

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 97

Gu San witnessed it all through the rearview mirror. He almost lost control of the steering wheel over what he saw.

Damn, Master Wang is shameless. How could he say something like this?

You just cornered Miss Qiao in your car and told her that you're showing concern for her like an older brother?

You're just trying to seduce her!

He didn't dare to say what was on his mind and could only look at the two of them through the rearview mirror.

Qiao Nian was shocked by what he said. Is this how a senior should care about a junior?

As she pondered on it, Ye Wangchuan leaned away from her. It was as though nothing had happened as he leaned back in his seat. His hands were on his knees, and the bracelet on his wrist gave him an exotic look.

He tapped on the seat next to her and said to Qiao Nian, "Come, have a seat."

His voice was really attractive.

Qiao Nian's feeling from just now had disappeared. She could feel herself calming down. She sat up straight and listened to him attentively.

“The school called your brother and grandpa. They’re aware of what happened to you already. Your brother will only be back later. Hence, your grandpa asked me to come to have a look.”

Qiao Nian had forgotten about what happened. She looked at him and was pissed about how helpless she felt just now. She said, “I just scraped my arm, no need to make such a big deal out of it.”

It was common for her to get hurt, anyway. Qiao Weimin and them wouldn’t notice it if she didn’t mention it.

Even when they did notice it, they would just ask where she got the injury from. They were more concerned that she would ruin the Qiao Family’s reputation.

They didn’t care if her injury was severe or if it required medical attention.

Only Aunt Chen would care for her and dress her wound in the middle of the night secretly. She would even care for her and tell her to take care of herself as a girl. If she got injured and left scars on her body, she wouldn’t look nice when she wore a dress.

Ye Wangchuan looked down. Even though he may look calm on the outside, his internal anger was rising. He said, “Luckily, you only scrapped your arm. If the steel rod had landed on you, I wouldn’t let this matter go so easily.”

Qiao Nian was speechless.

She couldn’t understand how this was considered as care from a senior.

She felt that his concerns were different from Jiang Li. But she couldn’t put her finger on it.

It just felt different.

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was frowning and thought that she was more concerned over whether the matter would become a big deal. He looked at her and said, "You were almost killed in First High School, but this is a huge matter. The school must be held responsible for this and find out the culprit. Else, both your grandpa and I can't be at ease."

Qiao Nian replied, "I kind of already know who it is already. But I cannot be sure due to the lack of evidence."

It was strange for Qiao Chen to speak out for the culprit and want to stop the investigation.

Ye Wangchuan saw that her hair was loose and tucked it behind her ear. Then, he relaxed, maintaining his strong presence. He said, "You can find any evidence if you have the will to do so."

"Your principal is smart. He'll do his best in the investigation. Else, the school will have to take responsibility for this!"
