

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 229

Even Shen Qingqing could feel her heart racing from how pretty she looked. She suggested softly to Qiao Nian. "Erm... Sister Nian, I need to suggest that you don't smile when you speak in the future..."

"Hmm?" Happy, Qiao Nian kept smiling.

Damn.

Shen Qingqing said her prayers, feeling guilty over her feelings.

I'm sorry, my dear Jiang Li. I'm getting attracted to your sister. Do you want a new daddy?

I can be your daddy!

The blue Ferrari stopped in front of Waterside Loft.

As the chauffeur opened the door, Shen Qiongzhi emerged from inside.

She was wearing a silk purple gown and a diamond necklace that glistened under the sun. Qiao Weimin bought it for her for their wedding. She had only worn it once during their wedding, and today was the second time. Else, it would have been in their safe.

She was also holding the latest Bvlgari gold-plated bag that cost a hundred thousand.

The branded bag and diamond necklace made her look prideful.

“Chen Chen, be careful when you get out of the car. Don’t hit your head.”

Qiao Chen got out of the car after her.

She wasn’t dressed flashily today. Her previous humiliation in school made her realize that her face and figure weren’t suitable for flashy clothes.

Having learned her lesson, she wore a light green dress that showed off her fair shoulders today. She also permed her hair, and it lay over her shoulders.

Since her outfit couldn’t be too flashy, she focused on other areas.

She paid more attention to her accessories this time.

She was wearing a pair of well-designed earrings.

She had a cute star-shaped stud on her left ear, but the main focus was on her right ear. The earring on her right had a tassel finishing, swaying as she walked.

What was so unique was that the tassel finishing was made up of diamonds.

They were dazzling and looked stunning.

It distracted people from noticing that she didn’t have deep facial features and made them focus on her slender neck instead.

Xu Xu exclaimed when Qiao Chen got out of the car. "Chen Chen, your earrings look amazing! They're so beautiful. I have never seen anything as pretty as that."

Qiao Chen became unhappy when she heard that. Did she mean that the earrings were beautiful but she wasn't? However, she didn't voice out her thoughts. She smiled and said, "Thank you."

Xu Xu didn't notice her unhappiness. She approached her and asked, "What brand is it? It must be expensive, right?"

Qiao Chen's eyes mocked her. She smiled and replied, "It's not that expensive."

No way it wasn't expensive!

"It's from Seven. It was designed by Seven's top designer: S. He called it Liu Guang," she said admirably as she touched the earring. "I've always liked his works. I didn't expect to have the chance to buy it."

Liu Guang was one of S's earliest works.

Everyone that knew about diamonds knew that S's designs were really wild in the early years. But as he became better in his craft, his style matured and he became more restrained in his designs.

Hence, collectors loved S's later works and weren't that interested in his earlier ones.

That was the reason why Qiao Chen managed to get Liu Guang from a second-hand site through her connections.
