MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 860

"The officials have issued a statement to deny the rumors, and her raw calculated results are out. Also... your chat history with her is also on the Internet. Look at it yourself."

"I..."

She had just said a word when Fu Ge hung up.

Qiao Chen looked at her cell phone in a daze for a long time. She bit her lips and her eyes flickered. She couldn't care less about Fu Ge's attitude and quickly went online to investigate.

The moment Qiao Nian's results for the college entrance examination were released, the Weibo hot search blew up. Qiao Chen didn't need to dig around. The moment she logged in, she saw the news on the trending list.

[A national top scorer emerges once again after 30 years in Rao City. Full marks for the national college entrance examination were shockingly revealed!]

All the blood in her body flowed in reverse as she stared intently at the news on her phone. She clicked on it and saw that it was a video of the officials refuting the rumors.

"...Previously, there was a huge commotion on the Internet regarding Qiao Nian's score of o in the college entrance examination. I have to step forward and explain. When Qiao Nian's test results were tabulated, the teachers who were reviewing her papers thought that they had gotten it wrong. Therefore, they took out her test papers at the last minute and organized a new round of checks. After confirming that the results were correct, we then recorded her results in the system. This resulted in Qiao Nian's results coming out two hours later than others."

The man in the video was dressed in formal attire. He was in his forties or fifties and looked gentle and elegant. He spoke sensibly to the reporter interviewing him behind the camera.

"The college entrance examination review process has always existed, but this is one of the few times that this program has been used. We didn't expect things to get so out of hand. There were even some irrational people who went to Qing University's official website to leave a message. We didn't consider this matter properly. I hereby formally apologize to Qiao Nian.

"We are very sorry if our negligence caused you trouble this time."

After he finished speaking, he bowed deeply. It was obvious that he was sincere.

With that said, he raised his head again and suddenly put on a stern face. He looked at the camera with a serious gaze. Qiao Chen felt that those eyes seemed to be looking at her through the camera, and her entire body couldn't help but stiffen.

"However, this matter doesn't seem to merely be a controversy caused by the results being released late. As for what exactly is going on, we will investigate seriously. I hope that the people with ill intentions will stop stirring up trouble! Later on, we will release Qiao Nian's examination papers for all her subjects and accept public scrutiny on them! The college entrance examination is a serious matter. I hope that everyone can treat it rationally. Don't play tricks on this matter or... That's all I want to say. Thank you for the interview."

When Qiao Chen heard the first half of the sentence, she felt very uncomfortable. The knuckles of her fingers that were holding the phone turned white. When she heard the second half of the sentence, the other party saying that he would investigate seriously, other than feeling uncomfortable, she was more afraid and flustered...

Things seemed to have gone off track. It was completely beyond her expectations. But Qiao Nian was the top scorer in the country?

There was a perfect, full-marks paper in First High School?

Qiao Chen was really unable to digest this news. She fell to the ground and refused to give up. She logged onto Weibo to take a look. As soon as she entered, countless tagged messages popped up.

There were also private messages flashing in her mailbox.

She clicked on one of the private messages.

It was a fan who used to pay attention to her.

[Hmph, did you see those posts defaming you on Weibo? Hurry up and come online.]

[Zhui Guang mentioned you in a post. Did you really write the arrangement issued by the Piano Association? No way. Did the Piano Association make a mistake and put your name on it? It was actually written by someone else, right?]
