

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1140

Jiang Zongnan continued, "Nian Nian is Zhui Guang! You've seen the authentication in her Weibo, and you're still protecting Xianrou."

"If she's Zhui Guang, she should have said it earlier. If she didn't say it, how could Xianrou know she's Zhui Guang..." At this point, Tang Wanru still wanted to defend her daughter's behavior. "Xianrou didn't know she's Zhui Guang. Let's just say it, Xianrou was also deceived."

"Ha." Jiang Zongnan was dazed by her tilted explanation. He pointed at her and asked, "You mean that it makes sense for Jiang Xianrou to steal someone else's identity!"

According to her, if Qiao Nian wasn't Zhui Guang, then she couldn't control it even if they used Zhui Guang's identity to guide public opinion.

If Qiao Nian was Zhui Guang, then it was also Qiao Nian's fault. Who made them lose face if she didn't say it first.

What a bandit theory!

Jiang Zongnan finally understood why his brother was so angry. It was because, in this matter, Tang Wanru and Jiang Xianrou had never treated Nian Nian as family. They were extremely cold and watched from the sidelines until the fire burned them. They immediately changed their attitude and accused Nian Nian of not treating them as family and not revealing that she was Zhui Guang...

"Let me ask you something. Dad asked you to call her earlier. Why didn't you?"

After he came back, the nurse at the sanatorium quietly told him about it. Because of the presence of so many elders in the family, he kept holding back from having an outburst with Tang Wanru.

Now he couldn't take it anymore.

"Jiang Li didn't post on Weibo before the incident. Dad asked you to call her and ask her to clarify. Why didn't you want to?"

There was some silence.

Tang Wanru was speechless.

Jiang Zongnan only felt disappointed for having expectations when he saw that she was rendered speechless by his question. Ignoring Tang Wanru and the others, he turned around and said to Old Master Jiang, "Dad, I have no objections to big brother's suggestion of splitting up the family. If you agree, I agree."

"No!" Tang Wanru said firmly immediately.

But this time, no one cared about her.

Jiang Zongjin's attitude was more determined than hers. "I feel too guilty towards my elder brother and Nian Nian! I'm also sorry towards my dead sister-in-law. She sacrificed so much for this family. I... I'm ashamed!"

Old Master Jiang also looked at the mobile phone. His complexion did not look good. He had a sallow complexion and gullies at the corners of his eyes. After all, he was old.

He didn't say a word, just put down the phone and raised his head. He looked at his son, and then at his angry daughter-in-law, and asked slowly, "Wanru, is there anything else you want to say?"

"Dad, Xianrou and I were in the wrong."

Tang Wanru spoke very fast. At this speed, she couldn't think too much and could definitely say whatever came to her mind.

"But this matter should also be kept in the dark. Jiang Li has already admitted his mistake and apologized on Weibo. Everyone here is family, so there's no need to become a joke in the circle. Xianrou will enter the Ninth Branch in the future. How can she hold her head up in front of others in the future if they know this?"

Old Master Jiang and Jiang Zongnan reacted slightly after listening to her words, shaking their heads slightly, leaving only disappointment.

"So, like Xianrou, you never thought that you should apologize to Nian Nian?"

Tang Wanru suddenly shut up and said nothing. "..."

How could an elder like her apologize to a junior in front of everyone? As for Jiang Zongjin... she didn't want to.

She couldn't bow her head to anyone in the eldest branch.
