Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 111

Chapter 111

Jocelyn's hand froze mid-air.

Yale looked at Jocelyn in shock. "Miss White, are you here to look for President Moore?"

Jocelyn put down her hand rather unnaturally and nodded. "Yes, I'm here to get some documents from President Moore!"

Yale nodded and left the office.

Jocelyn walked into the office. Skyler did not raise his head at all. His head remained lowered as he looked at some documents.

He had told Davis to ask Jocelyn to come over to his office to fetch the documents regarding the Ocean Heart Jewelry Competition, which will be held in Greene City, when she was free. However, he did not expect Jocelyn to come over after everything that he had told her last night.

Jocelyn noticed that Skyler was completely ignoring her. She instantly thought about everything that happened last night.

She pressed her lips together in a self-mocking manner. As expected, she had been way too full of herself previously.

She was so naive to assume that he cared for her a little after everything that they have been through. Nevertheless, she was nothing in Skyler's eyes. He simply decided to help her out since he was in a good mood. She really thought that she was important to him.

Since Skyler would not say anything, Jocelyn took the initiative to speak softly, "President Moore, I'm here to get the documents about the Greene City's Ocean Heart Jewelry Competition!"

Skyler looked extremely calm, but he was actually feeling terribly conflicted.

He looked at Jocelyn without replying to her. Instead, he said, "Congratulations on winning the grand prize in the Dawnlight Jewelry Competition once again!"

Jocelyn remained expressionless. "Thank you. However, it's all thanks to you that I was able to win the grand prize in the Dawnlight Jewelry Competition, President Moore!"

The conversation between both of them was stilted and business-like. It sounded extremely awkward.

Skyler was exasperated. He knew that Jocelyn might not listen to him even if he apologized to her right now.

After all, he had already hurt her with his words last night.

A glint of exasperation flashed across his eyes as he handed the documents over to her. "Here are the documents regarding the competition held in Greene City. I have asked Yale to print everything out. Go through them thoroughly. There's still half a month till the competition. Prepare yourself well!"

Jocelyn nodded. There was a distant expression on her face. "I will!"

Jocelyn grabbed the information, turned around, and walked away. Skyler stood up and called out, "Jocelyn White!"

Jocelyn turned around and looked at him with a cold expression on her face. "President Moore, is there anything else?"

Skyler looked at her and cleared his throat. "Would you like Davis or me to accompany you to the Ocean Heart Jewelry Competition? I'm more familiar with the competition while Davis..."

He made this suggestion as he wanted to have an opportunity to resolve the issue between them both.

uld not resist interrupting him However, before Skyler could finish speaking, Jocelyn could not resist inter

She had been affected by the words that Skyler had told her last night. She rejected his offer icily. "President Moore, I won't trouble you. Director Lang told me that he would come along with me!"

Skyler did not expect to be given the cold shoulder in one day. In all honesty, the words that he had told her last night had hurt her badly.

Although there was an unpleasant expression on his face, he still apologized in a heavy tone." Jocelyn, I was drunk last night. I'm sorry!" Jocelyn's expression stiffened as she said, "There's no need for you to apologize, President Moore. People usually get honest after drinking. I understand your feelings. Don't worry, I won't be so full of myself anymore." After speaking, Jocelyn turned around and left the office. She closed the door for Skyler meticulously as well.

There was a stony expression on Skyler's face. His handsome face darkened.

Although Skyler's attitude had hurt Jocelyn, she was not someone who liked complaining a lot.

However, she did not have the right to beg Skyler to help her. She had to think of a way to handle her own matters.

During lunch in the afternoon.

There was a rare conflicted expression on Lexie's cold face. "I realized that I still can't see Davis much after joining Prosperity Jewelry. Every time I head to the design department, he's always in his office. Jocelyn, tell me. Should I try out for the position of the design department's assistant?"

Jocelyn was still racking her mind to think of a solution. She immediately raised her head after listening to what she said. "Ah!"

Lexie could instantly tell that there was something off with her. "What happened to you? You keep spacing out today afternoon!"

Jocelyn pursed her lips and was about to say something when Lexie immediately interrupted her. "Tell me the truth. Every time you purse your lips with this kind of expression on your face, you're definitely thinking of coming up with something!" Jocelyn was exasperated. Lexie knew her too well. She could either tell her the truth or tell her a lie. However, Lexie would be able to see through her lies at once.

She thought about it for a while and told her the truth.

Lexie's frown deepened. "So, what do you intend to do?" Jocelyn glanced at her and said in a low voice, "I don't have to think about asking Skyler for help. He'll never let Lily join Prosperity Jewelry. However, if I fail to do so, my father will burn my mother's letter. Therefore, I plan to steal the letter before the deadline he mentioned. Then, he won't be able to threaten me anymore!"

Chapter 112

Chapter 112

Lexie glanced at Jocelyn and thought that her idea was not a bad one.

Then, she calmly asked, "When are you planning to go, and do you roughly know where it is? What do you plan to do if you run into a locked safe? Have you considered these problems?"

Jocelyn was a bit stunned since he just had that thought but have not thought it through yet.

She felt that she had lived in the White Mansion for long enough that as long as she used an excuse to go back and grab something, the servants would not notice. She intended to sneak into Michael's study when he was not home to grab the envelope.

However, after listening to Lexie, she suddenly realized that there was a good chance that Michael had placed the envelope in a safe.

Lexie saw her expression and knew that she had not thought the plan through and only had an idea of it.

She said calmly, "I knew you were hopeless. We've got no choice but to go with the last resort. I can help you open the safe but before we go, we must properly plan!"

Jocelyn grabbed Lexie's hand. "Thank you for helping me instead of stopping me." "I know how important your mother's things are to you," Lexie replied calmly. Jocelyn looked at her and was so touched to have a best friend that understood her so well.

Nothing would be gained if they did not venture out. Rather than being helplessly threatened by Michael, it was better to take the first step.

After work, Jocelyn and Lexie got something to eat before driving to the White Mansion.

In fear of being discovered by Michael, they drove Lexie's car. Jocelyn parked the car in the parking space opposite the White Mansion and watched as Michael and Yennis left.

The two of them got out of the car.

Lexie was rather curious. "How did you know that they're all going out tonight?"

Jocelyn rolled her eyes at her. "How would I not know if I've lived here for so long? Every Friday at six o'clock, there's hardly anyone in the mansion! They would go attend some banquet for their social networking!"

At this point, Jocelyn was smirking. "Not only that but when they're all out, they don't allow any servants at the house either because they're afraid that the servants will be up to no good!"

Lexie raised her eyebrows but did not say anything. Jocelyn was glad that she did not throw away the White Mansion's key.

The two of them entered and quickly went upstairs.

Jocelyn sprinted towards the study. Lexie went straight to the safe as soon as she entered while Jocelyn went to rummage through the bookshelves. She had already looked through half of the bookshelf, but Lexie was standing still. Jocelyn could not help but feel a bit worried. "Lexie, can you unlock it?" Lexie had her head lowered as her fingers kept moving. She calmly said without even lifting her head to look at Jocelyn. "I can. Judging by the size of the keypad of the safe and the range of errors that are allowed in this design, it greatly reduces the possible combinations of passwords. Then, using the program I made on my laptop, I can reduce the possible combinations from millions to thousands while using a blocking program to stop the sirens from sounding. I can crack the password quite quickly, like around thirty minutes to open it, so don't worry!" Jocelyn had no idea what Lexie was saying but she trusted her ability in this aspect. Jocelyn quickened her search too and rummaged through the whole bookshelf. She went through every single book but did not find any sign of the envelope. She had even forced open the drawer beside Michael's desk but there was still nothing. Jocelyn was a bit disappointed after searching for so long. At that moment, Lexie suddenly shouted from the other end, "I got it!" There was a trace of joy in the voice when listened closely. Jocelyn quickly walked over and opened Michael's safe with a look of surprise. Inside the safe, other than some contracts and important documents, there were also a few stacks of cash. On the highest shelf, there was an envelope addressed to her. Jocelyn immediately took the envelope and sighed a breath of relief. "We finally found it!" Lexie sighed in relief too since their efforts were not wasted!

Lexie stood up, packed, and prepared to leave. Jocelyn said, "Lexie, wait!" She shoved the envelope into her pocket and quickly took Michael's documents and contracts to take pictures of them with her phone. Lexie stood quietly beside her and did not interfere. After all, Michael did everything he could to threaten Jocelyn so she should have something of his in her hands. Otherwise, she would be threatened by him endlessly. Jocelyn heard the clear sound of the door opening downstairs just as she opened a new document.

She froze entirely.

Chapter 113

Lexie frowned. "Someone's back!" Jocelyn's expression shifted and she immediately closed the document. "Lexie, let's go!" "He's coming up now! We'll run into him if we go out!" Jocelyn looked around. "We can't hide in the study or we'll be found out quickly. Let's..." Her gaze fell on the window next to the study. "Let's go through the window! Quick, you go first!"

Lexie glanced at Jocelyn and did not refuse as she quickly opened the window and climbed down the water pipe.

Jocelyn walked to the door of the study and locked it from the inside before quickly going to the window.

Lexie was halfway down and sighed when she saw Jocelyn climb out of the window

The two girls had never done such a dangerous thing before. Lexie struggled to finally climb down the water pipe and not only did she cut her hand but her arms were slightly shaking too.

Jocelyn just climbed onto the water pipe when she heard someone kicking the door of the study.

She guessed that it was definitely Michael who had returned since no one else would head straight to the study.

Just as she was thinking about it, she suddenly heard someone smashing the lock of the study door with a heavy object.

With a heavy blow of a “bang”, Jocelyn panicked as she thought that the person was going to force open the lock

As a result, her hand did not grab on properly and she ended up falling from the water piper when she was in between the first and second floor. Even though the height was not too high, Jocelyn was completely unprepared and twisted her ankle.

Lexie’s calm expression drastically changed and she whispered, “Jocelyn, are you okay?” Jocelyn shook her head slightly. “Let’s leave from the back door. Hurry or he’ll find out when he enters the study!”

Lexie nodded and turned to squat down. “I’ll carry you! Hurry!”

Jocelyn was not greedy as she just wanted to leave the White Mansion with Michael’s things in her hands.

Lexie struggled to carry Jocelyn on her back and the two of them quickly left through the back door.

When they were finally in the car, Lexie quickly started it and Jocelyn breathed a sigh of relief. Not long after the car was on the road, Jocelyn’s phone rang before she could read the letter.

Lexie peeked at her from the side and asked in a cold voice, “Who is it?” Jocelyn’s face tensed up. “It’s my father!” “Pick up!”

Jocelyn picked up the call and spoke nonchalantly.

Michael’s voice came from the other end with a sharp tone. “Jocelyn, the person in my study earlier was you, right?!”

Lexie glanced at Jocelyn and shook her head. Jocelyn was also afraid that Michael was setting her up so she kept quiet. Michael continued to speak, “Do you think this matter is over if you keep quiet? Jocelyn, it’s not like you’re not aware that I have cameras in my study!”

Jocelyn’s expression changed slightly. Michael was currently watching the surveillance tapes in his study.

He almost reached the venue where that night’s banquet was held but suddenly felt uneasy so he turned back home.

He did not expect that his gut feeling would be so accurate.

His eyes flickered when he saw the two people on the surveillance tapes.

Jocelyn remained silent.

He snorted coldly and said, "Jocelyn, I know you don't believe me and you think that I'm tricking you. Don't worry, I don't have to trick you to know who you entered my study with. You better speak up or I'll call the police and tell them that someone broke into my study and stole some confidential documents.

"You're my daughter so it wouldn't be considered stealing if you took something from your own home. However, as for your best friend Lexie, I didn't give her permission to enter my home or open my safe. The surveillance cameras recorded everything clearly so I'm afraid that this won't go easy for her!"

Jocelyn's expression drastically changed. "This matter has nothing to do with Lexie, it was all my idea!"

Michael sneered. "I don't care whose idea it was, I only know that the person I want to report is Lexie. You should understand what I mean, Jocelyn!"

Jocelyn's face tensed and her brows were furrowed. Lexie was only helping her so she could not let Lexie get involved. She inhaled deeply. "Don't you think that you can't get Lily into Prosperity now that you don't have my mother's letter to threaten me? I promise you, regardless of whether or not that letter exists, I would still help you with it!" In order to not involve Lexie, she had to go beg Skyler. She would think of other ways if that did not work as long as Lexie was not involved. Michael disagreed. "Jocelyn, you're too naïve. You probably haven't read the letter yet so I'll tell you the truth. I removed the letter from the envelope. Do you really think that I'll let you take that letter so easily?"

Lexie slammed on the brakes when she heard it and frowned at Jocelyn.

Jocelyn's expression changed and threw the phone onto the dashboard to quickly take the envelope out of her pocket.

At that moment, she realized that the envelope was empty and the letter was not inside!

Jocelyn's expression was extremely foul.

Michael was still talking to himself. "Speaking of which, I need to thank you. Yesterday, I took the letter out to take a picture for you to rush you and I didn't put it back in the envelope. Now that I think about it, luckily, I didn't put it back, or else it would have been stolen by you.

Today I finally learned that thieves are difficult to guard against.” Jocelyn did not expect that such a coincidence would waste her efforts and cause her to steal an empty envelope! Listening to Michael’s snarky tone and arrogant attitude, she resisted her anger. “That’s enough, what do you want?” “Three days!” Michael’s voice was insistent. “Lily must join Prosperity Jewelry in three days or else I’m sending Lexie to jail and burning the letter your mother left for you!”

Chapter 114

Chapter 114

“You’re despicable!” Jocelyn was furious at Michael.

She did not understand how someone she had admired since she was a child could turn into someone so hateful.

It was said that a daughter is the lover of her father’s previous life but in this case, she must have been his enemy!

She really did not understand why Michael would treat her like this!

Michael said indifferently, “Despicable or not does not matter as long as I get to my goal. Jocelyn, my patience is limited!”

Jocelyn was angry and sad to the point where Lexie could see her eyes redden.

She could not hold back her anger as her tone was cold and vicious. “Mr. White, are you still human? Jocelyn is your daughter!”

Michael frowned. “Who are you?”

Lexie was furious. “Didn’t you just say you wanted to sue me? How can you not know who I am? I’m telling you, don’t go too far and don’t underestimate the weak. It’s just a letter so do you really think that you can control Jocelyn for life?”

“As for sending me to jail, pfft! If you have the guts then go sue me with the surveillance tapes now. If you don’t throw me in jail today then I’ll kill you another day!” Lexie’s voice was cold and sharp which caused Michael to feel a chill down his spine.

He felt a bit frightened. “I’m not talking to you, hand the phone to Jocelyn. Jocelyn, if this thing happens again, then I won’t hold back! Don’t even think about seeing this letter in this lifetime!”

He quickly hung up when he was done speaking,

Lexie’s hacking skills were world-class, so no one dared to offend her.

This was the first time she saw someone as shameless, despicable, and insane as Michael!

Lexie held the phone with an indescribable expression while Jocelyn still looked a little confused.

Lexie calmed down and looked at her. “Jocelyn... I’m sorry that I was irrational but I could not take him threatening you any longer!” Due to her irrationality, she might have triggered Michael to burn to the letter... After all, the letter Michael had was very important to Jocelyn.

Jocelyn gently shook her head. “It’s fine, what you did was right. You can’t be too polite to him otherwise he’ll really use it to threaten me for the rest of my life! If he really decided to burn the letter, then I’ll be free!”

“However, if I understand him well, he wouldn’t easily get rid of something that can control me. Don’t worry about this since I’m not worried. I’m just afraid that he’ll do something to you since he has the surveillance tapes. If he really sues you...”

Lexie tried her best to help her and she could not let anything happen to Lexie! Lexie’s eyes flicked and she grabbed her laptop from the backseat. She turned it on and connected to the car’s network as she asked Jocelyn, “When was the computer in your father’s study installed?”

Jocelyn replied with an estimated time.

Lexie’s hands quickly tapped on the keyboard.

Jocelyn asked, “What are you doing?” Lexie acted quickly and calmly said, “According to the estimated time where he installed his computer and the information on the internet, I can find out his computer’s model. Then, I can hack directly into his computer and wipe the surveillance tapes from it. He probably hasn’t downloaded the tapes to an external device. Without any backup, he doesn’t have any evidence to sue me! Don’t get threatened by him because of me!”

Her fingers stopped when she was done speaking.

She glanced at Jocelyn and had a slight smirk. "I'm done! Technology isn't advanced enough and not many people can track me! Don't worry about it!" Jocelyn looked at Lexie and sincerely said, "Xixi, you're amazing!" Lexie didn't have a smile on her face but her words made people laugh. "Your friends ought to be amazing!"

Tea

When Lexie was done talking, she started the car. "Let's go, I'll take you to the hospital!"

Maybe it was because of today's exciting events, Jocelyn was no longer as annoyed at Michael's words.

She thought about how Lexie was complaining earlier in the afternoon that she would not be able to see Davis in Prosperity.

She teased Lexie. "Xixi, honestly, if you get caught, I'll get Davis to bail you out!"

Lexie was stunned and coldly said with a slightly curious tone, "Really? Then I'll miss the chance to see Davis!"

Jocelyn could hear that her mood was good. She took out her phone and gave Davis a call. "Hang on, I'll make sure he'll see you today!" When the call connected, Jocelyn's voice became dramatic. "Davis!" Davis had not gotten off work and was talking to Skylar when he was called upstairs. His phone was placed on the sofa when Skyler saw Jocelyn's name and motioned for him to pick it up. After hearing Jocelyn's voice, he immediately frowned. "What's wrong? Did something happen?"

Jocelyn said in a serious tone, "Davis, it's like this. Something happened to Lexie and me, and now we're at the hospital. Neither of us brought our cards and we don't have enough cash on us to pay the hospital bill. Can you come by and help us settle it?" Davis thought that they were seriously injured when he heard that since Jocelyn did not ask him to transfer money but rather asked him to go to the hospital himself.

ILI

It was as if she was saying their injuries were not light and had no one to take care of them or as if someone had tricked them and needed his help. Davis immediately responded, "Which hospital? Wait for me, I'm coming right away!"

Jocelyn replied, "It's the one Lexie stayed at last time, Claude Hospital!"

Davis hung up and looked at Skyler with a serious expression.

Before he could say anything, Skyler frowned at him and asked with a deep voice, "Is it Jocelyn? What happened to her?"

Skyler's expression was vastly different than before as if he was worried. Davis said honestly, "I didn't ask for details but she said that something happened to them and they're currently in the hospital. I'm going there right now!" Skyler stood up with a tense expression. "I'll go with you!" Davis hesitated as he thought about how Lexie and Jocelyn were Prosperity's employees and nodded. "Okay!"

Lexie has always been a proud and cold person. However, after meeting Davis, she has not been as cold as before. She was a bit distracted. "Jocelyn, Davis can tell that you're tricking him if you say it like that. Plus, even if we didn't bring our cards, they'll still be connected to our phones!" Jocelyn angrily said when she saw her being so uneasy, "You're so dumb, stop worrying. Once Davis hears that we're in the hospital, he's going to come immediately and why would he think about something like that?!" Lexie was rather suspicious. "Are you sure?" Jocelyn glanced at her. "You should take more initiative. Davis wouldn't know your feelings if you keep being so silent!" Lexie had liked Davis for six years and tried looking for him for three years. Now that she found him, Lexie did not dare to express herself.

Lexie's character was cold. Other than Jocelyn who understood her, no one else could tell how she felt about Davis.

Jocelyn knew that ever since Lexie came to the information design department, she would be the first one present and bring breakfast for Davis every morning,

Then, she would leave it on the front desk with it marked with Davis's name.

Until now, Davis does not know that the breakfasts he ate were made by Lexie. Lexie's mouth quivered and her high spirits from when she was typing on the keyboard were gone.

She whispered, "I don't... don't know how to take the initiative. I thought that coming to Prosperity was obvious enough!"

Jocelyn glanced at her. "Are you sure? Don't forget that I'm at Prosperity Jewelry too and everyone thought that you're here because of me, including Davis!" Lexie did not say another word. She was quiet until the car was parked in the hospital's parking garage before she said, "I've liked him for too long, and sometimes I'm afraid that he knows that I like him, yet I'm also afraid that he doesn't. If he knew and doesn't like me back, then what should I do? If he doesn't know then I've suppressed these feelings for so many years and sometimes I feel like I'm sinking..." Jocelyn's heart ached as she reached her hand out to ruffle her hair. "You're a great person and he will like you!"

Lexie pouted. "Hopefully!"

The two of them got out of the car and Lexie supported Jocelyn as the two of them went to tend to their injuries. They also took an X-ray to check if there were any bones broken.

After the x-ray, Jocelyn was sitting on the bed where she got examined by the doctor when Zayn rushed in. Jocelyn was taken aback "Director Claude!" Zayn had a worried look "Jocelyn, are you okay?" Jocelyn shook her head. "I'm fine, just sprained my ankle, and Lexie was worried so she brought me here to get it checked out!" Zayn furrowed his eyebrows. "What about the injury on your arm?" Jocelyn was a bit embarrassed. "I scraped it against the wall." Lexie said, "Jocelyn, I'll wait outside so you and Director Claude can talk." Jocelyn nodded. Zayn motioned for the doctor who examined Jocelyn to leave too. He then looked at Jocelyn and slightly frowned. "Can you walk?" Jocelyn looked at her ankle which was as swollen as a bun and said uncertainly, "I think.. I can!"

Zayn felt a little helpless. "You should be careful to prevent any long-lasting injury. I've been trying to look for you this whole time to apologize but never found a chance to!"

Jocelyn was shocked. "Why do you need to apologize?" Zayn looked at her. "I know that that night during the banquet my family held, you drank the bad alcohol. I invited you to the banquet and yet something like that happened. It was my mistake and I'm very sorry!" Jocelyn quickly shook her head when she saw Zayn's apologetic face. "It's okay, don't worry about it, it's in the past! Plus, nothing really happened to me." "You..." Zayn looked at her hesitantly. Jocelyn knew what he was going to ask so she quickly explained. "I got to the hospital in time for treatment, took the medicine, and got through it without any damage!" Zayn finally sighed. "That's good, I don't know how to make it up to you!" Jocelyn replied, "Don't worry about it, it's in the past!" Zayn looked at her and hesitatingly said, "There's something that I don't know whether or not I should tell you."

Jocelyn raised her eyebrows. "What is it?"

Zayn pondered and decided to tell her to let her be mentally prepared. “Keep your guard up against Lily. Even though she lost the plagiarism lawsuit against you, based on my intuition, she won’t let this go lightly.”

Jocelyn’s eyes flashed. “Director Claude, did... did you hear about something?”

Chapter 116

Chapter 116

Zayn said up till this point, he had no intention of keeping anything from her. “You weren’t the only one who drank that thing that night, many others did too. That time, Lynn also...” Jocelyn had known this for a long time. She made no comments and listened quietly.

Zayn continued, “Alas, she had been unlucky. She had been feeling ill at the time and went to rest in our guest room. Chad ended up mistaking her when he came to pick Yvonne up...”

Jocelyn was shocked. She really had not known about it!

Zayn was somewhat helpless as he said, “I knew it the next day. My mother knew something was off with Lynn and wanted me to stay with her. So, she had her stay in my guest room and got me to deliver some soup to Lynn. But I didn’t know anything, I had Chad help me make the delivery and Lynn mistook him for me!”

Jocelyn knew that Lynn liked Zayn, but she never thought that Lynn would sleep with Chad while mistaking him for Zayn. She really just... went out for wool and came home shorn! Jocelyn had no interest in prying into others’ private affairs. She blinked. “What does this have to do with Lily?”

Zayn answered truthfully, “Lynn is pregnant. You also know that you will be able to find this out in seven days. Also, too many people know about this and for Lynn’s reputation sake, the Quirrel family has deliberately asked Chad to marry her! But Chad has someone else he wants to marry!” Zayn looked at Jocelyn as he said this. What Michael said before flashed suddenly through Jocelyn’s mind, ‘Lily is getting married. If you help her get into Prosperity Jewelry, you can just take that as a wedding gift for her.' She opened her mouth, still a little confused. "Are you trying to say that... Chad wants to marry Lily?"

Jocelyn never thought that Lily would now want to marry Chad after Michael had planned it so that she could not marry him previously. Zayn nodded helplessly. "That is the case. Since whatever happened with Lynn happened under our roof, we have to come up with something to tell them even if we are no longer becoming relatives with the Quirrel family. So I investigated Chad and found out that Lily and Chad had both been hooking up with each other for a long time. Lily probably was just trying to use Chad at first!"

Zayn glanced at Jocelyn. "I only found out in the last two days that it was Chad who sent those people when you saved me in that alley back then. When he got involved with Lily, he promised her that he would teach me a lesson on her behalf. However, God knows what happened but Chad actually ended up falling for Lily and wants to marry her!"

Jocelyn was utterly shocked. So, it had been Lily who got Chad to get back at Zayn.

Her face filled with anger. "She is deranged. You are trying to help as if you're her parent. Just tell the truth. How can she..."

Zayn smiled, he did not really care about this matter.

He said, "Chad wants to marry Lily but in the end, he ruined Lynn that night. Going with reason, the Quirrel family is more powerful than the White family. Chad's marriage to Lynn would be better than Lily but I heard that the White family seems to be connected with Skyler. I heard Prosperity Jewelry sued Lily, yet Lily can still join Prosperity Jewelry!" Jocelyn's brows raised. So that was the case! She had wondered why Michael kept urging her to find a way to let Lily into Prosperity. This was the crux of the matter!

Zayn did not notice Jocelyn acting unusually and continued, "If Lily can still join Prosperity under such circumstances, it means that their relationship is really solid. Therefore, since the Quirrel family had asked Chad to give Lynn an explanation, the Jones are still waiting.

"They are really treating Chad's marriage as if they were going shopping. They want to find someone who can maximize their interests with! I also wonder how the Whites were able to get in touch with Prosperity. Supposedly, there are no other White family members in Prosperity Jewelry apart from you!" Jocelyn was a little embarrassed. Zayn did not know of her relationship with Skyler, but the White family all knew that they must have promised something to the Jones only then did they dare to refuse the Quirrel family

Jocelyn could even imagine that Michael had lied to Lily when he told her that he wanted Lily to enter Prosperity Jewelry and that he would give her his mother's letter.

It was likely that after Chad and Lily had gotten married, Michael would still want to rely on her and gain the Quirrel family a foothold in Prosperity Jewelry! She pursed her lips. She had forgotten that she had hurt her leg and unconsciously tried to stand. "Director Claude, actually..." Just as she said those few words, she gasped at the sudden pain before sitting back down on the bed to take a breath.

Zayn quickly bent down and looked at her ankle carefully. He applied the medicine on her skillfully. "I'll apply some medicine on you so it won't hurt so much!" As he applied the medicine, he began to ask worriedly, "Are you all right? How did your ankle end up like this?" Outside the door, the moment Skyler came up to the door, he saw Zayn holding Jocelyn's ankle while carefully applying medicine on her

He and Davis had met Lexie downstairs just now and Lexie had told Davis about their injuries. He asked where Jocelyn was and had found her but he did not expect to witness such a scene.

Zayn was a doctor. According to reason, this scene should be normal.

Skyler however, found that it irritated his eyes. He was just about to enter when he heard Jocelyn say, "This injury, it actually has a little to do with the incident I shared with you just now!"

Skyler was stunned and retracted a step.

He would bet that if he were to enter this moment, Jocelyn definitely would not tell the truth. He stood at the door quietly and listened in.

Chapter 117

Zayn was surprised. "How could your injury have anything to do with this?" Jocelyn sighed helplessly. "You know that none of the White family have anything to do with Prosperity Jewelry except me. But Lily wants to marry Chad so she can only look to me for a solution. My father threatened me with a letter my mother left me to make me beg Skyler to let Lily into Prosperity Jewelry!”

Jocelyn looked a little frazzled. “I really had no other choice. It’s likely the Jones family is hesitating, they don’t know which family to marry Chad into. My father has been urging me to ask Skyler for help and he has been very persistent. Moreover, with how Skyler is, how could he let Lily, a person with a bad reputation, join the company? I figured I couldn’t ask him. I really have no choice but to choose the awful decision of going back to the White Mansion to steal the letter!”

Zayn frowned fiercely. “So, you hurt your ankle when you went back to the White Mansion to get them?”

Jocelyn nodded. “My father returned the moment I got my hand on the things. I had brought Lexie with me at that time and I didn’t want my father to see her and end up getting her into trouble. We both came down from the second floor through the window. I was halfway over the window and was already panicking when the sound of my father unlocking the lock startled me. I fell down and sprained my foot!”

Zayn looked at her, there was some hurt in his eyes. “Did you manage to get your letter?” Speaking of this, Jocelyn was a little disappointed. “Nope! I got an empty envelope, my father had taken away the contents!” Zayn was even more distressed. Who would have thought that with Jocelyn’s injury, her efforts had still been in vain? He was about to comfort Jocelyn when his cell phone rang. When he saw that it was Lynn calling, darkness flashed across his eyes. Although he sympathized with Lynn’s situation, he was disgusted at the thought that he was the one who Lynn had initially been scheming around. His gaze darkened as he answered the call and the expression on his jade-like face did not look like something human. Lynn’s voice sounded like she was crying. “Zayn, I’m going to marry Chad. I won’t bother you anymore after this. You can rest assured that I will no longer pester you!”

Zayn frowned. “Did something happen?”

Lynn was sorrowful “I’m pregnant. I’m going to get my marriage license with Chad tomorrow! I want to see you. Where are you?”

Zayn’s expression changed slightly. “You’re pregnant?” Lynn laughed at herself and began to cry. “Yes, I’m pregnant. Now the entire Mauve City knows about Chad and me. He is a nuisance, yet my parents want me to marry him!” Zayn pursed his lips. “This is your own issue!” Lynn sobbed sadly. “Zayn, you are so heartless!” Zayn said nothing. Lynn was so heartbroken she could die. She had liked this person for so long yet things ended up like this. Lynn said through tears, “Zayn, I wish to see you for the last time, can I?” A light flashed through Zayn’s eyes. He answered, "I'm at the hospital!" "Then, I'll come to look for you now!" Lynn answered quickly. Zayn hung up the call.

He knew that Lynn would definitely come over.

He turned around and looked at Jocelyn. "Jocelyn, things have changed!" Jocelyn looked at him with surprise. Zayn answered her questions. "Lynn is pregnant. The Quirrel family has asked Chad to take responsibility. They will be getting their marriage license tomorrow. As long as the marriage between Chad and Lily goes through, your father should not pressure you too much. Although this won't solve the problem at its root, it will somehow delay it!" Jocelyn did not expect such a turning point. She pursed her lips and asked after a long pause, "She's pregnant so soon?" Hearing this, Zayn chuckled. "We can find out in a week or so!" Jocelyn was embarrassed. "Thank you anyway!" Zayn smiled and shook his head. "You're welcome. You saved me before. It's nothing!"

"But it was Lily who caused your injury! Moreover, Lily retaliated against you because you helped me online! At the end of the day, it was still my fault!" Jocelyn was very embarrassed when she thought of this. "You're not the same as her!" Zayn looked at Jocelyn with a smile in his eyes. Outside the door, Skyler's gaze was dark. He looked at Zayn through the crack of the door, his lips curved upward sarcastically. Could this actually solve the problem at its roots? His gaze fell on Jocelyn's swollen ankle, there was a trace of heartache in his heart that he could not even notice.

Thinking of what Jocelyn had just said, Skyler suddenly came to a realization, no wonder Yale had not been able to find out anything about what happened to Jocelyn after he had gotten him to investigate her the entire day. Michael had been threatening her with something.

His gaze sank. He recalled that he had warned Michael not to lay a finger on Jocelyn again or he would no longer be courteous!

Unexpectedly, Michael turned a deaf ear to his words. In that case, he would not hold back

His phone vibrated then. Yale was calling. Skyler did not want Jocelyn to know that he was here and hurriedly grabbed his phone and walked away.

Expression dark, he answered the call. "What is it?"

Yale's voice was tense. "President Moore, we caught them!"

Skyler's eyes flickered slightly. "The one who caused everything at the Claude family dinner?"

Yale nodded. "He used a fake name when he snuck into Claude Mansion. Our people looked into his identity and tracked him all the way abroad. He thought that the dust had settled since several days had passed so he used his mobile phone and bank card. Our people immediately captured him and sent him back to the country. They just got off the plane! Look..." Skyler went quiet for a moment. "Have him brought to Aster Gardens!" Skyler hung up the call. He glanced at Jocelyn's room then turned away. Lynn arrived at the hospital not long after Skyler left. After Zayn left, Lexie and Davis came to the ward. When she noticed that the ward was empty, she could not help frowning. "Where is Director Claude?" Jocelyn said, "He has other things to attend to. How can he stay here the entire time?" Lexie wondered. "What about Skyler? Where did he go?" Jocelyn's expression changed slightly. "He came?" Lexie nodded. "Yes, I saw him arrive with Senior Davis when I was downstairs. He even asked me where you were!"

Jocelyn frowned. "But I didn't see him!" she suddenly felt a little uneasy. Skyler had asked where she was, yet did not appear. Why did he leave so suddenly? Davis responded timely, "He might have had to leave temporarily because of something urgent!" Jocelyn nodded absently. "Perhaps so!" Lexie asked her, "Jocelyn, when are you leaving? I've grabbed all the medicines the doctor prescribed for you. Let me and Senior Davis bring you home!" Jocelyn pursed her lips. "Let's wait a little more, Director Claude asked me to wait for a bit. We can leave after he comes back!"

Just then, Davis's mobile phone rang.

"I'll head out to answer the call!" he said.

The moment Davis went out, Jocelyn immediately said to Lexie, "Don't tell me you told him how we got hurt!"

Lexie shook her head. "I didn't say anything. I gave some vague answers when he asked. He noticed that I didn't want to say anything and didn't ask me again!"

Jocelyn looked at her bitterly. "I had you go off to spend more time with Davis, why did you come back? My mind was spinning the moment you two came in!" Lexie was somewhat embarrassed. "He suggested to come see you and I couldn't possibly say no!"

Jocelyn looked at her annoyed. "The consequence of you not refusing is me ending up the third wheel! Forget it, you're a fool who only knows how to make your moves in secret yet chicken out on saying anything when he's right in front of you!" Lexie bowed her head, listless, and said nothing. Davis received a call from Skyler telling him that he had an urgent matter to attend to and requested that he informed Jocelyn so. Skyler was not stupid. He knew that he could not hide the fact that he came to visit Jocelyn at the hospital after he had met Lexie, so he informed Davis as such.

Davis returned to the ward and explained to Jocelyn and Lexie. The three sat in the ward chatting about the time back when they were studying. At the same time, Lynn was sitting in the director's office while looking at Zayn with red eyes. "I heard from the nurse that you were with Jocelyn just now?" When Lynn heard this news back then, she felt unreconciled. However, when she thought of her current reputation and how the Claude family would not allow her through their doors again, she was even sadder.

Zayn frowned. "Jocelyn is hurt so I went to see her. Was there something you were looking for me for?"

Lynn's expression was bitter and upset. She bit her lip and held back the tears in her eyes. "Zayn, you don't have to be so impatient. I'll be marrying Chad soon so I won't hold you up too long anymore!"

Zayn was silent

Lynn reached up and rubbed her eyes sadly while continuing to look at him. "By now, I just want to understand if you'd been reluctant to marry me because of Jocelyn?"

Zayn looked at her with an ugly expression. "You think too much. What does this have to do with Jocelyn?"

"Then, why are you so nice to her?" Lynn could not hold herself back anymore and her voice was hysterical.

Zayn frowned even more fiercely. "Alright then, since you're asking me for an explanation, I'll give you one. I don't want to marry you. I just don't want to marry someone I don't like. It has nothing to do with Jocelyn. The reason why I treat her well is simply because I had been attacked some time ago and she saved me, so I appreciate her. That's all!" Lynn was insatiable. "Were you so protective of her at the party just because you appreciated her?"

Zayn looked at Lynn and a touch of impatience flashed across his eyes. "She is my friend and I invited her to my mother's birthday banquet, shouldn't I stand up for her? Also, Lynn, use your brain a little why don't you? Yvonne was the first to see Jocelyn at the dinner party and had deliberately provoked her! Don't just listen to Yvonne's one-sided words and target Jocelyn!

"I don't know how you came to the conclusion that Jocelyn is the reason I won't marry you, but I must make this clear to you, don't believe Yvonne's words. I had seen her pester Skyler repeatedly with the excuse of wanting to see Jim when he was hospitalized in Claude Hospital. She had never liked Jocelyn and Jocelyn is skilled. Skyler favors her and she targets Jocelyn all the time. Don't be so clueless to not know when you've been used by someone!"

Hearing this, Lynn stood up from the sofa. "You mean to say Yvonne used me! What she said about you fancying Jocelyn was a lie? And this was because she likes Skyler, but since Skyler appreciates Jocelyn's talents, she regards Jocelyn as an imaginary enemy Yet, instead of taking action herself, she used me to go against Jocelyn?" Lynn knew that Yvonne liked Skyler However, she had not thought of the possibility that Yvonne would use her. Seeing Lynn's expression of anger and disbelief, Zayn felt some sympathy "What else? It's not a shameful thing is i like Jocelyn either and it would not be something I need to hide from you, but she's just my friend now. Can you understand?" Lynn felt as if she had suffered a significant blow and teelered. She muttered to herself, "I... understand now!"

She suddenly looked up at Zayn There was a bit of hatred in her voice that Zayn could not understand. She said, "Yvonne lied to me!"

If it had not been for Yvonne, she would not have wanted to go against Jocelyn, she would not have gotten someone to tamper with the wine, and she would not have committed herself to scum like Chad

Her eyes were red at the thought!

Zayn was helpless “Don’t act rashly even if you know now given the way things have developed for the sake of our childhood acquaintanceship, I still want to remind you that you are going to marry Chad Yvonne is Chad’s cousin. You still can’t have a fallout with her, or you will be excluded from the Jones family!

“What’s more, Jim is backing Yvonne 11 Jim takes the lead on her behalf, you offending Yvonne would be equivalent to you offending Jim. With how many families are involved in these complex networks, I hope you can understand and not cause trouble for your family!” Lynn’s tears fell at once

She was angry, wronged, and sorrowful yet Zayn was still willing to think of her at this stage. Even if it was not love, she would accept it! She stood up awkwardly and wiped her tears. “Thank you, Zayn I won’t act recklessly!” With that, Lynn turned and left. Zayn raised his voice. “Lynn!” Back facing him and her voice riddled with tears, she asked, “Is there anything else?” “When will you and Chad sign the marriage license?” Zayn could not ask about this matter that was related to Jocelyn.. Lynn gritted her teeth and suppressed the tears in her voice. “Tomorrow!”

Saying that, she quickly turned and walked out. Zayn looked at her back and shook his head helplessly, hoping that this issue would come to an end At the same time, Aster Gardens. Yale had not brought the individual here yet Skyler was standing in the garden with a pair of scissors as he slowly pruned the roses Just then, Yale entered with two bodyguards.

The bodyguards dragged a thin man toward Skyler

Skyler seemed as if he had not noticed anything as he continued to mind himself pruning the flowers. Yale came over and said, “President Moore, we’ve brought him!” Skyler turned around and saw the man that the bodyguards had dragged in. His voice betrayed no emotion. “Throw him to the ground!” Yale was a little surprised. He thought that Skyler would have had his men interrogate him! After all, Skyler had not personally done it for several years!

The bodyguards loosened their grip, and the thin man splayed on the ground like a mud puddle. He immediately looked down, crawling around on the ground. It was obvious that he had been severely beaten before being brought here. Skyler stooped down and looked at the person on the ground. “What’s your name?” The man was disoriented “Ce...zar...”

Skyler’s smile did not reach his eyes and his voice was cold “Is that so? Who had you tamper with the alcohol at Mrs Claude’s birthday banquet?”

Cezar crawled on the ground without saying a word. Skyler smiled and it made one feel like a poisonous snake was crawling all over them. He said, “It seems that you found that person more terrible than I am, yes?" Cezar still said nothing Skyler picked up the pruning scissors in his hand, flipped them lightly, and thought, "In this case, there is no need for me to be courteous to you!"

Saying this, he immediately pulled Cezar's finger up and cut it off with the pruning scissors without hesitation.

Cezar instantly screamed.

Skyler looked as if he heard nothing, his expression was as if he was simply pruning roses in his yard.

He placed the scissors on the ground in front of Cezar. He got up, took out a handkerchief from his suit pocket, and wiped his hands slowly before throwing it at Cezar's face.

There was already a pool of blood on the ground. Yale and the two bodyguards dared not say anything President Moore did not usually get his hands dirty but when he did, it was terrifying! Skyler's expression did not change. His voice was still indifferent, like a noble young master as he looked at Cezar from a commanding position "Still not going to talk?" When Cezar heard this, his entire body shook violently. This man was a devil. He had not known who his captors were when he had been caught and he did not think that Lynn would abandon him!

At present, it was obvious that he was wrong and that he might not be getting out of here alive.

Malicious hatred slashed across his eyes. He suddenly grabbed the scissors on the ground, and with burning determination, he suddenly bounced up from the ground, and frantically stabbed at Skyler

Who would have thought that Skyler's reaction would be faster than that of his bodyguards? He avoided the pruning scissors and immediately with a kick, struck Cezar's chest. The pruning scissors flew out of Cezar's hand and he was kicked into the flowers. The thorns of the roses scratched his entire body. Skyler stood before the flowers coldly. "Cezar, have you decided? Will you talk. or not?!"

Cezar trembled with fear

Skyler's gaze fell on the scissors and he opened his mouth calmly. "Yale, question hini, and break a finger every time you do! There's a limit to my patience!"

Yale nodded. He bent down and picked up the pruning scissors. Cezar's pupil suddenly shrank. He was really afraid. This man was far more powerful and terrible than he had imagined.

His voice trembled, but he spoke quickly and fearfully "Lynn Quirrel! Lynn Quirrel had me tamper with the wine. She also drank the tampered wine herself, so that others wouldn't suspect her!"

Skyler's eyes flashed darkly. "Why did she do this?"

Lying in the rose bushes, Cezar was almost dying of pain.

He no longer dared to lie to the man in front of him so he revealed the truth. "She wanted to deal with a woman named Jocelyn. She also arranged for several men to sully Jocelyn after she drank the tampered wine and even arranged for someone to record the whole thing to ruin the woman!"

Cezar had overheard this when Lynn had been instructing other people. Now he only hoped that by revealing more things the man would let him off. Skyler said slowly, "Oh so the person she actually wanted to deal with was Jocelyn. Having so many others affected, that was just to confuse the public, isn't it?"

Cezar nodded repeatedly. One of his fingers was severed and the pain was pounding yet his mind was unusually clear. "Yes, that's exactly it. That woman is a madman!"

Skyler raised his eyebrows. He turned around and said to Yale, "Take a picture of him and send it to Lynn along with his finger!" Yale nodded respectfully. "Understood, President Moore! Then, this man..."

Skyler's eyes flashed and he glanced at the villa behind him. "Lock him up in the basement of Aster Mansion, make sure he doesn't die. After this matter has been handled, deal with him accordingly!"

Yale nodded and hurriedly ordered someone to take photos. After thinking for a while, Skyler said, "Make an appointment with Michael tomorrow!"

Yale was a little surprised. Did this matter have anything to do with the White family?

However, he dared not ask Skyler about his matters and nodded respectfully.

Skyler left Aster Gardens and immediately returned to Villa No 1, North Court.

Originally, Skyler had known from Zayn's conversation with Jocelyn, that the Jones family was choosing between the White family and the Quirrel family. He had not even thought through the matter of Michael threatening Jocelyn to get Lily into the Jones family!

From the looks of it now, however, there was not one good thing between the Quirrel family and the White family!

In that case, there was no need for him to worry about anything!

Claude Hospital Davis looked at his watch and asked Jocelyn, "When will Director Claude come back? It's getting late!" Jocelyn pursed her lips "Let's wait a bit more, he should be soon!" Jocelyn knew that Zayn had gone to meet with Lynn He was likely asking about Lynn's marriage with Chad to tell her about it when he came back Davis suddenly said, "I heard Walter organized a gathering for the alumni of Mauve University that will be happening in a month. Will you be going then?"

Jocelyn was stunned and shook her head instinctively "No!"

When Lexie noticed Jocelyn looking a little flustered, she knew that Jocelyn was not telling the truth

She opened her mouth and asked Davis, "Sir, hasn't Walter Keele not returned? Why would he start organizing alumni gatherings?"

Davis smiled "He was very influential in college He doesn't plan on leaving after coming back to Mauve City this time. It's normal to touch base with everyone I heard that the gathering place will be the Keele family's own May First Hotel. Moreover, he has always been charismatic. It's likely that a lot of people will be going this time!"

Jocelyn smiled reluctantly "Is that so?"

she still remembered the origins of the Keele family's May First Hotel,

Others might think that May First was taken from the first day of May but only Jocelyn was aware Walter's name, as well as May First, all came from a poem.

Jocelyn had heard Walter mention that his mother adored the poem and hence, his name and the name of the hotel had been taken from here

Seeing that Jocelyn was not in a good mood, Lexie changed the subject. "Sir, have you contacted your friends in college in the past two years?" Davis smiled. "I used to have a problem with something and was unwilling to contact my former friends. After seeing you and Jocelyn, I contacted my roommate in college I actually learned from him about Waller preventing alumni gatherings!" Lexie did not think that they would end up back on this topic after trying to change it.

She smiled a little unnaturally. "Really now?"

Davis nodded and asked her, "If Jocelyn isn't going, will you?" Lexie pursed her lips. "Jocelyn hasn't made up her mind yet. She wasn't serious about what she said just now, we'll see when the time comes. Are you going?"

Jocelyn heard Lexie's words and glanced at her, she did not refute her. In fact, it did not matter if she went or not. Since Lexie had found Davis now, nothing else mattered. If Davis were to go, she would too.

Davis looked at Lexie's serious expression and said, "I haven't seen my friends from college for a long time. We'll see how it goes then!"

The atmosphere in the ward was a little strange Fortunately, Zayn came over after he was done handling the matter.

Zayn and Davis both volunteered to send Jocelyn home.

However, Jocelyn rejected them both. "It's fine if Lexie sends me back!" Zayn nodded. Without avoiding Davis and Lexie's interest, he said to Jocelyn, "That's also fine. Just now, Lexie..."
