

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1314

Tang Ning didn't care. She swirled the wine in her glass. She was alone and didn't want to talk to these idiots.

She had been dragged over by a friend to play. He said that Zhu Yuanhao was holding a party at Lan Pavilion and had invited everyone to play together.

The second-generation heirs in Beijing were all in the same circle.

They were just playing.

Tang Ning did not mind playing with Zhu Yuanhao and the others. After all, she was no different from them in the past. They often played together.

It was just that she was lucky later on and had interacted with Zhang Yang, Qin Si, and the others a few times. Now, she could barely enter the upper circle.

After she understood some things that she could not come into contact with in the past, she did not like to play with Zhu Yuanhao and the others anymore.

Before Tang Ning came, she didn't know that Zhu Yuanhao was holding a party at Lan Pavilion to celebrate Jiang Xianrou passing the assessment.

After she came, she heard that Jiang Xianrou had gone to the Ninth Branch to participate in the recruitment assessment today. As long as she passed this assessment, Jiang Xianrou would successfully enter the Ninth Branch and become a part of Master Cheng's laboratory.

None of them could enter the Ninth Branch yet.

Jiang Xianrou was the first to enter the Ninth Branch!

Zhu Yuanhao estimated the benefits of seeing Jiang Xianrou enter the Ninth Branch and thought of organizing a party to please her.

In the past, Tang Ning reckoned that she would also build a good relationship with Jiang Xianrou and seduce this future influential figure in Beijing.

However, she did not think that Jiang Xianrou would enter the Ninth Branch now.

She felt that the other party might not be able to get her wish today.

Not for anything else, but because the Ninth Branch was Master Wang's territory!

Jiang Xianrou had done so much to target Miss Qiao previously, so she did not think that Jiang Xianrou could enter the Ninth Branch successfully.

Don't tell her that Jiang Xianrou was on good terms with Master Wang and the others... Don't tell her that Jiang Xianrou's brother had returned from Tian Chen... She felt that Jiang Xianrou was going to fall badly this time.

Tang Ning's eyes were slightly cold as she looked at the happy atmosphere in the private room and then at Zhu Yuanhao and the others who couldn't wait to please Jiang Xianrou. She covered her cold smile with a red wine glass and continued to stay in her corner and drink silently.

She had already thought about it. She would leave after giving Jiang Xianrou face.

After all, this circle had to be firm. Like Zhang Yang, she had chosen her position. She didn't want to be a fence-sitter.

Everyone was smart in a place like Beijing.

What if she lost her balance and fell off the wall?

Tang Ning restrained the shrewdness in her eyes. She was wearing a red dress and high heels. Her calves were straight as she leaned against the wall gracefully and continued to look coldly at Zhu Yuanhao and the others.

...

Half an hour later, the protagonist of the celebration party finally arrived.

Jiang Xianrou was going to participate in the assessment today and was dressed more formally. Her white shirt was matched with a black skirt. The shirt was made of smooth silk, revealing her curvaceous body.

Her hair was tied up, revealing her bright and generous face.

Jiang Xianrou looked capable and elegant.

"Surprise!"

As soon as Jiang Xianrou walked in, Zhu Yuanhao brought the blonde to the door and set off fireworks for her. The fluttering ribbons floated down from above as if it was a huge irony.

Jiang Xianrou's expression instantly darkened. She frowned and tried her best to control her emotions. Her voice still revealed a little anger. "What are you doing?"

Zhu Yuanhao and the blonde looked at each other, not understanding why she had such a reaction.
