Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 121

Chapter 121

Jocelyn interrupted Zayn, "Lexie, you should go to the parking lot first with Davis, I have a few words with Director Claude." Lexie nodded and followed Davis to the parking lot. Davis glanced at Lexie before saying hesitantly, "Lexie... Are you and Jocelyn hiding something from me?"

Lexie was a little unnatural, "No, we have nothing to hide from you!"

Davis raised his eyebrows, "You guys should know Walter You have a good relationship, right? I remember you mentioned him many times in front of me during university"

Lexie did not expect that Davis would remember something from university

She pursed her lips and looked at Davis with a complicated expression since he remembered so many things, why couldn't he deduce that she liked him? Could it be that she was not obvious enough when she was in university?

Lexie was a little disappointed. She said to Davis, "I can't tell you about this, but don't talk about Walter in front of Jocelyn, she doesn't want to hear it."

Davis was a smart man. Upon hearing this, he nodded understandingly and said nothing

Over there, Jocelyn confirmed that Chad and Lynn were going to get a marriage certificate tomorrow. So, she thanked Zayn before leaving Lexie sent Jocelyn back to No. 1, North Court.

The two of them had things in their hearts so they did not speak much. When the car stopped, Lexie asked Jocelyn, "Jocelyn, say, does Davis know that I like him?" Jocelyn shook her head, "I don't know, but I feel that Davis should not be the kind of person who will play dumb. Maybe he didn't sense it."

Lexie was even more disappointed when she heard this. Hence, she pursed her lips. "Then will you go to see Walter next month?" Jocelyn's face changed "Probably not." Lexie glanced at her "Are you still bothered about what happened back then?" Jocelyn smiled self-deprecatingly "Does it mean I'm not bothered by what happened back then if I go?"

Lexie's expression was complicated. "I didn't mean that, I just feel that Walter doesn't seem like the kind of person who likes to have a high profile, and with his current identity, everyone in Mauve City would rush to flatter him. However, he's not back yet and he's organizing an alumni party so wantonly. No matter how you look at it, it doesn't look like he wants to connect with other alumni. Though, it looks like he has an ulterior motive, and he wants to meet »

Jocelyn's expression became unpleasant "It has nothing to do with me."

Jocelyn said, opening the door to get out of the car

Lexie was a little helpless and she grabbed Jocelyn's arm "You have a sprained foot, so don't do anything stupid. I will stop talking now, okay?"

In fact, they all knew in their hearts. With Walter's current identity, he obviously had another purpose in doing this

Lexie's cold little face showed a rare expression of helplessness,

She got out of the car, went to the other side, and helped Jocelyn out of the car Then, she helped Jocelyn into the house

It was rare to see the servants in No 1, North Court

Yet, just as Lexie helped Jocelyn through the door, she saw a servant coming up to her and taking the initiative to help Jocelyn. Lexie did not want to go in either, so she bade farewell. Jocelyn was helped into the house by the servant, and she saw Skyler sitting on the sofa at a glance

What was even scarier was that Skyler was holding Whilie

Whitie had always been afraid of Skyler, and it looked so pitiful because it was too scared to struggle It looked pitifully at Jocelyn with wide eyes and meowed twice

The corners of Jocelyn's mouth twitched twice

She injured her foot and had planned to go straight upstairs

Now, she could not stand watching Skyler domineeringly hugging White anymore.

She asked the servant to help her walk over. After that, she sat on the sofa in the living room and looked at Skyler calmly, "Mr Moore, can I take a look at Whitie?"

Skyler reached out and scratched Whitie's chin. Then, he raised his eyebrows. "Why? Are you afraid that I'll abuse it?"

Jocelyn smiled stiffly. "Mr. Moore, what were you thinking? I just haven't seen Whitie for a day and I miss it."

Skyler did not force it either. He saw that Jocelyn was hurt and yet she was still determined to save the little guy. Hence, he got up and handed Whitie to Jocelyn. As soon as Skyler got close, Jocelyn could smell the faint mint smell on him. When Whitie fell into Jocelyn's hand, it immediately approached Jocelyn's palm obediently while rubbing its head on it. Skyler's eyes slickered. "This little thing knows its owner." He stood in front of Jocelyn, looked down at her, and did not intend to leave. He asked, "What happened to your foot?"

The feeling of oppression was 100 strong when Skyler stood in front of her. Jocelyn lowered her head in guilt, caressed White, and said, "I sprained it by accident."

Skyler looked at her with a ball smile, "Really?"

When Jocelyn looked up, she saw Skyler's eyes that seemed to be able to see through people's hearts.

She hurriedly lowered her head and could not help feeling even more guilty. "Mr Moore, I did sprain it by accident."

She thought to herself that she did accidentally fall from the water pipe and sprained it. So, technically, it was not all.

Skyler's mes were so deep that it was unknown what he was feeling right now. Unexpectedly, Jocelyn was willing to tell the truth to Laryn, but not to him.

Also, he guessed it when he was outside the ward, right?

Skyler watched Jocelyn lowering her head to play with the cat and he did not force anything. However, his voice became colder. "Goat."

After he said that, he turned to walk into the dining room. Jocelyn blinked and lifted her head to look at Skyler's back. Then, the servant came over to help her up.

Jocelyn muttered in her heart, Did he believe me?

Quirtel manicure

1 yuan's parents were talking to be about her marriage to Chad

Even though Mr and Mrs Quirrel were angry, their daughter was pregnant So aside from marrying Chad she had no other chance unless they wanted to abort the child and let Lynn carry the burden of having a carnage to marry someone else

At this moment, a servant suddenly came in with a square parcel "Miss, your delivery"

Lynn was not paying attention to what her parents said. She picked up the fruit leite from the coffee table and started unboxing it

Lynn accidentally cut her finger She gasped in pain and quickly asked the servant to bring her the first aid kit. Then, she disinfected her wound and put a plaster on it. Oudry then did she continue to unbox the parcel, but when she looked into the box, her right eye started twitching. Lynn did not take it to heart and continued to unbox the contents inside, she instantly let out a shrill

When her eyes focused on the box and she screamed. Steam and threw the box away

Mr Quirrel stood up straight from the sofa "What's wrong?"

When his eyes fell on the thing thrown from the box, his eyes narrowed immediately, and he looked at the servant. Then, he scolded angrily, "How can you bring this kind of thing into the house?"

The servant looked innocent and scared, "Sir, I didn't know this was in the box!"

Mr Quirrel had a terrifyingly unpleasant look on his face "Take this away now!"

When Mrs Quirrel saw her daughter trembling with fear, she went to sit next to her to comfort her

The servant's face was oft colored She resisted nausea and lear to pick up the things on the ground

When her hand touched the box, she said, "Sir, there is a photo in the box "

Mr Quirrel walked over with a sullen face "Let me see!

The servant handed over the photo to Mr Quim Then Mr Quirrel saw the man in the photo lying on the ground like a puddle with his fingers chopped and placed beside

He looked at the picture and he felt a little dispusted when he thought that someone had sent this to lynn, he stemly threw the photo in front of Ly "Have you seen the person in this photo before? Pie never imagined that hats daughter, who had always been sensible, would frequently do so many outrageous this recently!

Lyan saw the person to the photo and her eyes widereed suddenly Her votre trembled as she kald, How could it be hun ism't be gone?

When M. Qurrel w his damagchter's reaction, he grew that his daughter must kojow the person in the photo

He said, "What the hell is going on Tell me everything!"

Lyn cried out in tear she thongtat that everything would be fine if Cezar was sent abroad, bus she tever thought that sur would actually track him the entire way judging from the current Sitska 200, Cezas must have been captured and he might have rated

her out

Lynn knew that the matter was exposed and did not dare to act recklessly anymore, so she cried and told her father everything. Mr. Quirrel slapped Lynn in the face angrily and Lynn's face turned sideways from the slap Mr. Quirrel looked at his always well-behaved daughter in disbelief. He never imagined that her daughter would end up like this, and she was the one to blame and now she had to reap what she had sown Mis. Quirrel was angry and distressed. "You silly girl, how could you do such a thing?"

Mr Quintel looked at his daughter gloomily. "It's too late to say this now, we must think about what to do next. Since this person can deliver this to our house, then they are definitely not ordinary. We must find a way to solve this, otherwise, sooner or later it will be a problem"

Lynn cried and said, "I didn't know it would turn out like this, I already sent him abroad..."

Her words were interrupted directly by Mr. Quirrel "You idiot! There are no absolute secrets in this world. When you do these things, you should think about the consequences! If other people know that you're the one who tampered with the drinks that night, you would have offended all of the victims!"

Lynn cried and did not dare to say a word.

Mr. Quirrel thought for a while with a sullen face then, he said in a malicious voice, "This matter must be suppressed. I will first arrange for someone to find out who this person is with right now. If the other party is easy going, I will directly."

Mr. Quirrel said, making a savage gesture of slicing his neck.

Then, he continued, "If they're not and I have no choice, I'll take you over to apologize. Find a way to make amends, we can't lose our foothold in Mauve City because of such a small thing"

Mr. Quirrel's career had always focused on personal connections. He did not want his daughter to ruin his years of hard work because of such a thing

Early the next morning Mr. Quirrel just received the news that the person was sent by Skyler. Immediately, his expression changed. He directly stopped Lynn, who was going to get her marriage certificate. "Pack your things and go see Skyler with me now."

Lynn's expression looked unpleasant. "I have to get the marriage certificate today. If I can't get the certificate today, what if Chad regrets it again? I don't want the child in my stomach to be born as an illegitimate child!"

Mr. Quirrel was trembling with anger "You still have the nerve to say these words. If it weren't for you, how could these things happen? Do you know who sent them here? Skyler Moore! We can't afford to offend him! Don't throw a tantrum with me right now!"

Lynn disagreed. Of course, she knew Skyler was not to be messed with.

However she did not know Skyler as well as Mr Quirtel, so she did not take it seriously and her tone was extraordinarily aggressive, "Isn't he just the boss of a jewelry company. Why are you afraid of him I'll go with you after I get the certificate!"

Mr. Quirrel angrily stretched out his hand to hit Lynn again, but Mrs. Quirrel hurriedly grabbed him, "We should resolve things properly, don't hit your daughter!"

Mr. Quirrel pointed at Lynn angrily. "You idiot, you don't even know how powerful Skyler's support is. He is the only one who owns a jewelry company and has no other skills, he would be killed so many times. Right now, you should"

Before he could finish speaking, he saw the servant rushing in while saying in a flustered tone, "Sir, the police are here's

Mr Quirrel's face changed drastically. "What?"

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw the familiar Officer Black walking in with a group of people, "Mr Quirrel, someone has reported that you have been embezzling and taking bribes many times. Now we have conclusive evidence against you, so please come with us."

Mr. Quirrel's face changed greatly, he never thought that it would happen so suddenly

He knew something was going to happen when he just learned that the person who sent the photos and finger yesterday was Skyler.

However, he never thought that it would be so fast.

Mr. Quirrel turned pale and allowed officer Black to handcuff him.

Lynn's expression also changed drastically

When Mr. Quirrel was walking out in handcuffs, she was finally scared. Lynn held her father's hand and did not let go, "Dad, I was wrong, I will go to apologize to Skyler with you. Please think of a way so they won't take you away."

Mr Quirrel's face was gray, and for a while, he seemed to have lost all his energy. "Lynn, I think I might be done for this time. Don't marry Chad If something happens to me, you will only be bullied if you marry into his family. Leave this place with your mother as soon as possible

After Mr. Quirrel said those words, he was taken into the car

Lynn was crying her heart out.

Mrs Quirrel never had any opinions of her own and Mr. Quirrel was her backbone. While her husband was being arrested, she only stood blankly in the yard, her eyes full of confusion and panic.

At the same time, Jubilee Club.

Michael had been here before, but with his status, the best room he could go to was the eighth-class private room in Hall &

This was the first time he entered a first-class private room in Turquoise Hall so he was pretty curious.

The first-class private room was really different from the eighth class.

The hall for discussion was as big as the entire eighth-class private room next to it, not to mention, that the aisles next to the private room were all connected with the rooms. Meanwhile, each of the aisles of these rooms was marked with its location.

glanced at it and saw the chess and card room, swimming pool, sauna room, and so on.

He followed Yale inside.

When he saw Skyler sitting on the sofa, he immediately felt the class difference between the two.

He smiled flatteringly, "President Moore, I heard you were looking for me?"

Skyler said lightly, "Sit down."

Michael sat on the farthest sofa and looked at Skyler with a smile, "President Moore, do you need anything from me?"

Skyler looked up at him. "I heard that you want Lily to join Prosperity Jewelry?"

Michael's face changed slightly, and his smile was a little unnatural, "President Moore, all fathers wish the best for our daughters, I am just...”

Skyler did not have the patience to listen to his hypocrisy here, so he went straight to the point, “I can let Lily marry Chad, but Lily can’t join Prosperity.”

Michael’s face changed, he did not know how Skyler knew about this.

One had to know that even Jocelyn never asked who Lily wanted to marry

Michael pretended to be confused. “Huh? President Moore, I don’t understand what you mean.”

Skyler glanced at him with a half-smile on his face “Why? Don’t you want Lily to join Prosperity so she can marry Chad? If that’s not the case, then pretend I never mention this.”

Michael’s face changed a few times. “President Moore, no. . LL.”

When he saw Michael stammering, Skyler raised his eyebrows and looked at him. “What’s the matter with you? Don’t be nervous, you can speak slowly.”

Michael was much older, but he clearly felt that he was no match for Skyler,

He thought for a moment in silence The reason he threatened Jocelyn was so that Jocelyn would ask Skyler for help

Since Skyler was willing to come forward, there was no need for him to play tricks with Skyler

He looked at Skyler sincerely, “President Moore, you are right. I mainly still want the Jones family to be connected by marriage with the White family. Do you have any good plans for that, President Moore? It’s not that I need Lily to join Prosperity, it’s just that the Quirrel family wants to do that with the Jones family now!”

Skyler gave Michael a cool look, picked up the remote control, and turned on the LCD TV in the room

A news screen appeared on the television, and it was coincidentally the scene of Mr. Quirrel being arrested

The news headline was (Stuart Quirrel Is Finally Down for His Countless Corruption and Bribery |

Skyler said indifferently. “This is my sincerity Mr. White, do you still think the Jones family will let Chad marry Lynn now that her family is like this?”

Michael's expression became unpleasant. He loved Skyler was not ordinary

After all, he was in the business circle, and he had heard some news,

However, he never imagined that Skyler's ability was so great. He looked at Skyler and he was a little scared, "President Moore, even if the Jones family doesn't marry the Quirrel family, they won't necessarily let our Lily in." Skyler tugged on the corners of his lips sarcastically. "You're still sitting here talking to me, Isn't it because I can help you get your wish?"

Michael was an old fox, and of course, he understood that there was no such thing as a free lunch. He looked at Skyler nervously. "I wonder what you need me to do after helping me so much." Skyler finally gave Michael a look, his gaze was heavy. "It's very simple, give me what Jocelyn's mother left her." Michael froze instantly "P-President Moore!"

He felt extremely guilty and a little scared. He had no idea what Skyler meant.

He cursed inwardly That darn girl Jocelyn must have told Skyler about him threatening her. He looked at Skyler with a dry smile. "What letter are you talking about? L. I have no idea" There was a smile on Skyler's face, but his eyes were bone-piercingly cold. "Could it be that you also want to end up like Stuart Quirrel, Mr. White?"

Chapter 124

Michael's face turned pale in an instant and cold sweat dripped from his forehead.

Skyler said, "Mr. White, my patience is limited."

Michael's brows twitched fiercely, and he quickly reached out to wipe the cold sweat from his forehead. After that, he said forcefully. "I can give you the things, President Moore, but I'll only do it after Lily and Chad get married."

Michael was smart and Stuart was not an ordinary person in Mauve City In such a short period, he could collect enough evidence and report Stuart, so it showed how powerful he was and he was definitely not someone that ordinary people could offend.

Skyler glanced at Michael mockingly. He thought Michael was very domineering because of how he threatened Jocelyn.

It was just so-so.

He stood up and left Michael with a sentence. "They can get the marriage certificate today, I hope you won't let me down."

After Skyler finished speaking, he got up and left. As he walked to the door of the box, he remembered something, so he stopped suddenly Then, he said with his back to Michael, "Don't disturb Jocelyn again."

After that, he turned around and narrowed his eyes at Michael "Mr White, I have a bad temper If I find out that you've overstepped, you can imagine the consequences."

A cold sweat broke out on Michael's back For the first time, he knew that this young man was so frightening He sat in the room for a long time. When he felt that his legs were no longer weak, he finally got up and left. After Skyler left the box, Yale quickly followed. "President Moore, shall we go back to the company HQ now?"

Skyler did not answer his question, but instead ordered, "Tell the Jones family, I can give them the project they mentioned before, but Chad and Lily must get their marriage certificate

Today

The Jones family was one of the few people who know the depth of Skyler's identity and background, otherwise, they would not have been rushing to curry favor with Skyler others thought that Skyler was just the king of jewelry

However, the Jones family knew better Although they did not know Skyler's true identity, Skyler could actually get involved in many major projects in various industries in Mauve City This showed that he had people from both political and business circles. Hence, he had pretty big power

Yale nodded when he heard what Skyler said. "Okay, I'll do it right away."

Skyler thought for a while and then said, "I won't go to the company today. I'll be going home so if there's nothing important, don't call me."

Yale nodded and watched Skyler leave

No 1, North Court

Jocelyn only took a half-day leave and she did not know that the world outside was in complete chaos. When Zayn called, she had just been helped downstairs by the servant and was calling White over.

Whitie might be upset after being caressed by Skyler last night, so it refused to come over to Jocelyn today.

It jumped on the coffee table and stared at Jocelyn.

Just then, Zayn called.

Jocelyn answered the phone while watching Whitle, "Hey, Director Claude." Zayn's tone was a little heavy, "Jocelyn, Lynn and Chad's marriage might not happen anymore."

Jocelyn was startled. "How could this be?"

Zayn sounded like he was bemoaning the state of the universe and pitying the fate of mankind. His voice was full of sympathy when he said, "The Quirrel family is going to collapse soon, so the Jones family will not want a marriage relationship with the Quirrel family anymore Lynn's father Stuart was arrested this morning, and it is said that the amount of corruption and bribes he took is very large so it is estimated that he will spend his whole life in prison. Perhaps he knows about this as well, so he chose to end his life in prison. After Lynn's mother found out about this, she jumped from the top of Commercial Tower and died on the

Spor

Jocelyn had never encountered anything like it before, so she was having mixed feelings. She felt shocked and somewhat sympathetic.

It took her a long time to speak, "Lynn might be having a mental breakdown after encountering something like this. You should comfort her."

layn sighed helplessly. "I have no idea where she is. After her mother died, she just disappeared It seems like she doesn't care about anything anymore I can't contact her now, but I'm just a little worried about you Will your father continue to force you to plead with Skyler

Jocelyn pursed her lips and looked a little worried. "Maybe not. The Quirrel family got into trouble so, in my dad's mind, Lily will have a good chance of marrying Chad now He might not cause Trouble for me as he did before"

Zayn figured it was reasonable “That’s good. If there’s anything you can call me for help at any time I should go find Lynn now”

Jocelyn nodded and gave him a reply before hanging up when she thought about what happened to the Quirrel family, Jocelyn still felt a little dazed She did not expect that in just a few hours, the entire family became destitute and homeless

As a bystander, Jocelyn had some complicated mixed feelings.

It happened so suddenly and it interrupted Jocelyn’s rhythm. She only wanted to take back her mother’s letter, but she did not know how to interact with Michael

While Jocelyn was thinking about that, the doorbell of the villa rang suddenly.

The person outside seemed impatient and they kept ringing the doorbell, making ear-piercing sounds

Ma’am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 125

Chapter 125

The harsh doorbell made Jocelyn extremely uncomfortable. She frowned slightly, got up from the sofa, and planned to jump on one foot to open the door As a result, before she could move, she saw the servant appear and went to open the door. Hence, she sat back down, and after a while, she saw the servant come in, followed by an angry Lily behind her

Jocelyn was taken aback and also a little surprised.

She did not expect that Lily would find No. 1, North Court.

However, at this moment, she was a little confused about Lily’s intention. It stood to reason that Lily wanted to marry Chad, so now that something happened to the Quirrel family, wouldn’t she have a better chance of winning?

Lily came here with such a menacing expression, and it was as if Jocelyn had done something unreasonable

Before Lily came here, she felt extremely hateful.

Now, Jocelyn was living in a place where every inch of land was extremely expensive. Plus, the elegant style and low-key luxury of No. 1, North Court was far beyond her imagination. Seeing this, Lily felt even more jealous and hateful.

Jocelyn was living in such a good place herself and yet she refused to help her. Therefore, there was no need for Lily to be polite to her.

Jocelyn raised her eyebrows slightly "What are you."

Before she could finish speaking, Lily interrupted her "Jocelyn, do you hate the idea that my life is better than yours? You're married to Skyler and you're already living such a good life. Can't you just help me to marry Chad? What ill intentions do you have?"

Jocelyn was confused and she looked at Lily speechlessly. "If you want to marry him, you can marry him. I'm not stopping you."

Lily snorted coldly, "You make it sound so easy. You clearly know that the Jones family has conditions for me to join their family. Only if I join Prosperity Jewelry will they agree to my marriage with Chad. You're already married to Skyler so I don't believe that you can't help me with such a trivial matter."

Looking at Lily's matter-of-fact expression, Jocelyn's face turned cold. "Even if I can help you, why should I?"

Lily's face became slightly contorted. "Jocelyn, who do you think you are? Take a look at yourself. It's in your best interest to help me. Don't think I don't know that only if you help me will Dad give you your mother's letter!"

"Let me tell you the truth, if you don't help me today and let that bitch Lynn get a marriage certificate with Chad, I'll burn the letter your mother left you when I go back today, and I'll see what you can do about it! At most, I just won't get married. It's hard to find three-legged toads but men are everywhere, so I can easily find another one, but what about you? There is only one letter from your mother."

Lily's expression was vicious and arrogant.

Jocelyn's expression sank completely. She could tell that Lily had no idea what had happened to the Quirell family.

Michael was not doing anything and yet Lily came here aggressively and threatened her. Did Lily think that Jocelyn was weak?

She really despised Lily thinking that everything others did for her was a matter of course. Who did she think she was?

Lily did not care about Jocelyn's anger at all. She raised her chin defiantly. "What? Are you afraid?"

Looking at her appearance, Jocelyn laughed angrily. "Afraid? Hehe.. Lily, do you think you can threaten me by causing such a ruckus like a clown? if you can burn the letter, go burn it now!"

After Jocelyn finished speaking, she said to the servant with a cold (ace, "Kick this person out for me "

She did not believe that Michael would easily let Lily destroy the thing that he used to control her

She ruminaged through the study yesterday, but she could not find the letter. If Lily really had this ability, then she would accept her fate

Lily was furious "Jocelyn, you wouldn't dare" "Want to find out?"

After Jocelyn said that she ignored Lily and took a mint candy Skyler ate to quit smoking from the coffee table Aster removing the wrapper, she popped it into her mouth.

The servant asked Lily to leave with a blank look on her face "Please leave"

Lily was in disbelief. "Jocelyn, how dare you treat me like this? Do you really not want your mother's letter?"

Jocelyn ignored her and the servant's face had turned cold. "If you don't go, I'll call the cops."

Lily stood on her ground and a look of maliciousness flashed across her face when she Thought about this nice place Jocelyn was living in and now even having to beg Jocelyn so that she could marry Chad, she felt extremely uneasy

She suddenly had a sinister thought li Jocelyn was disfigured, would Skyler let her stay here?

Plus, Skyler did not seem to care about excelyn either As long as she added fuel to the fire

When she thought about this, she charged toward Jocelyn when the servant was not paying attention

The servant never thought that Lily would act so suddenly and crazily Lily threw Jocelyn directly on the sofa, her sharp nails furiously digging into Jocelyn's face

Jocelyn did not expect Lily to act so crazy. Her ankle was hurt, and she could not move easily. Her uninjured toes kicked hard on the ground and her body moved backward forcefully

However, Lily was too aggressive, and she was so fast and ruthless, hence, Jocelyn did not manage to dodge her attacks.

Lily's fingernails broke the skin on her neck and four bloody marks instantly appeared on Jocelyn's neck

Jocelyn gasped in pain and reached out to cover her neck

The servant had already reacted and rushed over to pull Lily away No one noticed that when Lily rushed over, the door of the villa was opened from the outside Before the servant could get to the sofa, a hand directly grabbed the back of Lily's neck and threw her out.

Lily hit the ground and she even knocked down the porcelain vase beside her

The vase shattered, slicing Lily's fair face. A bloody mark immediately appeared on her face and as the blood spread, it looked like several bloody flowers were blossoming on her face

Lily curled up in pain and whimpered,

She shivered and covered her face with her hands. As a result, her hands were covered in blood, and she instantly let out a shrill scream

She never thought that she would end up disfiguring herself. Skyler did not even look at Lily. He got down on one knee on the sofa and looked at Jocelyn.

Jocelyn covered her neck with her hand and looked at the sullen man in front of her. She whispered, "Skyler."

Skyler's face was extremely dark.

He had always disliked having servants walking around the house. It was rare to see servants in the villa on weekends and because Jocelyn had sprained her foot so that was why he asked the servants to stay to take care of Jocelyn.

However, he never thought that Jocelyn would be scratched by Lily under such circumstances in his territory.

Skyler's face turned gloomy when he saw the bloodstains on Jocelyn's neck.

The servant called out cautiously: "Sir Miss White suddenly went crazy, I didn't * Before the servant could finish her sentence, Skyler turned around suddenly and said coldly,

"You piece of trash!"

The servant shrank her shoulders in fright, not daring to say a word.

Skyler called Yale "Ask Michael to come to No. 1, North Court to take her back, otherwise, I don't mind sending you a corpse back to him."

Skyler hung up the phone.

On the other hand, Yale was startled. He was a little confused as to why Skyler was so furious all of a sudden.

However, he did not dare to waste any time and quickly conveyed Skyler's words to Michael.

Michael had just returned home, and he found that Lily had learned early in the morning that Lynn and Chad had gone to get a marriage certificate. Hence, she felt that Jocelyn did not help her and that was what caused this mess.

Lily then asked around where Jocelyn lived, and of course, Yennis had a role in this.

After Lily found out where Jocelyn lived, she decided to go and trouble Jocelyn.

After hearing what Yennis said and recalling Skyler telling him that he was not allowed to go find Jocelyn again, Michael slapped Yennis in the face angrily "You b*tch, you're always f*cking making trouble for me!"

Yennis covered her face in disbelief and glared at Michael.

After Michael was scared by Skyler, he was still mad so how would he care about Yennis?

As soon as he finished speaking, he received a call from Yale. After hearing what Yale said, he was so frightened that his legs turned weak. Then, he immediately sat down on the sofa 'It's over!!

He was so angry that he gave Yennis a stern look, "What a good daughter you've raised she's causing me so much trouble! *

After Michael finished speaking, he hurried out the door with a pale face

Inside No. 1, North Court, Skyler was staring at Lily, who was like a dead dog on the ground There were no emotions behind his eyes

He walked up to Lily step by step and towered over her, his tone a little terrifying, "I never hit women, but when a woman turns into a mad dog, I will not go easy on her."

After he finished speaking, he kicked Lily's stomach directly

Lily flew backward and slammed into the wall on one side She groaned in pain and covered her stomach, but she was so scared that she did not even dare to breathe too loudly She had a gut feeling that if she dared to show the arrogance that she showed in front of Jocelyn, Skyler might #tually kill her

Although she was arrogant she had been pampered since she was a child, so she had never seen such a horrifying thing Her snot and tears flowed down her face she looked so battered and gross as the fluids were mixed with her blood.

Skyler turned around, his voice calm. "Bring me the first aid kit."

The maid hurried over with a first aid kit

Skyler opened the first aid kit and slowly took out the alcohol for disinfection Jocelyn sat up straight, raising her neck slightly. Skyler took some cotton and dipped them in the alcohol to disinfect her, Jocelyn hissed in pain and inched back subconsciously

Skyler said in a deep voice, "Don't move"

Jocelyn endured the pain. She closed her eyes, and her body was stiff and motionless.

Skyler saw that Jocelyn was behaving like she was on guard, and he shorted softly. "When you let the mad dog in, you should have thought of this situation." Jocelyn pursed her lips. She opened her eyes slightly and looked at him. Then, she bit her lip and said nothing. She knew Skyler must be pissed about what happened today.

However, she was honestly confused about why he was mad.

While disinfecting Jocelyn, Skyler said to the servant, "Call the family doctor over and get him to bring tetanus and rabies shots!"

Chapter 127

The servant nodded quickly and went to make the call. Every time Skyler touched the cotton on her wound, Jocelyn's eyes that were closed from the pain would tremble involuntarily. Skyler looked at the curvature of her raised chin and it looked like a swan lifting its neck when it was about to take off. The curvature was so extraordinarily beautiful.

It was a pity that this swan's neck was scratched.

His Adam's apple could not help but move slightly and his movements became unconsciously gentler.

Jocelyn could not stop herself from saying, "Mr. Moore, are you done?". Skyler remembered that she had called his name when she was feeling urgent before, but now she had become calm and distant again. There was a look of contingency on his face and there was a hint of irony in his voice, "Aren't you pretty bad*ss when you face me? Didn't you also fight in Moon Pavilion before, so how can you get beaten by a woman? Where did the energy that you used to beat Giada go?" Jocelyn's face was tense. She opened her eyes slightly and glanced at Skyler. "I sprained my foot."

Skyler snorted softly, "Is that why you turned from Joan of Arc to Virgin Mary?"

It was the first time Jocelyn heard Skyler make such a stupid joke, and for some reason, he seemed to be a little more approachable.

She could not hold back, and the corner of her mouth raised slightly. "I'm not that weak, I was just caught off guard." Skyler raised his eyebrows. "Yes, so remember you have to be vigilant at all times."

Jocelyn's eyes were like crescent moons, and she was smoking softly. "Alright, I'll remember that."

Skyler sanitized Jocelyn carefully. It was as if Lily was something germ-laden and filthy. He disinfected her wound repeatedly, Then, he asked the servant beside him, "What happened?"

The servant had a good memory and retold the conversation between Jocelyn and Lily, how Lily disregarded everything and threatened Jocelyn, and how Lily pounced on Jocelyn like a mad dog. Skyler was not angry anymore. He just said, "Don't let that mad dog inside again in the future, or else, you can kiss your job goodbye."

The servant nodded quickly.

The doctor arrived soon after, and Jocelyn received two shots in the arm.

The doctor also brought anti-inflammatories to heal her wounds and an ointment to get rid of the scars.

Skyler was very excited to treat Jocelyn's wound today. Therefore, when Michael came, Skyler was putting medicine on Jocelyn's neck.

When Michael saw Lily curled up against the wall with blood and tears on her face, he felt a little distressed.

After all, that was his biological daughter.

NOU

However, since Skyler did not say anything, then he also did not dare to say anything so easily.

Skyler ignored him and quietly treated Jocelyn's wound. In order to facilitate the absorption of the powder and the ventilation of the wound, Skyler wrapped several loops of gauze around Jocelyn's neck to cover the wound. After he was done, he lowered his eyes and looked at Jocelyn's fair face. Then, he said something astonishing, "You look like you died on the gallows."

The corner of Jocelyn's mouth twitched a few times. She understood what Skyler meant. When a person was hanged, there would be a white damask cloth around their neck. After Skyler finished doing this, he said directly, "Help her upstairs."

The servant came over immediately and reached out to help Jocelyn.

Jocelyn's eyes shone. She could tell that Skyler did not want her involved in his handling of this.

After all, she was also a White.

It was a pity that she did not have any relationship with the White family now.

Jocelyn disappeared at the head of the stairs and Skyler sat down on the sofa.

He looked at Michael and said in a low voice, "Speaking of which, I can address you as my father-in-law, but you don't want to be my father-in-law and you like to go against me, so you're giving me no choice."

Michael was nervous and hurriedly said, "President Moore, Lily is still young, so she is ignorant. I will apologize to you for her mistakes. Please don't split hairs with her for Jocelyn's sake."

Skyler snorted coldly. When he thought of Jocelyn's injury, his voice was a little angry, "She is still young? Isn't she the same age as Jocelyn, Mr. White?"

Michael was too scared to say a word,

Skyler looked at Michael sarcastically. "Besides, she scratched Jocelyn and I must forgive her for Jocelyn's sake. Mr. White, what do you take Jocelyn and me for?"

Skyler's tone was calm and unhurried, but Michael was so frightened that his legs were weak. "President Moore, it's my fault. I didn't discipline her well. I apologize on behalf of Lily to you and Jocelyn. I'm really sorry! After I go back, I will definitely teach her a lesson!"

Skyler ignored Michael's apology and said bluntly, "You should lock your mad dog properly at home. This is not a place where she can run wild. If she is in a hurry to die, then her corpse will only be thrown into the wilderness." Michael's face turned white and then grey. He glanced at Lily who was curled up on the ground like she was a disappointment and nodded repeatedly. "President Moore, I understand, this kind of thing will never happen again!" Skyler stood up from the sofa and said lazily, "It's best if you can understand. Also, it doesn't matter if Lily is injured or disabled, she must get a marriage certificate with Chad today. I have already agreed with the Jones family, and they are very happy to welcome Lily into their family. You shouldn't miss this opportunity."

Skyler deliberately emphasized the word today. Every time he said a word, Michael's heart would sink a little more. When he heard this, he nodded quickly. "We'll definitely get the marriage certificate today, and when they get the certificate, I'll send the thing to you, President Moore!"

Skyler glanced at him, giving him a look that said before turning to go upstairs, "It's good that you're self-aware." Michael walked over and stretched out his hand to help his daughter up. Then, he looked at her in distress and anger before rushing her to the hospital. Michael helped Lily out of No. 1, North Court. Lily was so frightened that she did not dare to say a word. The moment she stepped out of the door, she felt like she had gone out of the devil's territory. Her whole body was in excruciating pain, and she burst into tears. Michael glared at her angrily. "You still have the nerve to cry. You've ruined everything!" Lily was in so much pain that she covered her stomach with one hand. There was a pained expression on her face, and she clutched her face with another hand. "Dad! I'm disfigured..." Michael was angry and helpless. "It's okay, if Skyler is the one who said something, even if you are disfigured, the Jones family will still agree for you to marry into their family. Stop being so stupid in the future anymore. The Quirrel family is completely destroyed, don't you know?"

Lily turned around suddenly and stared at Michael in shock. "What?"

Chapter 128

Michael glanced at Lily angrily. "Lynn's father was arrested, and he committed suicide in prison. Her mother also jumped off a building so Lynn has no capital to fight with you anymore. If you didn't do all these so stupidly, you won't suffer in vain!"

Lily had no idea that things would turn around. When she thought of her behavior today, it was no different from looking for trouble. Suddenly, she extremely regretted what she had done, and she burst into tears.

Michael got her into the car, took her to the hospital to bandage her wound, and said in a low voice, "Do you know who did that to the Quirrel family?" Lily shook her head with a mournful look on her face.

Michael lowered his voice and said through gritted teeth, "It's Skyler. He can get rid of the Quirrel family quietly so he's not someone to be messed with. So, you better wise up and don't mess with Jocelyn in the future, otherwise, I won't be able to save you!"

Thinking of what happened just now at No. 1, North Court, Lily shrank her shoulders in fright and did not dare to say a word. That man was so scary!

Jocelyn sat on the edge of the bed, opened the mirror in the closet, and flipped through the gauze to look at the wound on her neck.

At this moment, Skyler pushed open the door and came in. Jocelyn retreated her hand sharply and tugged at the gauze, accidentally rubbing against the wound. She bared her teeth in pain. Seeing her like this, Skyler laughed a little. "What are you doing?" Jocelyn was a little unnatural. "I'm looking at the wound."

Jocelyn thought that when Skyler heard what she said to Lily, he would definitely ask her about the letter Lily mentioned.

Unfortunately, Skyler did not say a word. He just said, "If your neck hurts, take some painkillers." Jocelyn looked at him, neither obsequiously nor superciliously. "Thank you for your concern, fortunately, it's not so painful, so I can bear it." Skyler's eyes sank. Was she deliberately keeping a distance from him? His voice was a little cold. "Whatever."

After he finished speaking, he turned around and went out.

Jocelyn blinked and there was a trace of loss in her eyes that she did not even notice. She comforted herself, but also, he did not care about her affairs at all, so how could he possibly ask about the letter?

She should not have any other thoughts in case Skyler said that she had improper thoughts.

In the afternoon.

Lily finished dressing her wound from the hospital, changed her clothes, and went to the Civil Affairs Bureau to register with Chad. Although there was gauze on Lily's face, Chad still got the marriage certificate with her. However, this could not hide the disgust in Chad's eyes.

After all, he was willing to marry Lily as there would be a lot of interest for him.

Back then, he wanted to use Lily to get close to Skyler but now, he already got a crucial project from Skyler. Hence, he had to get married.

When the two of them came out of the Civil Affairs Bureau with their marriage certificates, reporters approached them after hearing the news.

After all, Lily, a designer who lost the plagiarism case, had many pitfalls in herself. Now, she got married twice in such a short period so it could be said that she was begging for attention.

In addition to that, the Jones family was not unknown in Mauve City so the nosey people would like this kind of news.

Lily was facing the reporters. Even though her face was disfigured, she was still smiling. However, when she saw Lynn who was full of resentment not far from the Civil Affairs Bureau, her expression froze slightly. She had not forgotten that it was Lynn's family's collapse that made her invincible and married Chad.

Lily was extremely uncomfortable being stared at by Lynn and her eyes sank. Although the Quirrel family was weak, now that she was married to Chad, she could not allow that bastard child in Lynn's stomach to be born. Although she could not take action against Jocelyn, she could not let Lynn step on her. When she thought about this, Lily had a bad idea forming in her heart.

That night, in a dimly lit alley, seven or eight burly men were pulling a woman who was screaming as hard as she could. It was a pity that it was so remote that no one would notice this happening. Even if someone saw it and saw that group of men, they would not dare to be nosey.

The man said, wanting to go again after he got a taste, "As expected of a rich daughter." The man next to him joked, "Even if she is, she's damaged goods. You're so easily satisfied." "Speaking of which, Lily is so smart. She knows if she wants to marry into the Jones family, she has to destroy the Quirrel family from its foundation."

P3

Lynn froze in shock as she lay on the ground like a rag.

It was Lily. Lily was the one who put her father in jail and made her mother commit suicide!

The man's discussion was still in her ears.

"Although Lily is smart, she is a venomous snake, so stay away from her. We won't be able to handle this kind of woman."

"It's just that, speaking of which, these wealthy and noble kids are so ruthless and unscrupulous. Even if this woman is pregnant with his child, he can't just throw her away."

“Are you stupid? If he is concerned about her, do you think he will agree with Lily’s proposal to let us do this to her? If it weren’t for this child, she probably wouldn’t have to suffer tonight!”

The men got dressed and the voices of the discussion got farther and farther.

Lynn’s hands were clasped together tightly, and she could feel that the illegitimate child in her belly was dead. Her life was completely hopeless. She wanted revenge as this was the only motivation for her to live, and now she just wanted to kill those scumbags Lily and Chad. Unbeknownst to Lynn, the group of men went out of the alley and made a call. “Mr. Ziegler, we said all those things in front of the woman just as you instructed.” The man on the other side said something and the man on the phone immediately smiled. It was indeed Lily who asked them to gang rape Lynn. However, they did not expect that as soon as Lily finished the phone call with them, someone would approach them and give them business in vain.

They just needed to say a few lines after they were done with that woman. It was so simple! At the same time, inside Turquoise Hall, the first-class private room in Jubilee Club. Yale walked in and whispered something in Skyler’s ear. Then, Skyler’s eyes lit up and he nodded.

Then, he looked at Chad and Jim on the side. “Jim, I still have something to do, go and have more fun with Chad. After all, he is now my... brother-in-law. Just let him have all the fun he wants.”

Right, Chad already knew that Jocelyn and Skyler were married.

However, he promised Skyler that he would not talk nonsense outside. This was the first time Chad came to Jubilee Club’s first-class private room, so he was still a little uncomfortable.

However, when he remembered that he was Skyler's brother-in-law, he was a little more confident in an instant.

Jim laughed slyly, "Okay, Skyler, do your thing, I'll make sure he has a good time." Skyler gave Jim a meaningful look, then got up and left. Skyler left Turquoise Hall and went to Lavender Hall. Yale followed behind him and said, "President Moore, Lily took action against Lynn. I asked them to reveal to Lynn that Lily had something to do with what happened to the Quirrel family and it was Chad and Lily's idea to do this to Lynn." Skyler hummed lazily and walked toward Lavender Hall like he was taking a stroll. Michael was waiting in the room and when he saw Skyler coming in, he stood up immediately, "President Moore!"

Skyler walked over, sat down on the sofa, raised his eyelids lazily, and glanced at Michael. "I heard that you're looking for me?"

Michael hurriedly took out two folded letters from the briefcase next to him and handed them to Skyler, "President Moore, these are what Jocelyn's mother left her." Skyler raised his eyebrows. Michael's hands were raised for a long time before Skyler extended his hand slowly. Then, he held the letter with his slender fingertips and brought it over. He flipped through it casually, wanting to confirm the handwriting.

Today, after he learned that the thing Michael used to threaten Jocelyn was a letter, he asked someone to find what Jocelyn's mother Grace had written before her death and took down the handwriting.

Eventually, he opened it and his eyes suddenly spotted a sentence. "Jocelyn, although I'm not your biological mother, but..."

Skyler folded the letter suddenly, his expression a little off-colored. He did not mean to peep into Jocelyn's privacy, he just wanted to confirm the handwriting, yet he did not expect to see such a secret. It suddenly dawned on him why Michael treated Jocelyn like this. Perhaps this old thing knew that Jocelyn was not his biological daughter, so he used her without any scruples. Skyler looked at Michael deeply, "Did you... read the letter?" Michael did not dare to lie in front of Skyler, he was silent for a while before he nodded, "I saw it when I received it back then."

Skyler's expression was very malicious. "So, you treat Jocelyn like this because she's not your biological daughter?" Michael's face changed. "President Moore, I.... I admit that I'm not a good father. Despite not giving Jocelyn enough love when she was young, I definitely love you, but who knows... That b*tch Grace made me raise someone else's daughter for so long. If it wasn't for her letter, I would still be completely in the dark. I feel hateful too!"

Skyler's face was ashen and there was an inexplicable feeling in his heart. He felt a little sorry for that woman.

He looked at Michael. "So, you're venting your hatred on Jocelyn?"

Michael could hear that Skyler was angry, so he shrank his shoulders and did not dare to speak.

Skyler's expression was unreadable and the atmosphere in the room was depressing.

Skyler thought for a while and said, "Don't let Jocelyn know about this." Michael nodded again and again. "President Moore, don't worry, I will definitely not say anything to her."

He had some regrets in his heart and he could no longer use Jocelyn in the future. Originally, Grace concealed her affairs and Michael planned to let Jocelyn pay for it. Now, it seemed that he could not do that anymore.

MU

Skyler did not even want to look at Michael. He lowered his head and said coldly, "You can leave now."

TWO

Since this person was not Jocelyn's biological father and he was also using her like that, he did not need to be polite to Michael anymore. Michael's expression changed, he did not dare to offend Skyler, so he stood up and left without saying a word. Jocelyn was at home for two days before she went back to work. Her foot was not completely healed. She could walk, but she did not dare to exert force. After breakfast, Skyler picked up the car keys and said, "Come, I'll take you to work." Jocelyn remembered this man who did not come home after telling her dismissively waving her off. He only came back to No. 1, North Court last night. She did not even have to guess to know that Skyler must be angry because Lily came and caused a ruckus. It was really difficult for her to understand how a man could be so angry. Jocelyn was used to keeping her distance from Skyler, so she subconsciously refused, "No, I can go myself." Skyler's handsome face suddenly darkened. He looked at Jocelyn with a gloomy expression. "Do you feel aggrieved that I am sending you to work?"

Chapter 130

Chapter 130

Jocelyn's expression stiffened. "I just figured that I don't want to bother you, President Moore. I can handle the trivial matter of going to work myself."

Skyler looked at her with an unreadable expression. He took a step forward and sprayed her face with his breath, "Jocelyn, do you think I'm going to eat you?" Jocelyn was inexplicably nervous, and she leaned back slightly and unnoticeably. She did not know what Skyler meant, so she just laughed dryly, "President Moore, you're funny."

Skyler stared at her and turned around to change his shoes. He did not even look at her. "If you don't want me to carry you into the car, you should be more aware."

Jocelyn frowned; Skyler's behavior was somewhat abnormal.

'Was he triggered by something?'

Just as Jocelyn was wondering, she heard Skyler saying dryly, "Jocelyn, I'm not that scary and I won't eat you, so you don't have to be so afraid of me!"

Jocelyn was a little helpless. "I'm not afraid of you, I just always have your words in mind. Keep a distance from you, restrain myself, and don't have any unwanted thoughts."

Skyler's handsome face froze a little. When he recalled that this was exactly what he said, he was so depressed that he did not want to say anything.

He was silent for two seconds and his tone was a little harsh. "I did say that you're not allowed to have unwanted thoughts about me, but I didn't ask you to avoid me. Am I that scary? Besides, you are my legally wedded wife. Your ankle is injured and I'm not so inhuman to let you go to the car by yourself. I don't have the habit of abusing my partner."

Although his tone was not very nice, it sounded like he was explaining his abnormal behavior.

Jocelyn blushed slightly when she heard that he was calling her his wife and his partner.

"There's no difference between me taking a car and sitting in your car," Jocelyn muttered.

Skyler's patience ran out and looked at Jocelyn like he was looking at someone who was mentally challenged. "Do you know how long it takes to walk out of the villa to get a taxi? What's more, you are still half-crippled!" Jocelyn really wanted to stick his mouth shut with a bottle of gorilla glue after hearing how mean he was.

However, he was right. Jocelyn just did not think about it just now.

She was not unreasonable. Since the situation was like this, she could only say in a muffled voice, "Then thank you, President Moore."

Skyler snorted coldly. He did not even look at her when he took the car keys and walked outside.

Jocelyn limped forward. She tried to keep up with him and got into the car. Jocelyn got out of the car at the intersection in front of the company and walked toward the building unhurriedly. Jocelyn arrived at the design department, and before she could sit down for a few seconds, she saw a shocking piece of news.

Basically, it said that Chad just got married for a day and he immediately cheated on his wife. The journalists used a lot of effort to describe how unconventional and fickle in love he was before.

The most unacceptable thing was that he cheated on his wife just one day after getting married, which was simply astonishing.

This incident had caused a very bad social impact and it was even trending online. Plus, there were a lot of sarcastic hashtags about this scandal. #Thefastestcheaterinhistory #Yourichpeoplereallyknowhowtohavefun

The comments were amazing.

(Perhaps this is the legendary evenly matched couple. The girl got married twice in a month and the guy got with so many people in one month.) [The lid will always match the pot. Darling, these two are the perfect couple!] (Doctor, I got cheated on the second day of my marriage. Do you have a prescription for that?)

Jocelyn frowned and looked down, her face changed slightly when she saw the photo of Chad and Lily at the door of the Civil Affairs Bureau two days ago.

She did not expect that Lily would go to get the marriage certificate after being beaten to a pulp.

What words should Jocelyn use to describe Lily? Moreover, Jocelyn stayed at home for the past two days and she did not go online at all. Hence, she had no idea about Lily and Chad getting married.

Michael's goal was achieved so would he still send her mother's letter to her?

While thinking about this, Jocelyn's face turned a little ugly.

She walked out of the design department, stood in the corridor, and dialed Michael's number.

As a result, Michael rejected her call directly. When she called again, Michael was on a call with someone else, so Jocelyn's brows were furrowed.

At the same time, in the office on the top floor, Skyler's cell phone rang.

Jocelyn always felt that Michael was deliberately not answering his phone and as she was about to call again, she received a call coincidentally. "Hey, Director Claude, can I help you with anything?" Jocelyn's attitude towards Zayn was as gentle as ever. Zayn's voice was as soft as a soft drizzle. "It's nothing. I just want to ask you if your ankle feels better after these two days." Jocelyn lowered her head to look at her foot. "It's much better. I can already walk but I can't walk too fast, if not it'll hurt." Zayn said, "I see. Be careful, it'll recover completely after two days." Jocelyn nodded. "Yes, I'll be careful."

She remembered Chad and Lily's marriage and related it to the Quirrel family's tragedy, so she could not stop herself from asking, "Right, did you find Lynn?" When Zayn heard this, his voice immediately became deeper. "Yes, but..." "What's wrong?" Jocelyn felt that something was not right when she heard Zayn's voice.
