

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 58

The boys reading the post together got a shock and kept their phones. They didn't dare to look at Qiao Nian and said with guilty expressions, "We-we're just repeating everything that's written on this post."

"But you shouldn't be saying such nonsense!"

Shen Qingqing was part of the student committee. Her scream shocked the boys. They felt so guilty that they couldn't look at Qiao Nian. They then replied softly, "We felt the same about the post too. Qiao Nian took her exams in the staff room in front of the Dean of Teaching. How could she have cheated?"

However, the person that created the post on the forum found Qiao Nian's result slip from her previous school.

Her grades were nothing spectacular, and she couldn't have made it into Class A.

It did seem like she cheated.

"Qiao Nian never cheated!" Shen Qingqing said as she stood next to Qiao Nian. She held onto her hand and wanted her to defend herself.

"Qiao Nian, tell them that you got into this class because of your own merit and not because you cheated."

Everyone looked at her. Qiao Nian didn't want to deal with such matters. However, she couldn't reject Shen Qingqing's good-will and said nonchalantly, "It's their mouths, they can say anything they want."

"But, are you just gonna let them say such things?" Shen Qingqing started to panic from worrying about her.

After spending so much time with Qiao Nian, she realized that Qiao Nian was a nice person even though she may look unfriendly.

Qiao Nian even gave her a bracelet after she helped her close the window.

She didn't even blame her for not helping the previous time Qiao Nian messed up.

Qiao Nian even paid for their lunch just now.

She was such a great person, how could they say such things about her.

Shen Qingqing turned around and clenched her fists. She then said to the boys, "Qiao Nian never cheated! Don't believe in such nonsense!"

Qiao Nian stared thoughtfully at her cheeks that were red from being so angry.

The bell rang.

As she returned to her seat, Qiao Nian took out her phone. She then browsed First High School's forum and saw the first post.

[It's impossible for Qiao Nian to enter Class A with full marks. She must have cheated. These are her results from her previous school!]

She tapped on the link. There were a few photos in the post of her results slip last time.

She only passed for her results.

She frowned. No one saw what she did, but in a matter of minutes, the post disappeared.

...

In Class B, Zhao Jingwei was replying to the messages on the post.

She smiled as she saw a large number of responses to the post. However, her replies triggered a system response suddenly.

[The post you're replying to no longer exists. Please try again later.]

"Damn!"

Zhao Jingwei stood up with a huge frown and screamed. "Deleted? Who deleted it!"

Class B was having a chemistry lesson now. The teacher just finished writing two questions on the board for the students to solve.

However, her scream shocked everyone. They stared at her.
