

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1014

When the message was sent to the group, the group immediately boiled over.

“Young Master Qin, why do you have time to play games today?”

“Master Wang is in Beijing?”

When Zhang Yang saw that a few people in the group were asking Qin Si if Ye Wangchuan was in Beijing, he smiled and pulled up the chat history.

Before Qin Si sent the message in the group, a few people who had asked Jiang Xianrou out for a meal finally arrived. Jiang Xianrou had been tagged by them a few more times and then she came out to set a time with them.

This was the first time Jiang Xianrou had appeared in the group since Miss Qiao’s promotion banquet.

Jiang Xianrou had just arrived late and said that she was free. She had arranged to meet a few people to drink water at the Beijing snack street.

She turned around and sent Qin Si’s message to the group.

Zhang Yang smacked his lips. He couldn’t imagine how much Jiang Xianrou had felt when she saw the news in the group. However, his private relationship with her was only average.

Everyone in the capital city knew that Miss Jiang was proud and cold. Other than Qin Si, Ye Wangchuan, and a few others, she had never been friendly to anyone else.

Previously, Jiang Xianrou had relied on Jiang Li to enter Qin Si’s small circle and had never liked the people in the big group.

Even if he had a good relationship with Qin Si, Jiang Xianrou would often look down on him. Zhang Yang naturally did not have a good relationship with her. They were just adults who maintained a normal relationship. Now that he saw Jiang Xianrou being humiliated, he was happy to watch the commotion.

As he watched the commotion in the group, he did not forget to look at Qiao Nian.

Gu San went to get the car while Qiao Nian stood by the road playing games.

She stood very casually with her head lowered as if she was playing with her phone. Even wearing simple clothes, she was especially attractive because of her unique temperament as she stood by the roadside.

A few cars by the roadside secretly rolled down their windows and looked at them when they passed.

Qiao Nian did not seem to feel anything. Or rather, she did not care about this.

Zhang Yang looked at her a few times and saw that she was looking at her phone quite attentively. He couldn't help but ask, "Miss Qiao, are you playing a game?"

Qiao Nian was only replying to a WeChat message. Hearing this question, she raised her eyes. Her black and white eyes were quite bandit-like as she put away her phone. "No. I'm replying to a few messages."

Nie Mi and Shen Yugui sent her another message about school.

She replied when she saw it.

She also looked at the other messages.

Previously, Jiang Zongjin had sent her messages every day. No matter if she responded or not, he would always nag her about what had happened to him for the entire day.

From the big things to work, to the small things he ate for lunch.

This time, he did not give her any news after almost three days.

There was another person who was as abnormal as Jiang Zongjin—Jiang Li.

Jiang Li was usually a chatterbox. After her school promotion banquet, Jiang Li said he was going overseas to record a variety show, and he disappeared.

Jiang Li was the same as Jiang Zongjin. In the beginning, he still sent her messages every day, nagging like a chatterbox.

As time passed, he did not send her any messages for almost three days.

Qiao Nian frowned. She happened to see Gu San driving over. She pursed her lips and did not think too much about it.

Anyway, she had sent a message to Jiang Li to ask him. If anything happened, he would probably reply to her.

In the car.

Qin Si was still busy replying to messages in the group.

Ever since he fell out with Jiang Xianrou last time, he had not given her much face recently.

When someone in the group asked him who Master Wang's sister was, he did not hide it and casually reported Qiao Nian's name.
