Chapter 1561, Chapter 1561 english novels online

1561 My Former Online Name Is 'Gone With the Wind'

"How would I know?" Qin Si only knew a little about the illegal district. "I just heard that Black Mandala is moving again. As for what you asked..."

Qin Si smacked his lips and changed the topic to Qiao Nian. "Tsk, do you think I would know something that even Sister Qiao doesn't know?"

He was very frank.

The only thing he didn't do was write 'lackey' on his own face.

However, in the eyes of Zhang Yang and Gu San, his behavior was no different from a lackey. He knelt down to Boss Qiao openly.

Zhang Yang was silent for a moment before looking curiously in Qiao Nian's direction.

The girl's eyes became even more agitated, and she was even more speechless. She changed the topic. "Ahem, by the way, do you know anyone who has a collection of heavy equipment for a Boeing 737-300 from 20 years ago?"

"Heavy equipment?" Qin Si narrowed his eyes and looked at her in surprise. "Sister Qiao, why are you looking for the equipment for the plane? And a plane from 20 years ago at that. This model has long been discontinued, right?"

The Boeing 737-300 was a traditional aircraft model. This model had been discontinued about ten years ago.

Why was Qiao Nian looking for such a plane?

1562 Qiao Nian Wants to Find the Device to Play the Black Box

“I have my own plans,” the girl answered him succinctly, her eyes exquisite.

“...” Qin Si was speechless.

Of course, he knew that!

He was asking what she planned to do with it.

However, Qin Si was no fool. He could tell that Qiao Nian didn't want to talk about it. He didn't pursue the matter and racked his brains.

After a long moment, he remembered. “Ah, I know who has it!”

Qiao Nian suddenly looked at him. “Who is it?”

“Uncle Bo.”

Qin Si said quickly, “Bo Jingxing's family owns an airline. His uncle's private hobby is collecting things related to airplanes. I heard from Bo Jingxing that if his uncle hadn't entered the International Criminal Investigation Team for some reason back then, he would be an outstanding pilot now.”

He was talking about Bo Zheng.

Bo Jingxing was also present. His eyebrows moved slightly when Qin Si mentioned his uncle. He also turned to the girl and said in a soothing tone, “Qin Si is right. I remember now. My uncle has collected a lot of these things. My uncle might have the thing you want. Shall I ask him?”

Qiao Nian reached out to pull down her cap and thanked him casually. “Yes, thank you.”

Bo Jingxing smiled. “You're welcome.”

“You've helped him before. I'm sure he'd be happy to do you a favor.” He didn't waste any time. Putting down his chopsticks, he got up. “I'm going out to make a call.”

Seeing him go out, Ye Wangchuan narrowed his eyes and turned to talk to the girl. “Captain Bo might not be back from Shuangjiang City yet. Do you want me to drive you over to look for him?”

Qiao Nian, on the other hand, was calm and relaxed. She glanced at him and said, "It's fine, I'm not in a hurry. If he's not back yet, let's wait until he is. Anyway, the item is in my hands. It doesn't matter if I hear it a few days earlier or later. I can afford to wait."

She'd waited a long time. A day or two wouldn't make a difference.

Besides, she still had to deal with the Qi family's matters and couldn't leave Beijing for the time being.

"I just need to make sure there's a replay device for this model. If there isn't one in the country, I'll put a reward on the dark web sooner or later."

She'd been looking for this for days, but after all, the plane was a discontinued model, and it was a device that played old-fashioned tape-type black boxes. It was a small part of the plane's accessories, and it wasn't so easy to find.

Qiao Nian asked casually. If it really didn't work out, she would think of another way.

Of course, it would be best if Bo Zheng had it!

Soon, Bo Jingxing returned to the private room with his phone.

His eyebrows relaxed as he said to the girl, "I asked. He has the equipment you mentioned, but it's at his house. I can't get it to you until he gets back. He'll be back next week."

"OK." Qiao Nian's voice was hoarse as she said readily, "Please let me know when Captain Bo comes back."

"I told him already, he'll call you when he gets to Beijing."

Bo Jingxing still felt uneasy and added, "Just in case. If he comes back, I'll send you another message."

"Okay." A trace of warmth flashed across Qiao Nian's eyes.

She had never been particularly sentimental, so she said no more.

Bo Jingxing wasn't the kind of person who liked to talk. After speaking briefly with Qiao Nian, he called the waiter to pay the bill.

Ye Wangchuan paid for it.

Next, everyone went home.

Gu San drove. Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan left the restaurant and returned to Rhine Apartments.

1563 Big Boss, Someone Is Tracking Me

In a hotel suite in Beijing.

Qi Yan paced around the suite until the doorbell rang. Her tightly furrowed brows relaxed slightly, and her tense expression relaxed slightly. She quickly walked over and opened the door.

A scruffy foreigner was standing outside the door. The man was in his late 20s and looked very young. His features were not bad and his height was obvious.

However, he really didn't like to tidy himself up. He was unshaven and exuded a sloppy sense of decadence.

It didn't leave a good impression. It was too gloomy.

Wasn't that Mas whom Qiao Nian had met in Rao City?

When Qi Yan saw him, she was like a drowning person grabbing onto a life-saving straw. She immediately pulled him in and said anxiously, "You're finally here! Quick, help me find out Lanyin's location. I asked the technical department of the corporation to investigate for a long time, but they didn't find anything."

Mas walked in with a computer in his right hand and sneered. He said in a disdainful tone, "The people from the technical department of the Hengfeng Corporation are trash!"

Qi Yan was a little embarrassed by his words, but she couldn't say anything since she was asking him a favor.

She closed the door silently and followed the man into the living room.

She told the man about Qi Lanyin's situation in a hurry. "Lanyin has been missing for half a day. We've used all the methods we can think of. We only found the last place she was seen. We sent people to look around the place, but they saw no one."

"It's normal that you can't find her. Her phone's GPS has already been blocked." Mas seemed used to this kind of thing and wasn't surprised.

He walked over to the living-room sofa, sat down, and took the computer out of his handbag. The black computer was heavy and looked different from any other computer Qi Yan saw before.

He said simply, "Give me her phone number."

Qi Yan found a pen and paper and wrote a string of numbers.

Mas did not waste any time. He focused on the computer and opened the tracking system he had made himself. Then, he entered Qi Lanyin's phone number.

Qi Yan saw the code numbers jumping on his screen. She finally felt safe when she saw the green numbers refreshing.

Meanwhile, on the other side.

Qiao Nian had just taken a cold shower and had yet to wipe the water droplets off her hair. She walked to the desk and casually opened her laptop.

The phone sat beside her, charging.

Then, the screen lit up.

The girl propped her legs up and leaned against the edge of the desk in an irregular posture.

Her features relaxed. Slowly, she grabbed the phone, clicked it open, and read the message.

Guan Yan: [Damn, someone is tracking me!]

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows.

She hit the boot button on her laptop with one hand. It booted up instantly and connected to Guan Yan's computer.

As expected, Qiao Nian entered a few codes and saw a very aggressive trojan horse program trying to locate Guan Yan's IP address.

"Heh, interesting." Qiao Nian threw the towel aside and pulled out a chair to sit down. She propped her arm on the desk and sat down, looking very much like a big shot.

A strand of her black bangs hung down and covered her brow, but it couldn't hide its sharp color.

Qiao Nian's hand speed was fast. One could almost only see the shadows of her fair fingers tapping on the keyboard. Countermeasure codes poured out from her fingers one after another. She seemed to be able to type out these codes without even thinking.

In less than 20 minutes, Qiao Nian hit Enter and leaned back on the chair. She narrowed her eyes and lazily looked at the database that had begun to automatically generate on her computer...

1564 Face Slapping, Sister Nian Wins

In a hotel suite dozens of kilometers away.

The young man was initially smug as he waited for his tracking system to decipher the computer IP address of the person who had kidnapped Qi Lanyin.

He was so relaxed that he started drinking coffee.

Until the defense systems of the other party that he had already broken through were repaired one by one, and even a very powerful virus began to devour the data on his computer.

Mas couldn't sit still any longer. He quickly tried to take back control of his computer.

A minute passed.

With great effort, he finally turned on the defense system of his computer.

Another five minutes passed.

The defense system he had developed was useless. The virus that had invaded his computer was still devouring his files. It was even beginning to destroy his system.

Mas' jaw clenched and he pulled a long face.

Qi Yan realized that there was something wrong with his expression. She put down her teacup and asked him, "Mas, what's wrong? Did it not go smoothly?"

The man ignored her and gritted his teeth. His face was ashen as he continued typing, trying to collide with the other party.

He knew who it was.

Qi Yan had told him before.

Sun!

Someone who had always been as famous as him but had never shown her face.

He had seen her once in Rao City. She looked like an ordinary girl. He had heard that she was still in her first year of university and had even lived in a small city before.

How could a genius like Mas tolerate such a person suppressing him for so many years?

He didn't come here under the Qi family's instructions.

He was willing to come this time mainly because he couldn't swallow his defeat in the software competition. He wanted to compete with the Red Alliance and let the entire hacker world see who the uncrowned king was!

The seconds ticked by.

Mas' forehead was covered in sweat. His typing speed had slowed down. Even Qi Yan could tell that he was powerless.

Qi Yan's heart skipped a beat. She lowered her voice and asked, "Is it Qiao Nian?"

Mas ignored her.

An hour passed.

His hands left the keyboard completely.

It was at that moment that Mas' computer defense system completely collapsed. His computer screen flickered a few times and then turned completely black.

Closer, as they both watched.

Two English words appeared on the computer screen.

Game Over!

Game over.

It was definitely a slap in the face!

Mas suddenly looked uncomfortable.

Qi Yan's expression was not good, either. She walked to the side and took a deep breath to suppress her anger. She picked up her phone and dialed the number she wouldn't call unless she had no choice.

"Beep..."

The phone rang seven or eight times. No one answered.

Qi Yan became even more embarrassed. She suppressed her humiliation and was about to call again when the other party picked up at the last second.

"... Countess."

The royal family of Country M was also addressed royally. Qi Yan was often called Countess.

Except that those words sounded strangely ironic coming from a girl.

Qi Yan's face burned, and the humiliation in her heart intensified. However, she had no choice but to lower her head.

“Miss Qiao, can I have a few minutes of your time?”

Qiao Nian had just poured herself a glass of water when she heard Qi Yan's humiliated voice. Her red lips curled up coldly. “Oh, how do you want to talk to me?”

1565 Sure, I Want One Billion

Qi Yan's voice came from the other end of the phone. It was obvious that she was still a little calm. “... I apologize to you and Young Master Jiang on Lanyin's behalf. I'm sorry.”

Qiao Nian took a sip of water, too lazy to reply.

Would it help to be sorry?

Or did Qi Yan think that her apology could erase the fact that Jiang Li was still lying in the hospital bed?

Qi Yan didn't hear the girl's response. Her face burned, and her breathing was heavy. She lowered her voice and said in humiliation, “In order to show our sincerity, we are willing to compensate Young Master Jiang for all his hospitalization expenses and losses. Miss Qiao, give me a number. I'll get someone to transfer the money immediately.”

Qiao Nian slowly put down her cup. She pointed at her chin with a cold white hand, her eyelashes slightly lowered. “Do you want to compensate me?”

Did she seem short of money?

“It’s not remuneration. It’s just compensation for Young Master Jiang. This is also a token of my appreciation on Lanyin’s behalf.”

Qi Yan felt a little more confident and spoke much more smoothly. “I’m friends with your uncle and aunt, and I’m also your cousin’s godmother. Our families are considered relatives, after all. There’s no need for you to make things so tense. To be honest, the Jiang family doesn’t want you to blow things up to the point of being unable to clean up, right? Even Young Master Jiang himself doesn’t know that you made such a big deal out of standing up for him?”

Qiao Nian didn’t argue.

Jiang Li really didn’t know what she had done, and she didn’t want him to worry.

“Miss Qiao, I know you have a good relationship with Young Master Jiang, but before you do anything, you have to consider others!”

At this point, Qi Yan smiled and became more fluent. “Miss Qiao, you should have heard that there’s a spot in the Pharmacy Association to participate in the annual exchange in the independent continent.”

Qiao Nian remained silent.

She had always known about the annual exchange.

Every year an invitation was sent to her. Only, she never went.

Did Jiang Xianrou want to go to the independent continent?

A cold glint flashed across Qiao Nian’s eyes.

Did Jiang Xianrou know what the independent continent was? And she wanted to go there.

Did she think the independent continent was a good place?

Jiang Xianrou would probably be beaten up when she arrived there.

“The Qi family can help her get this spot in exchange...” Qi Yan did not finish her sentence.

Qiao Nian casually interrupted her. “Don’t you know that Jiang Xianrou is worthless to me?”

Qi Yan was speechless.

“I gave you a chance. Qi Lanyin did this alone. Every injustice has its perpetrator. I’ll look for her.” Qiao Nian’s tone was very calm.

Qi Yan felt as if someone was choking her. She could barely breathe. “Qiao Nian, what do I have to do for you to let Lanyin off?”

Qiao Nian pulled out a chair and sat down. She crossed her legs and supported her chin with her hand, as if she was seriously considering her question. Then, she replied casually, “Don’t you want to compensate me? Why don’t you give me a billion yuan first?”

Qi Yan was so angry that her head almost bled!

“How much did you say?”

“One billion.” Qiao Nian ‘thoughtfully’ confirmed it.

Qi Yan was trembling, not from fear, but purely from anger. “Miss Qiao, don’t force me. Where can I get a billion yuan for you!”

1566 Qi Yan Was Almost Pissed Off

The Qi family had just experienced the previous storm and almost went down.

Although Qi Yan had found a mysterious backer to help them survive, and they seemed to be more prosperous than before, only Qi Yan knew best that the Qi family was only maintaining superficial glory.

Her brother had researched the chip technology for 10 years, and the Qing University’s research team had also created a chip similar to theirs, which directly destroyed their 10-year plan.

For that chip technology, the Qi family had not only invested a lot of effort and manpower in the past 10 years, but they had also spent a lot of money on this project.

The final results were even beaten to it by others, making their goal of monopolizing the market fall short.

The chip technology also became useless.

The Qi family was relying on that technology to achieve the entire group's transformation goal. Without the chip technology, their foundation was also injured.

This was also why Qi Yan hated Qiao Nian so much.

Back in the illegal district, if Qiao Nian hadn't interfered, they would have long used the International IT Association to forcefully steal and plagiarize from the Qing University's Research Institute.

In the end... Qiao Nian intervened, and everything changed.

It could be said that the Qi family's current predicament was inevitably related to Qiao Nian.

She still dared to suggest giving her a billion.

A billion, not a hundred thousand.

Even if the Hengfeng Corporation had money, they wouldn't be able to take out a billion yuan all of a sudden. Even if they could, it would definitely be a huge blow to them. They would be as good as dead even if they didn't die.

"One billion is too much," Qi Yan said without thinking.

Qiao Nian didn't seem to mind. The corners of her lips curled up, and she said valiantly, "I'll give you a day to think about it. It's fine if you don't pay me. There are many high-rise buildings in Country M. I want to see if Qi Lanyin will be as lucky as my brother if she falls from them. She'll be able to keep her life, then.

"It doesn't matter to you. It matters even less to me."

“Qiao Nian!” Qi Yan was so angry that her head was filled with blood. Her vision darkened, and she almost fainted from anger.

Unfortunately, Qiao Nian ignored her and hung up.

She did not put down her phone immediately after hanging up. Instead, she leaned back in her chair and opened QQ.

She hadn't logged into QQ in a long time. Now that she did, other than some messy group messages, there was also a message from Wen Ruxia.

“Qiao Nian, the MV will be released on October 15th. Can you post on Weibo and interact with me? I'll do some publicity. My Weibo name is ‘Wind in Summer’.”

Qiao Nian rubbed her temples and realized that Wen Ruxia had sent her a message a week ago.

Which meant she never replied.

Qiao Nian looked at the date on the top corner of her phone.

October 13th.

Fortunately, there were still two days to go. There was still time.

Qiao Nian replied to Wen Ruxia on QQ. Then, she placed her phone beside her and quickly logged into her Weibo account.

She had only posted on Weibo twice.

Once on Jiang Li's Weibo post to clarify.

The other time was when she tagged Qiao Chen and publicly announced that she had used her song to win the award.

After that, Qiao Nian never used Weibo again.

Mainly because she was usually busy and had no interest in sharing her life on Weibo.

As soon as she logged into her go-to account and password, 99+ messages popped up, followed by 99+ follows.

Her computer nearly jammed from the bounce.

Qiao Nian deleted all the private messages and followers that popped up. Finally, the computer page was clean. She added Wen Ruxia's Weibo username and pressed the Enter key.

Weibo immediately showed her dozens of people called "Wind in Summer".

She checked the first one. It was Wen Ruxia's account.

Qiao Nian clicked on it.

1567 Sister Nian: I Might Have Stabbed Gone With the Wind's Nest Recently

Qiao Nian rarely used Weibo. Not only had she only posted two Weibo posts, but her follow list was also clean.

Other than following Jiang Li's Weibo account, Qiao Nian had never followed anyone else.

Wen Ruxia was the second person she paid attention to.

She clicked on "follow" and then clicked on the "Wind in Summer" account. Next, she saw the Weibo post at the top.

Wen Ruxia's Weibo post was a video about the Winter Games. There were only a few comments and shares under her post.

Qiao Nian clicked on the comment section.

There were less than 10 comments in total, and they were all from people she knew.

[Flying Cat: Could that figure in the video be Young Master Wen's goddess? @Wind in Summer 2.0, Young Master Wen, quickly forward your goddess.]

[Make Me Fly: God Qiao.]

[Gone With the Wind 2.0: Young Master, I've forwarded it!]

[Gone With the Wind 2.0: Alright.]

[Gone With the Wind 2.0: Transfer another.]

Qiao Nian's half-squinted eyes were still a little sleepy. Seeing the curious ID in the comment section, Gone With the Wind 2.0, she couldn't help but recall the middle school name that Qin Si had complained to her about.

It seemed to also be Gone With the Wind.

Resting her chin in her hand, she narrowed her eyes and double-checked. It was indeed Gone With the Wind, but there was a 2.0 behind the ID.

She had recently poked the nest of 'Gone With the Wind'. Why was that name everywhere?

Qiao Nian took a few more glances at the ID and slowly closed the comments. Then, she composed a few words and reposted Wen Ruxia's Weibo post.

After doing this, Qiao Nian got up to dry her hair.

Her hair was dripping wet. If she didn't blow it dry, her shirt would get wet on her shoulders.

Ten minutes later.

The girl blew her hair half dry. When she was sure it wasn't dripping anymore, she dropped the hairdryer and returned to the desk.

The computer had been beeping non-stop since earlier, but Qiao Nian had ignored it while drying her hair.

Walking over, she realized that the Weibo post she had reposted earlier had already been labeled as a hot topic. There were many more reposts and comments on the message board in the upper right corner.

Qiao Nian walked over and covered the mouse with one hand, then clicked on one of them.

[God, is that you in the video?]

[Master Zhui Guang, did you film an MV for Spark? Damn, did you star in it yourself?]

[Spread it around! We have to blow this up!]

[I've already given 'Wind in Summer' a lot of attention ~ (*^ω^*) Hehe, I can't chase after my idol, but I have the same kind of attention as big shot Zhui Guang~ Smart Mom fan, peeping online!]

Qiao Nian didn't finish reading all of them. She only saw a few comments that had received a lot of likes.

Then, she looked away from the computer, walked to the side, and casually grabbed a bottle of water. She had just unscrewed the cap when her phone lit up.

Qiao Nian caught a glimpse of the Class A group chat of First High School. She raised her head and took a sip of water. Then, she closed the cap of the mineral water bottle and reached for her phone.

It had been a long time since the group was so active.

All of them appeared today. They were very active.

[Shen Qingqing: Have you guys seen Sister Nian's Weibo? She posted on Weibo.]

Shen Qingqing was admitted to University A, which was next to Qing University. The Media Department was also one of the ace majors in University A other than the Computing Faculty.

[Chen Yuan: I saw it.]

[Zhou Feiyang: I saw it.]

1568 Top Hot Search Topic

[Jiang Tingting: Where is it? Weibo? Ah, Sister Nian posted on Weibo? I thought she had forgotten that she had a Weibo account. I'll go take a look now. Everyone, wait for me to come back and discuss it~]

[Shen Qingqing: Σ `O' Σ Ow~~ I also want to be on Sister Nian's following list.]

[Liang Bowen: +1]

[Shen Qingqing: ...]

[Jiang Tingting: +2]

[Pei Ying: +3]

There was a series of names at the bottom, all from the old Class A.

Qiao Nian saw that the group was flooded with messages. All sorts of +5, +6... +19, +28.

She pursed her lips and silently bubbled in the group.

[QN: Send your Weibo accounts here.]

In the Class A group chat of First High School, everyone was in a frenzy. Everyone was dumbfounded when Qiao Nian appeared.

No one in the group spoke for a full two minutes.

Liang Bowen was the first to react.

[Liang Bowen: Sister Nian, you're here?]

His message was followed by a sweating emoticon.

Jiang Tingting had always been a straightforward person. Before Qiao Nian could reply, she posted her Weibo account in the group.

[Jiang Tingting: Sister Nian, this is my Weibo account.]

[Jiang Tingting: Remember to double click and follow me!]

With someone taking the lead, the people at the back had the cheek to post their Weibo accounts in the group chat as well.

Qiao Nian gave them a cursory glance. There were about 30 of them. She needed to find them one by one.

Qiao Nian couldn't help but feel a headache coming on. She regretted sending that message.

If she'd known there would be so many people, she wouldn't have said that.

Indeed, it was risky. She made a silent note to be more cautious in the future.

However, she always kept her word. Qiao Nian leaned against the desk patiently. According to the Weibo accounts that everyone in the group had posted, she followed them one by one.

Zhui Guang Following List +1.

Zhui Guang Following List +2.

In just 10 minutes, Qiao Nian's following list, which originally only had two people, instantly increased to more than 30. Her fans even thought that they had accidentally followed the God's fake account.

After the fans on Weibo confirmed that they had not made a mistake, the atmosphere was no less lively than the Class A group chat of First High School.

"Damn, what's wrong with the big shot today? She's so active that she doesn't seem like herself."

"I went to look at the accounts that the God followed just now. They seem to be all students from Class A of Rao City's First High School. Boohoo, let's not talk about it anymore. I'm impressed. I want to be in the same class as the big shot."

"Am I the only one who's been warmed up!"

"Hehehe, as long as my hand speed is fast enough, God Qiao's classmates will be my classmates! Everyone, pay attention to them. I hope you can send more photos of my God. It's best to send your WeChat as well. You can also send your phone number if you don't have a WeChat account."

Qiao Nian had always been popular.

She was the kind of special existence who was not in the entertainment industry but was definitely not inferior to any popular celebrity.

She didn't usually operate like a celebrity.

Zhui Guang was the kind that did not come online for 10 days or half a month.

It was already very rare for her to say something in half a year.

Hence, many fans wanted to set off firecrackers to celebrate when Qiao Nian went online on Weibo this time.

Several trending topics related to her appeared on the trending list.

In particular, Wen Ruxia's promotional video for the Winter Games' forwarding reached the six digits. The number of shares and likes was still rising.

The topic of #Winter Games also jumped to the top of the trending searches.

Attention was high.

1569 Nian Nian, Are You Going to the Independent Continent?

Qiao Nian didn't read any of this. After she finished following everyone in Class A's group chat, she quietly logged out of Weibo and didn't read the rest.

Nie Mi called her at this time.

"Hello."

Qiao Nian's voice was rather hoarse, mainly because she hadn't rested well in the past few days. She was very tired.

She might not have picked up the call if it was someone else calling.

"Nian Nian, were you asleep?" Nie Mi's voice was as strong as ever, but it was very gentle. He was obviously concerned about her.

Qiao Nian casually closed her laptop and walked towards the bed, grabbing a book from the bookshelf.

She put the phone to her ear and slowly answered, “No. I was about to go to bed.”

“Oh.”

Qiao Nian placed the book on the bedside table, turned on the bedside lamp, and asked, “What’s the matter?”

“I do have something for you.”

Nie Mi knew that she had been busy recently, so he didn’t waste any time. He briefly explained why he was looking for her. Finally, he asked, “So, are you interested?”

Qiao Nian held her phone in one hand and stood rooted to the ground. She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. Instead of answering him immediately, she asked in a low and hoarse voice, “You want me to go to the independent continent to participate in the annual exchange?”

She had never expected Nie Mi to look for her about this.

How should she put it?

It was quite unexpected.

Qiao Nian’s eyes rippled with mockery.

Jiang Xianrou tried her best to go to the independent continent and even tried to please Qi Yan. She wanted to use the Qi family’s power to obtain a spot in the Pharmacy Association... However, she didn’t know that the Pharmacy Association wasn’t the only one that had a spot in the independent continent. There were also spots in the country.

Moreover, the Pharmacy Association only had one slot.

But at least it had a reputation!

It wasn’t like what Jiang Xianrou and Tang Wanru thought. Only overseas countries had such opportunities.

“Are you going?”

Nie Mi was worried that she would miss this good opportunity, so he added, “Master Cheng, Principal Liang, and I have discussed this for a long time and decided to give this spot to you. You’re the best among the younger generation in the country. This trip to the independent continent is a good opportunity to show off. We have also thought about others, but I have decided that you are more suitable to represent the country.”

Liang Conglin and Nie Mi had actually considered Jiang Xianrou at the beginning.

Firstly, she was a few years older than Qiao Nian and had more experience.

Secondly, her brother, Jiang Yao, was from Tian Chen. Tian Chen was one of the top forces in the illegal district and was also quite famous in the independent continent.

Putting these two points together, although Jiang Xianrou’s character was not good, she was indeed a more suitable candidate.

Qiao Nian... was only a freshman!

Nie Mi was worried that she would attract too much attention and cause unnecessary trouble.

Only, plans fell short of change.

They didn’t expect Jiang Xianrou to successfully climb up the ranks and enter the Pharmacy Association. Now, she was relying on the Association to get a spot in the independent continent.

If they went to look for Jiang Xianrou at this time, it would seem like they couldn’t keep her in the country. They would be courting death!

There was another very important reason. Master Cheng didn’t think that Jiang Xianrou would go to the independent continent on the country’s behalf.

It was said that her personality was too ostentatious and she couldn’t keep her composure. She was too proud and complacent... Jiang Xianrou might cause trouble if she went to the independent continent.

1570 Master Nie Accidentally Revealed the Truth

They also needed to consider the opinion of the Master.

Therefore, Jiang Xianrou was eliminated in the end.

“Nian Nian, you don’t have to worry too much about the danger of going to the independent continent. This time, Master Cheng and I will be leading the team. Your father will be going, too. We will definitely protect you no matter what happens,” Nie Mi said seriously.

Unfortunately, he couldn’t see how calm the girl on the other end of the phone was. She even rubbed her temples helplessly and said in a casual tone, “Uh, I’m not worried about that.”

“Are you going, then?”

Qiao Nian beat him to it. “I’m not sure yet. We’ll see. You’re not going immediately. I’ll tell you half a month in advance.”

“... Alright.”

“Yes, I’ll hang up now. I’m sleepy.”

Nie Mi smiled and said gently, “Sleep if you’re tired. I won’t disturb you anymore. Bye.”

In the office of the principal of Qing University.

The old man hung up and walked back.

“How is it?” Liang Conglin had been waiting for his results. Seeing that he had finished his call with Qiao Nian, he immediately went up to him and asked, “Master Nie, what did Qiao Nian say?”

Nie Mi was wearing a new suit and looked very energetic. He walked back with his phone and glanced at the impatient Liang Conglin, then said unhurriedly, “Nian Nian said that she can’t decide immediately. She still has to consider it.”

“I see.”

Liang Conglin was a little disappointed. He had mixed feelings. A spot to go to the independent continent with the top masters was so precious. Even if such a spot was placed in front of the top families in Beijing, no one would be able to consider it like Qiao Nian.

But...

Liang Conglin felt that it was normal for Qiao Nian to consider such a matter.

She seemed to have always been this calm and collected. However, she would definitely do her best as long as she agreed to something.

“Nian Nian has a lot of things to do and is usually quite busy. She probably wants to see if she has time, so let her consider it,” Nie Mi said.

He had wanted to tell the other party that Qiao Nian had agreed to tell him half a month in advance.

The words were on his lips, but Nie Mi suddenly realized that something was wrong. He frowned and suddenly looked at Liang Conglin with a burning gaze, then said in a deep voice, “No, how does she know when the independent continent will hold the exchange?”

Liang Conglin was confused. He touched the bridge of his nose and looked at him in confusion. “Master Nie, what are you talking about? How did who know...?”

Nie Mi stopped talking.

He was too shocked, but at the same time, he felt that it was unlikely that Qiao Nian would have anything to do with the independent continent.

He had indeed not mentioned the time to Qiao Nian.

However, Qiao Nian told him that she would tell him half a month in advance.

Nie Mi was at a loss for words.

Nian Nian wouldn't know when the annual exchange meeting was held on the independent continent, right?

... Surely not?

A few days later, in the early evening.

At the Jiang family villa.

Qi Yan looked for Tang Wanru almost without invitation. The past few days of physical and mental torture had long worn down her sharpness. She barely spoke. After making her intentions clear, she placed the things Qiao Nian had given her on the coffee table in the Jiang family's living room.

"President Jiang, Mrs. Jiang, take a look."

It was rare for Jiang Zongnan to be at home. Upon hearing that Qi Yan was visiting, he even came out of the study to entertain her.

Hearing this, he frowned and looked at the stack of papers on the table. "What is this?" he asked, not understanding.
