

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1179

Jiang Xianrou did not agree or disagree.

After hanging up, she casually knocked over the coffee sent by a servant.

Tang Wanru immediately came up when she heard the commotion upstairs. Seeing the mess in her room, she quickly got the servant to go out and close the door.

Then, she said angrily to the person sitting there, "What are you doing? Why did you make such a mess in the room? Your father will flare up at you again when he sees this."

"It's all because of Qiao Nian."

She and Tang Wanru were the only ones in the house. Jiang Xianrou did not want to hide her true colors anymore and said angrily, "She went to the provincial hospital today. My mentor called me just now and said that she offended the Wei family completely. She's really amazing. She just caused a ruckus at home and ran outside to make trouble next. Beijing has almost been overturned by her ever since she came from Rao City!"

At first, Tang Wanru was still angry at her for being impatient. But upon hearing her words, she immediately frowned and walked up to Jiang Xianrou. "You said that Qiao Nian went to the provincial hospital to cause trouble? What do you mean?"

"Old Master Wei has passed on."

Jiang Xianrou was distraught when she thought of what Liang Lu had just told her.

Qiao Nian was a disaster.

She had not had a good day ever since the other party came to Beijing.

She even had to give up the house she had lived in for 20 years!

Tang Wanru couldn't believe what she was hearing. "Xianrou, what did you say? You can't say that."

Even she had not received the news.

Jiang Xianrou stood up angrily. "My teacher is at the provincial hospital now. She operated on Old Master Wei. Halfway through the surgery, Qiao Nian ran in and chased out her and an expert from the Medical Association overseas. Then, Old Master Wei died."

"..." Tang Wanru was first shocked, then she came back to her senses and smirked. "She's courting death. I'll tell your father."

"Mom, come back," Jiang Xianrou called her back.

Tang Wanru looked at her in confusion. "Don't tell me you don't want me to say it? Your father is so protective of her. I can show him how good his niece is."

"It's useless." Jiang Xianrou sneered and twitched her mouth. Her beautiful eyes were cold. "Grandpa and Uncle were all there. She's capable and even got Aunt Wei to lower her head and admit her mistake. My teacher was also implicated this time. She won't be able to be a doctor in the future. Let's see if she can continue to teach in Qing University. She called me to ask me for help and find connections to minimize the impact of this matter."

"Then you..." Tang Wanru did not know the twists and turns of this matter. She frowned and subconsciously looked at her daughter to see her reaction.

Jiang Xianrou took a deep breath. Frustrated, she paused for a few seconds before saying, "I definitely won't help."

She said quickly, "This has nothing to do with me. I don't have to implicate myself. I can't afford to offend the Wei family. Anyway, I'll graduate this year. I don't plan to continue on the path of brain surgery after graduation."

At this moment, Jiang Xianrou only felt glad. She was glad that she had long applied for a transfer to study bioengineering.

Otherwise, Liang Lu might even implicate her.

"But I have a teacher-student relationship with her. She even called me. It doesn't make sense for me to ignore her. I just sent a message to Qiao Nian to see what she has to say."

Jiang Xianrou's tone was calm and pleasant. In the end, she was just unwilling to help. After all, Liang Lu hoped that she would speak to Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si on her behalf. It would be equivalent to not helping if she only sent Qiao Nian a message.
