

Chapter 163

Dew's eyes became profound, and she slowly curled her fingers. Aside from kicking her out of the Board of Directors, that b*tch, Adina, had also dealt with her friend!

"Dew, everyone in the company is saying... saying that Daugherty Corporation will belong to Adina. They even said Adina's more suitable to be the heiress compared to you." Queenie gritted her teeth and added, "Unfortunately, I can't continue working in the company, or else I would rip off the mouths that talk badly about you!"

"I won't let you get fired. Just wait."

After Dew hung up, anger filled her face, which was covered in exquisite makeup. "Adina, that b*tch! Her cunning mind is extraordinary!" Ruby had heard the conversation clearly. She slammed the table and indignantly said, "Dew, we can't just wait and do nothing anymore!"

Dew bit her bottom lip and said, "Mom, you think I don't want to get some people to kill that b*tch? But George has sent some people to watch us. No matter what we want to do, he'll find out. I don't want to ruin my reputation in his heart."

Ruby thought about it with a dark expression as she said, "That b*tch has returned to Sea City for so long, yet she hasn't discovered the truth that the two b*stards are still alive. This means it's impossible for her to think that her dead sons have become the young masters of the Winters family, so we won't be exposed anytime soon. The most important matter is still the control over Daugherty Corporation. If Adina holds the position of Sales Department manager firmly, you won't be able to secure the general manager position." Dew nodded. "Dad's on my side, but Adina's too sly. The shareholders have acknowledged her even though she hasn't done anything, and Dad can't do a thing about it." "Let's go to your grandmother!" Ruby sneered and said, "We'll get your grandmother to talk to Adina so that she can't do anything she wants! Those people we've placed in Daugherty Corporation mustn't be eliminated by Adina."

"Okay."

Dew and Ruby went downstairs and headed to Mdm. Daugherty's room. Mdm. Daugherty was sick, so she would spend most of her time there. It was quite sunny today, so she was basking in the sun on the balcony of her room. "Grandma..."

Dew called out to Mdm. Daugherty in a sobbing tone. When Mdm. Daugherty turned around, Dew's tears fell nonstop. "Dew, what happened?" Mdm. Daugherty got up, and her maid, Mrs. Tuffin, immediately came over to support her. "Mdm. Daugherty, please take it easy." "Grandma, I didn't want to come to you because of this small matter, but Adina has gone too far!"

Dew wiped her tears in sorrow and purposely rubbed her eyes until they turned red.

The corners of Mrs. Tuffin's lips twitched.

Mdm. Daugherty was ill, and she would purposely hide the things that happened among the Board of Directors from her. But Ms. Dew Daugherty went far enough to complain to Mdm. Daugherty.

Mdm. Daugherty was old. If she got admitted to the hospital as a result, would Ms. Dew feel guilty?

However, Mrs. Tuffin had a feeling that Dew would not feel guilty when she looked at Dew's fake tearful face.

Mrs. Tuffin purposely said, "Mdm. Daugherty, it's time to take your medicine. Why don't you take your medicine first?"

After Mdm. Daugherty took her medicine, she took a nap to avoid Dew.

"Grandma, I won't disturb you. Please rest well." Dew bit her bottom lip and said, "I deserve it. I made too many mistakes in the past. That's why Adina's going against me like this now." Mrs. Tuffin was speechless.
