

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 833

Until he couldn't see her anymore.

He then rolled up the window and took out a cigarette from the drawer. He held it between his lips and lit it skillfully. He picked up his phone at the side and called Beijing.

"Tell Zhou Hengfeng that if he keeps jumping around, he'll go down with Zhou Wei. I'll help them and let their entire family reunite in prison."

With Ye Wangchuan's warning, Zhou Hengfeng no longer dared to look for connections. The Zhou family was shrouded in a lifeless atmosphere.

A week later, Zhou Wei's sentence was out. She was sentenced to 15 years in prison.

This outcome was more serious than anyone in the Zhou family had imagined.

In other words, there was no probation. Ye Wangchuan did not give them any room to move around. Zhou Wei was going to jail.

The day the court's verdict was released.

Everyone from the Zhou family went. When the judge announced the verdict, Mother Zhou fainted on the spot. She was picked up by the ambulance, and Father Zhou followed her to the hospital. After a few days of struggle, Old Master Zhou was old and haggard. However, he was stronger than Father Zhou and Mother Zhou. Hearing Zhou Wei's verdict, he only collapsed into the audience seat. He closed his eyes and took a deep breath. Although his face was white, at least he did not faint like when it first happened.

Zhou Wei cried and made a fuss in the court. First, she refused to admit her crime, and later, she cried and begged the court to reduce her sentence.

However, her matter was determined by the higher-ups. Who dared to change it? Before the police transferred her to prison, Old Master Zhou and Zhou Hengfeng rushed over and finally had the chance to see her in private.

Seeing the two of them, Zhou Wei's eyes were filled with the desire to live, and they immediately lit up. Ignoring the police's obstruction, she grabbed Old Master Zhou, who couldn't even stand steadily. "Grandpa, help me..."

She had just finished speaking when Old Master Zhou pushed away Zhou Hengfeng, who was supporting him, raised his hand, and slapped her loudly in front of everyone.

Pa!

Zhou Wei's left cheek was slapped. She covered her face and was stunned.

After hitting her, Old Master Zhou swayed. His fingers were trembling, and he almost lost his balance and fell.

Fortunately, Zhou Hengfeng was quick to catch him. He didn't fall straight down.

Even so, Old Master Zhou's old face was pale. It was no better than Mother Zhou, who had fainted from crying and had been sent to the hospital urgently. He raised his hand, his fingers still trembling. He pointed at Zhou Wei, who was covering her face in shock, with difficulty. He was furious. "You evil creature! How did an evil creature like you appear in the Zhou family?! Great, are you satisfied now?!"

"Grandpa, I, I didn't expect this to happen. I just wanted to teach her a lesson. I didn't expect things to turn out like this." Zhou Wei's tears fell. Her hands were still cuffed. She wanted to struggle, but she was pressed down tightly. She was afraid now. She shook her head desperately, her eyes covered in tears. She looked at Old Master Zhou and Zhou Hengfeng in fear. "I, I don't want to go to jail. Grandpa, do something. Tell the family to do something!"

Qiao Nian was just a high school student from Rao City. She had investigated before and found that she had no background. She was just an ordinary person.

She dared to get someone to teach her a lesson because of this. Unexpectedly, in the end, Qiao Nian was fine and she was caught. The sentence was even 15 years. Her entire life would be ruined if she spent 15 years in prison!
