

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 830

It was obvious that the Zhou family had been framed.

However, from the looks of it, this was not entirely the work of the Jiang family or Ye Wangchuan. The Jiang family didn't have such a big hand, and Ye Wangchuan was not so tactful...

The only person he could think of was the high school girl Zhou Wei had provoked!

Qiao Nian.

He had checked before. Her background was extremely clean. Other than her normal results in the past, she had also gotten into Qing University. There was nothing else worth noticing

However, to the Red Alliance cutting ties with him to the Zhou family's investment being investigated, he had no choice but to think about it and link the two families together.

Zhou Hengfeng stood rooted to the spot, looking at the Old Master. Old Master had his mouth hung open in a look of shock and was obviously speechless for a long while. He was also confused.

Did a high school student have so much ability?

The Zhou family's situation was much worse than they imagined.

The phone call only opened Pandora's Box. Afterward, of all the calls that Zhou Hengfeng and Old Master Zhou received, none of them was good news.

In just the short time of half a day, the once unlimitedly glamorous upstart of Beijing, the Zhou family, was now on a rapid slope downwards.

Zhou Hengfeng was fine, but Old Master Zhou was anxious like an ant on a hot pot. He began to look for connections everywhere.

However, he met many dead ends, and found few who were useful!

In the end, Zhou Hengfeng went to look for Qin Si. He spoke with him for a long time, wanting to understand what the girl in Rao City was like.

Outside the villa, Jiang Li already roughly learned from Gu San about the situation. Gu San didn't say anything about the Ninth Branch and Master Cheng, but he vaguely explained the origins of Qiao Nian and Zhou Wei's feud.

When Jiang Li heard that Zhou Wei had done this purely out of jealousy, he was so angry that he almost went to the airport and returned to the capital to find trouble with her.

Fortunately, Gu San told him later that those gangsters had admitted to it. Zhou Wei had also been captured by the Beijing police. It was only a matter of time before she was sentenced. He then barely suppressed his anger. He had just returned with Gu San.

He saw that the man on the sofa in the living room was still on the phone.

“Huh? Who told you that?”

Jiang Li walked over and casually asked, “Master Wang, who is it? You haven’t finished fighting?” Wasn’t this call too long?!

Master Wang was talking on the phone with someone! He didn’t even finish a call for half an hour.

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him calmly. Not mentioning that the call was from Jiang Xianrou, he said calmly, “Qin Si.”

The person on the other end of the line seemed to be talking to him. He only glanced at Jiang Li and narrowed his eyes leisurely. He held the phone and continued, “That’s true.”

Jiang Li could hear Qin Si’s loud voice scolding from the other end of the line no matter how far away he was. “Damn! Zhou Wei really fucking got someone to trouble Sister Qiao?! Is she crazy?! Is Sister Qiao okay? She’s not hurt?”

He called out ‘Sister Qiao’ especially quickly, causing the corners of Jiang Li’s mouth to twitch.

Why did he feel like the entire world was fighting over his sister?

Gu San handed him the cup of tea he had made previously and interrupted his depression. “Young Master Jiang, have some tea.”

“...” Jiang Li silently took the cup. He felt uncomfortable and lowered his head to take a sip. The door upstairs opened.

Wearing a cap, the girl walked down the stairs in a refreshing manner.

Gu San was the first to see her. He took a step forward excitedly. “Miss Qiao, you’re here? Do you want some tea? I’ll make you a cup. Do you want green tea or oolong tea?”
