

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 812

"Zhou Wei?" Jiang Li was stunned. "Which Zhou Wei?"

He knew Zhou Wei, but that Zhou Wei was in Beijing. She shouldn't have any interaction with Nian Nian.

Qiao Nian didn't say anything. She picked up her phone and sent a message to Slim Waist Control.

[SUN: Help me check if Zhou Hengfeng has passed by the Red Alliance.]

After sending the message, she called Yuan Yonggin. "Hello, Aunt Yuan.

Beijing's Zhou family.

Over the past few days, the Zhou family had been shrouded in the dark clouds of Zhou Wei being fired by Ninth Branch. The family was gloomy and sad. They went everywhere to find connections and ask for favors.

'They had to think of a way to minimize the impact of this matter.

However, the Buddha of the Ye family was never someone who knew how to socialize. Including Zhou Hengfeng, the Zhou family had searched all the connections they could find. After a round of searching, they didn't even see him.

'The effect was naturally passable!

With something like this happening to Zhou Wei, Zhou Hengfeng no longer stayed outside. He had been at home recently. With him around, the entire Zhou family did not panic like they did when the accident first happened. They calmed down a little and did not panic.

At noon, lunchtime. The servants at home brought the steaming dishes to the table.

Old Master Zhou, Zhou Hengfeng, Father Zhou, and Mother Zhou were all there. Only a spot on the left was empty. No one came down for a long time.

"Dad, have some soup."

"Mm-hm." Old Master Zhou scooped a bowl of soup and slowly lowered his head to take a sip. 'Then, he looked up and put down his chopsticks without much appetite. He asked his youngest son, "Hengfeng, has the eldest daughter of the Jiang family not replied to your m

Father Zhou and Mother Zhou instantly pricked up their ears and looked at Zhou Hengfeng with concern.

'The man in his forties had taken good care of himself. He had a square face and average looks. He was thin, but his eyes were bright. It was obvious that he was not an incompetent person.

He frowned and put down his chopsticks. "Not yet. I'll call and ask later."

"That's good." Old Master Zhou had contacted all his connections, but there was no progress at all. Hearing that there was no progress, he completely lost his appetite. He looked at the empty seat and sighed heavily. "I didn't expect Zhou Wei to encounter such a thing, either. Now, we can only take things one step at a time and try to find connections to see if we can get her to go back. Otherwise, she'll be ruined... Among the Zhou family's generation, she's the closest. She's talented in computer science. I used to have high hopes for her. I hoped that the Zhou family would become better and better in your hands and that you would really have a foothold in Beijing. Who knew..."

Father Zhou and Mother Zhou lowered their heads in shame.

Zhou Hengfeng clenched his chopsticks tightly and did not speak. His expression was clearly not good when Zhou Wei was mentioned.

Old Master Zhou paused for a moment before continuing, "Jiang Xianrou has always had an extraordinary relationship with Young Master Ye. The Jiang and Ye families are old friends, too. If she's willing to stand up for Zhou Wei in front of Young Master Ye, there might be a way to resolve this matter."

"I know. I'll call and ask later." Zhou Hengfeng's voice was low.

As the two of them spoke, someone came down the stairs. It was none other than Zhou Wei.

After not seeing her for a week, Zhou Wei looked much more haggard. There were obvious signs that she had not rested well in her eyes. Her energy was extremely low, but her chin was still slightly raised. The arrogance of a child of God had not disappeared.

She was wearing light blue pajamas as she walked down the stairs. Her sharp jaw was clenched tightly. She was expressionless, and her eyes were very dark. She walked towards the table and greeted everyone unhappily. "Grandpa, Dad, Mom, Uncle."
