Chapter 511

When Ethan heard the noise, he immediately got up and went outside.

He had met the young masters of the Winters family at least once, but this was his first time meeting them after finding out that they were his nephews.

He searched his body and realized that he did bring any gifts he could give them.

"Uncle Ethan."

Alden was the first to speak, politely greeting Ethan.

Right after he spoke, three other voices were heard.

"Uncle Ethan!"

"Uncle Ethan!"

"Uncle Ethan!"

Harold and George obediently stood at the door. They blinked and appeared cool as well as obedient.

"Hello!" Ethan immediately answered before he lowered his voice and said, "Addy, this is the first time you've brought them here. Why didn't you call me in advance? I didn't prepare anything!"

Adina smiled and said, "You don't have to prepare anything. I just came over to share some good news with you."

Ethan cast a glance at the kids. "It definitely is good news."

When Adina called him some time ago, she had asked him not to tell anyone about the children, but now, she could bring the four kids to visit him. It looked like a balance had been achieved between Adina and the Winters family for the children.

He raised his hands and held the children's hands while they entered the mansion.

Today, all the Xavier family members were there. Sophia had also brought her son, Leo, back. They were sitting on the couch while eating grapes.

When Sophia saw Adina coming in, she scoffed. "Wow, what brings the most beautiful woman in Sea City here today?"

Her tone was as unpleasant as could be.

Mdm. Xavier's expression instantly turned cold. "If you don't like Addy, you can take your child and leave the Xavier family's home now!"

Sophia was so angry that her face turned pale.

Her family name was Xavier too, and she was the lady of the family. This was her home. Why did she have to step aside when Adina came over?

Recently, because the chip designed by Adina had received exceptionally good reviews in the market, it pushed Xavier Corporation's stock price to new heights. That also led the internal staff of the company to compliment Adina constantly. Whenever Sophia went to the company, she would hear positive reviews about Adina from the staff, and it infuriated her.

It was fine to be pissed off at work, but Adina had to step on her even when she was back in her own home. How could she hold back?

Sophia threw her glass on the tea table with great force.

Alden glanced at Sophia indifferently before he looked at Mdm. Xavier and obediently said, "Great-grandma."

Right after, the three other kids behind him immediately followed suit.

"Great-grandma!"

"Great-grandma!"

"Great-grandma!"

Alden then looked at Richard. "Uncle Richard."

“Uncle Richard.”

Mdm. Xavier and Richard were stunned.

Who were the two other children next to Melody and Alden?

Ethan cleared his throat and said, “Addy didn’t let me tell you, so I’ve been keeping it a secret. Now, I can finally tell you. These two children are the young masters of the Winters family, and they’re Addy’s biological sons.”

“What did you just say?” Mdm. Xavier was taken aback for a while before she immediately responded, “The news said Addy’s two sons died, but they weren’t...”

She looked at George and Harold’s faces with a complicated gaze.

Adina sat down beside Mdm. Xavier and spoke in a gentle voice. “That night four years ago, I gave birth to quadruplets. Georgie and Harold weren’t breathing when they were born, so Dew Daugherty deceived me by telling me that they were dead. Then, she carried them away. After I gave birth to Alden and Mel, I ran away from the Daugherty family.” She calmly explained the incident that had happened four years ago, and the living room was extremely quiet throughout.

Tears filled Mdm. Xavier’s eyes. “Addy, it really has been so tough for you and the kids.” “It’s all over.” Adina’s gaze was soft. “Grandma, I’m very happy now. I have my four kids, and all of them are healthy and happy. Duke and I are getting married too. We’ll have a happy family, and the kids will grow up with joy.” “Getting married?” Mdm. Xavier caught the main point. “Who are you marrying?” “Great-grandma, Mommy is getting married to Dad!” Harold smiled cheekily. “They’ll get engaged on the sixth of next month. Mel will be the flower girl, and I’ll be responsible for lifting Mommy’s gown.” “Addy, is that true?” Ethan asked in surprise. Adina nodded bashfully. “Yes. I came over today because I wanted to tell you the news. We’ll be engaged on the sixth of next month. The venue hasn't been confirmed, so I'll deliver the invitation card in a few days." "Great!" Mdm. Xavier patted the back of Adina's hand excitedly. "Duke Winters became the CEO of Winters Corporation at a very young age. He has managed the company well all these years. He has money and power, yet we've never heard any scandals about him in our circle. This shows that he's a man whom you can rely on for the rest of your life."

"Tsk!"

A discordant sound suddenly came from the living room.

Sophia fiddled with her fingers while she sarcastically said, "As long as you have money, there's no scandal that you can't suppress. If he really is a man you can rely on for the rest of your life, why would he have a one-night affair with the most beautiful woman in Sea City five years ago? Duke might also have countless women in places that you can't see. Perhaps he also has a lot of illegitimate children out there..."

George cast a cold glance at her.

He was very young, but he had a strong aura. When he glanced over, the second half of Sophia's sentence died in her throat.

"Aunt Sophia, right?" George asked coldly. "I heard that you're married to Mr. Gardner. I've met him. He has a big head, fat ears, and a huge belly. He looks like a giant, but he has a lot of luck with women. Whenever he attends a dinner, he doesn't seem to be accompanied by the same female companion. Aunt Sophia, if you're interested in his women, I can take you to meet him one day."

Sophia widened her eyes in anger.

When those words came out of a four-year-old boy's mouth, it made her feel embarrassed and annoyed.

Nobody knew her husband better than her. She had been covering it up in front of the Xavier family, but the little brat just exposed everything.

"Nonsense!" Morganna glared at George. "How old are you? You spout a lot of nonsense. I wonder who taught you all of this."

"My dad taught me. Why? Do you have something to say?" George sneered.

He shut Morganna down.

This brat's dad was Duke.

Who was Duke? He was the CEO of Winters Corporation and a bigwig who could control Sea City. The Xavier family was part of the top ten in Sea City, but they still could not compare to the Winters family.

Morganna had to stuff her anger in her chest, and it was suffocating.

However, she dared not make a bigger fuss. She turned around and walked to the side hall. Sophia followed her as well after she glared at Adina in hatred.

As soon as the two of them entered the side hall, their rage was completely visible on their faces.

Sophia kicked the tea table. She was so furious that she nearly fainted.

Morganna was no better. "Like mother, like daughter. Olivia Xavier hooked up with Young Master Jones, but she still got kicked to the curb. Adina doesn't think she can increase her status and become Mrs. Winters after she birthed four kids for the Winters family, does she?" Morganna mocked.

Sophia turned around. "Mom, what do you mean? I don't quite get it." "Olivia Xavier is Adina's mother. She died not long after she gave birth to Adina." Morganna scoffed. "Xavier family was also a big reputable family at that time, and Daugherty Corporation had not been established yet. Look, Olivia was the Xavier family's daughter. Why would she lower her status and marry a poor guy who had nothing?"

"Why?"

"It's because she had slept with Young Master Jones and become second-hand goods, hence she needed to marry Aaron Daugherty!" Morganna said contemptuously. "Aaron is trash. After he established Daugherty Corporation with the Xavier family's support, he still had a mistress outside, who happens to be the current Mrs. Daugherty. In short, Adina will end up in the same situation as Olivia."

THAT

Sophia leaned on a couch with a scornful smile and said, " Even if Olivia had married Young Master Jones back then, things would not have ended up good for her, right? I heard that Young Master Jones didn't attend to his duties properly, and his father, Mr. Jones, didn't trust him. As a result, he handed the family business to Mdm. Zhenny Jones to manage. If Olivia were still alive, she would probably feel fortunate about not marrying Dillon Jones." "You can't say that. No matter how incapable Dillon is, he's still the young master of the Jones family. He holds the shares of Jones Corporation. Even though he does nothing, he can still have a wealthy life."

Adina was on the way to the restroom. When she passed by the side hall, she accidentally heard the shocking conversation.

She was stunned.

Previously, she had purposely visited the Xavier family and asked her grandma about it, but her grandma explained that her mother had never been in a relationship when she was young. Aaron was her mother's first and last boyfriend.

But why did Morganna say that her mother had gotten involved with a man other than Aaron?

If what Morganna said was true, would the man who had gotten involved with her mother be her biological father?

Adina stopped after she walked past a window screen. Then, she entered the side hall.

The moment she stepped in, the two people , who were talking inside, immediately fell silent.

They hated Adina, but they clearly knew that Adina was the biological mother of the young Winters masters, and she was likely going to become Mrs. Winters. They could not afford to offend a person with such a status,

Although Sophia knew that, her gaze on Adina was still filled with fury and jealousy. The fire of hatred was burning fiercely in her eyes. Adina stood at the entrance of the side hall and calmly said, "I heard my mother's name just now."

"Why? Is your mother a noble bigwig? Can't we even mention her?" Sophia asked angrily. Adina remained indifferent. "How is my mother connected to Dillon Jones?"

“They used to be a couple,” Morganna said sarcastically. “But the Xavier family couldn’t seek a connection with the Jones family at that time, so Dillon abandoned your mother. Since she was abandoned, she could only seek an alternative and marry Aaron in the end...”

“Shut up!”

Richard walked over out of nowhere.

He stared at Morganna and angrily said, “You’re an elder. Why are you talking about these trivial matters in front of the kids?”

After that, he turned around. “Addy, don’t listen to your aunt. Your mother and Dillon Jones were just friends. They weren’t in that kind of relationship,” he said in a friendly manner.

“I know, Uncle Richard. It’s all over. There’s nothing that I should look into.”

Adina smiled and seemed relaxed.

However, as soon as she entered the restroom, she took out her phone and did a search on Dillon’s name.

Chapter 514

Chapter 514

The Jones family had about a hundred years of history in Sea City. They were a family with a rich heritage. After they got involved in the business industry a few decades ago, they became highly successful. Soon, they became one of the four biggest families in Sea City.

Mr. Jones was ruthless, and he had a son as well as a daughter. His son was Dillon, while his daughter was Zhenny. She was Mdm. Jones, who had a conflict with Adina due to the position of Elitos chief designer for chip development. Zhenny had a daughter called Jasmine Yackley, who happened to be the girl who kept going after Flint.

Adina smiled faintly. What a coincidence ! She actually had conflicts with both Zhenny and Jasmine. She swiped over the information about Zhenny and Jasmine before she read about Dillon. He was fifty years old but only had one son. His wife had passed away about two decades ago, and he had remained single until now.

The Internet's review of him was quite good, but his skills were worrying. A few subsidiary companies under Jones Corporation had gone into bankruptcy in his hands. Therefore, Mr. Jones officially withdrew Dillon's status as the heir about eight years ago. He then handed Jones Corporation to Zhenny to manage instead. Gradually, less and less information about Dillon appeared on the Internet.

Adina keyed in both Dillon and her mother's names at the same time, but she could not find any relevant news.

She held her phone, and her fingers suddenly froze.

She did not know why she was so concerned about this. Was it that important to know who her biological father was?

She was a grown woman, and she was going to have her own family. Why was she still pursuing such a silly thing?

Morganna loved to gossip. Perhaps she had purposely made up her mother's personal affairs, and Adina took it seriously.

Adina turned her phone off and slipped it into her pocket before she washed her face and returned to the living room.

The four children surrounded Mdm. Xavier as they chatted. Once people got older, they would enjoy being surrounded by kids. Mdm. Xavier seemed to be squinting because she was grinning.

"Great-grandma, listen to this. George also used to pee his pants when he was little."

"Harold Winters, shut up!"

George's face turned slightly red as he lowered his voice and scolded Harold.

Harold leaned on Mdm. Xavier's knees and cheekily said, "I won't shut up. I want to keep talking! Great-grandma, George looks like a small adult now, but he actually liked to drink milk when he was little. He drank more than me!"

"Who's the one who still wants to drink milk in the middle of the night now?" Alden pointed out seriously.

Harold righteously replied, "I get hungry, so it's normal for me to need milk."

"All of you are just four years old, so you have to drink more milk. You'll only grow taller after you drink milk." Mdm. Xavier turned to the side and instructed, "Richard, ask some people to deliver milk powder and buy four feeding bottles. After dinner later, make a bottle of milk for each of these kids." 1

Harold was extremely delighted. He truly liked to drink milk, but his dad did not allow him to use a feeding bottle. He had not enjoyed drinking milk for a very long time. 1.

He held Mdm. Xavier's arm in a cute manner and said, "Great-grandma, I really like you!"

George was speechless.

Alden was at a loss for words too

When Adina saw this, she could not help but chuckle.

Just as she was about to speak, her phone vibrated. She glanced at the incoming call and discovered that it was from Duke

When Duke looked at the empty ward in the hospital, he felt quite gloomy. He was severely injured, and the woman who had just become his fiancée disappeared for the whole afternoon.

He held his phone with hesitance for a while, struggling repeatedly before finally making a call.

His call was answered after two beeps.

Both parties did not speak, but Duke could hear the children's laughter from the other end of the line.

He, the father, was bedridden and unable to move, while the brats were laughing happily. Duke pursed his gorgeous lips and nonchalantly said, "I'm hungry."

Adina was speechless.

Hungry?

Were there no bodyguards and caretakers in the hospital? He was a CEO. As long as he instructed it, food would be delivered in a minute. He was not asking her to cook and deliver food to him, was he?

She paused for a while and said, "I'll make some food and deliver it to you after I bring the children back to the Winters family villa later." After that, she seemed to recall something and added, "I remember the doctor mentioning that you can only eat liquid food."

There was nothing but a lot of liquid food sold in the hospital's cafeteria.

Duke's expression remained unchanged as he said, "My hand's injured, so I can't eat on my own. Please come and help me."

He just hung up once he was done speaking, as though he was afraid that Adina would reject his request.

Beep!

Adina looked helpless when she heard the dial tone on the phone. She finally knew who Harold resembled in terms of character. He was like the unreasonable Duke.

That man was nearly thirty years old. Could he stop being so childish?

"Was that a call from Duke?" Mdm. Xavier narrowed her eyes in amusement and smiled. "Addy, you should have brought Duke over for dinner today. The Xavier family hasn't officially met him yet."

Adina stroked her nose. "He's still in the hospital."

"Yes, Dad's injured. He has to stay in the hospital for at least a week!" Harold spoke clearly.

"Addy, this isn't right. Duke's in the hospital. How can you come to the Xavier family's mansion?" Mdm. Xavier instantly became worked up. "Let the kids stay in my place. Hurry to the hospital and keep Duke company. He's injured. That poor thing is lying down in the hospital alone."

“Dad’s not a poor thing!” Harold blinked as he said, “ There are two bodyguards and two caretakers in the hospital. Maybe Papa Brown’s there too. There are so many people. Dad’s the least pitiful one!”

Mdm. Xavier held Harold’s hand and said, “Can bodyguards and caretakers compare to a fiancée? At a time like this, your mommy has to go over and accompany him so that your dad will recover faster.”

Harold pouted unhappily. He just wanted his mommy to be with him. He did not want his dad to take all her time.

“Dad’s an adult. He should learn how to be alone. Great grandma, let’s have dinner now,” Alden said indifferently.

Mdm. Xavier was speechless.

Fine, she could not refute these two brats.

Adina sighed in relief as well. She really did not want to accompany Duke in the hospital on her own.

After all, it was getting dark. If she went over now, she would probably have to spend a night in the hospital. She could not bear Duke’s aggressive and possessive nature. A large group of people sat at the dining table and prepared to have dinner.

George stood up and obediently said, “I’ll take my brothers and Mel to wash our hands.”

Mdm. Xavier looked at them in a loving manner. “Good boy. Richard, take the kids to the restroom quickly.”

“No.” George waved. “We’re four years old. We can wash our hands on our own. We’ll be back soon.”
