone rang for a long time before Adrien answered it, and his tone was a little impatient.

"Why are you calling me?"

Celia was used to his indifference all her life, and she didn't care about it anymore. She asked indifferently, "Do you remember our agreement? I'm coming to get my mother's sapphire ring. When are you free?"

Hearing this, Adrien murmured, "Okay." He seemed to be stunned for a while, and the line went silent.

Celia thought he was going to play some tricks, and was about to warn him, when Adrien said in a softer tone, "Don't worry. I'm not someone who will go back on my words. You can come home to get the ring tomorrow."

"Alright, I'll come after work tomorrow."

"No problem." Adrien agreed casually.

When Celia was about to hang up the phone, he asked unexpectedly, "Cece, how are you doing now? Do you still live with Tyson, or by yourself in an apartment as before?"

Celia almost scoffed when she heard this. She didn't want to talk to such a hypocritical person, nor could she stand his feigned concern. She retorted coldly, "It's none of your business."

After that, she directly hung up the phone.

Her resentment towards Adrien had never vanished. The more she thought of how he had cruelly abandoned her, the more she couldn't forgive him.

As soon as she took back her mother's ring, she would immediately cut off the contact with the Kane family.

That was what she had been thinking to do all along. However, when she thought of Flavia's operation fee, she couldn't help but sigh.

She immediately regretted what she did just now. She shouldn't have hung up the phone in such a tough manner, seeing how she would have to ask for help from him tomorrow.

She thought for a while before loosening her mind and sending a message to Adrien.

"I was too harsh just now. I live a good life, thank you for asking."

After a while, Adrien replied with a smiling emoji.

Celia cheered herself up and hoped everything would go well tomorrow.

Then, she called Flavia to ask about her situation.

"Don't worry, Cece. The caregiver has taken good care of me."

Hearing Flavia's voice full of energy, she thought that her health had really improved. She let out a sigh of relief.

Now, Celia felt even more encouraged to ask for help from the Kane family. After she got the money, she could tell Flavia the good news that she could pay the operation fee, and that there was nothing to worry about.

But at this moment, a message came in and her joy was disrupted in a second. The text was from Abbott, saying that he was being threatened by the debt creditors again.

When Celia ignored it, Abbott sent her another message.

"Cece, I beg you. If you don't save me this time, I will really be doomed! Please go to the Kane family to ask for some money and help me for the last time. It's urgent. Please do this for me."

Celia was so irritated that her face darkened in an instant.

At this time, Tyson walked to the balcony and coincidentally saw the irritated expression on her face. He hugged her and asked, "Cece, what's wrong? Who made you angry?"

Celia didn't want him to know that she was upset about Abbott, so she made up an excuse. "Nothing. I'm just too tired. I feel sleepy when I'm full."

Hearing this, Tyson chuckled and bit her ear, mumbling, "I've only heard that humans become full of lust after eating. But in your case, you become sleepy after eating. My wife is really different from others."

Celia's face turned red and she immediately forgot the fact that she was angry. She punched him on the chest and scolded, "How naughty!"

Tyson laughed. "All right, all right. I won't make fun of you anymore."

His face became serious as he said, "But you need to remember this. No matter what happens, I will always be with you, okay?"

As Celia looked at him, her heart felt warm. She calmed down and leaned into his arms, enjoying the warm embrace of this person at the moment.
